DOWLING STREET,

30th March, 1874.

Sir, I have the honor to transmit to you, for publication in the Colony under your Government, a copy of a Treaty between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Austria for the mutual Surrender of fugitive Criminals, as well as a copy of the Order in Council of the 17th instant, for carrying into effect that Treaty, which will come into operation on the 30th of March.

I have the honor to be,
Your most obedient humble Servant,
CARNARVON.
The Officer Administering
The Government of Canada.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT.

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY, IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled: "An Act for amending the law relating to the Extradition of Criminals," it was amongst other things enacted, that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Act shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the third day of December last between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Austria, King of Bohemia, &c., &c., and Apostolic King of Hungary, for the Mutual Extradition of Fugitive Criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, King of Bohemia, &c., &c., and Apostolic King of Hungary, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice and to the prevention of crime within the two countries and their jurisdictions that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up; Their said Majesties have named as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say:

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable Sir Andrew Buchanan, a member of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Her Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to His Imperial and Royal Apostolic Majesty:

And His Imperial and Royal Apostolic Majesty, the Count Julius Andrassy of Csik-Szent-Kiraly and Krasna Horka, His Imperial and Royal Majesty's Privy Councillor, Minister of the Imperial House and of Foreign Affairs, Grand Cross of the Order of St. Stephen, &c.;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

The High Contracting Parties engage to deliver up to each other those persons who, being accused or convicted of a crime committed in the territory of the one Party, shall be found within the territory of the other Party under the circumstances and conditions stated in the present Treaty.

ARTICLE II.

The crimes for which the extradition is to be granted are the following:—

1. Murder, or attempt to murder.
2. Manslaughter.
3. Counterfeiting or altering money, uttering or bringing into circulation counterfeit or altered money.
4. Forgery or counterfeiting, or altering or uttering what is forged or counterfeited or altered; comprehending the crimes designated in the Austrian Penal Laws, or in the Hungarian Penal Laws and Customs as counterfeiting or falsification of paper money, bank notes, or other securities, forgery or falsification of other public or private documents, likewise the uttering or bringing into circulation, or wilfully using such counterfeited, forged, or falsified papers.
5. The definition is to be determined accordingly with the Austrian Penal Laws if the extradition shall take place from Austria, and accordingly with the Hungarian Penal Laws and Customs if the extradition shall take place from Hungary.
6. Embezzlement or larceny.
7. Obtaining money or goods by false pretences.
8. Crimes against bankruptcy law: comprehending the crimes considered as frauds committed by the bankrupt in connection with the bankruptcy, according with the Austrian Penal Laws if the extradition shall take place from Austria, and with the Hungarian Penal Laws if the extradition shall take place from Hungary.
9. Fraud by a bailee, banker, agent, factor, trustee, or director or member or public officer of any company, made criminal by any law for the time being in force.
10. Rape.
11. Abduction.
12. Child stealing, kidnapping, and false imprisonment.
13. Burglary or housebreaking.
14. Arson.
15. Robbery with violence or with menaces.
16. Threats by letter or otherwise, with intent to extort.
17. Sinking or destroying a vessel at sea, or attempting to do so.
18. Assaults on board a ship on the high seas, with intent to destroy life, or to do grievous bodily harm.
19. Revolt, or conspiracy to revolt, by two or more persons on board a ship on the high seas, against the authority of the master.
20. Perjury or subornation of perjury.
21. Malicious injury to property, if the offence be indictable.

The extradition is also to take place for participation in any of the foregoing crimes, as accessory either before or after the fact, provided such participation be punishable by the laws of both the Contracting Parties.

In all these cases the extradition will only take place from the Austro-Hungarian States when the crimes, if committed in Austria, would, according to Austrian law, constitute a "Verbrechen," or, if committed in Hungary, would, according to the laws and customs being in force in Hungary, constitute a crime ("buntett"); the extradition from Great Britain only when the crimes, if committed in England, or within English jurisdiction, would constitute an extradition crime, as described in the Extradition Acts of 1870 and 1873.

ARTICLE III.

In no case and on no grounds whatever shall the High Contracting Parties be held to concede the extradition of their own subjects.

ARTICLE IV.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or the person claimed on the part of the Government of Austria-Hungary, has already been tried and discharged or punished, or is still under trial, in the Austro-Hungarian dominions, or in the United Kingdom respectively, for the crime for which his extradition is demanded.

If the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or if the person claimed on the part of the Government of Austria-Hungary, should be under examination for any other crime in the Austro-Hungarian dominions, or in the United Kingdom respectively, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial, and the full execution of any punishment awarded to him.

Should an individual whose extradition is demanded be at litigation, or be detained in the country on account of private obligations, his surrender shall nevertheless be made, the injured party retaining the right to prosecute his claims before the competent authority.

ARTICLE V.

The extradition shall not take place if, with respect to the crime for which it is demanded, and according to the laws of the country applied to, criminal prosecution and punishment has lapsed.

ARTICLE VI.

A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove that the requisition for his surrender has, in fact, been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE VII.

If an Individual whose extradition is demanded by either of the High Contracting Parties, in accordance with the terms of this Treaty, be also claimed by one or several other Powers on account of other crimes committed on their territory, he shall be surrendered to the Government in whose territory his gravest crime was committed; and if his crimes are all of the same gravity, or a doubt exists as to which is the gravest, to the Government which first made application for his surrender.

ARTICLE VIII.

A surrendered person shall in no case be kept in arrest or subjected to examination in the State to which he has been surrendered on account of another previous crime, or any other grounds than those of his surrender, unless such person has, after his surrender, had an opportunity of returning to the country whence he was surrendered, and has not made use of this opportunity, or unless he, after having returned there, reappears in the country to which he has already been surrendered.

This stipulation does not refer to crimes committed after surrender.

ARTICLE IX.

Requisitions for surrender shall be made by the Diplomatic Agents of the High Contracting Parties.

To the requisition for the surrender of an accused person there must be attached a warrant issued by the competent authorities of the State which demands extradition, and such proofs as would, according to the laws of the place where the accused was found, justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition refers to a person already convicted, the sentence passed by the competent Tribunal of State demanding his surrender must be produced.

No requisition for surrender can be based on a conviction in contumaciam.

ARTICLE X.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

The prisoner is then to be brought before a competent Magistrate, who is to examine him and to conduct the preliminary investigation of the case, just as if the apprehension had taken place for a crime committed in the same country.

ARTICLE XI.

A fugitive criminal may, however, in urgent cases be arrested under a warrant of a Police Magistrate, Judge of the Peace, or of any other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, or such evidence as would, in the opinion of the person issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime had been committed or the prisoner convicted in the district in which the authority happens to be; provided, however, that he shall be discharged if, within the shortest time possible, and at the utmost within fourteen days, a requisition for his surrender in accordance with the terms of Article IX of this Treaty is not made by the Diplomatic Agent of the State which demands his extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

The extradition shall not take place before the expiration of fifteen days from the apprehension, and, none then only if the evidence be found sufficient, according to the laws of the State applied to either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial, in case the crime had been committed in the territory of the said State, or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the Courts of the State which makes the requisition.

ARTICLE XIII.

In the examinations which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State applied to shall admit as entirely valid evidence, the sworn depositions or statements of witnesses taken in the other State, or copies thereof, and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, provided such documents are signed or certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of such State, and are authenticated by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE XIV.

If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, he shall be set at liberty.

ARTICLE XV.

All articles seized, which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension, shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for extradition has ordered the delivery thereof, be given up when the extradition takes place; and this delivery shall extend not only to property of the accused, and to the stolen articles, but also to every thing which may serve as a proof of the crime. If the extradition cannot be carried out in consequence of the flight or death of the individual who is claimed, the delivery of the above-mentioned objects shall take place nevertheless.

ARTICLE XVI.

Each of the Contracting Parties shall defray the expenses occasioned by the arrest within its territories, the detention, and the conveyance to its frontier, of the persons to be surrendered, in pursuance of this Treaty.

ARTICLE XVII.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of such Colonies or foreign possessions shall be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Colony or possession by the chief Consular Officer of Austria-Hungary in such Colony or possession.

Such requisitions may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the said Governor or chief authority, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender, or to refer the matter to his Government.

Her Britannic Majesty shall, however, be at liberty to make special arrangements in the British Colonies and foreign possessions for the surrender of Austro-Hungarian criminals, who may take refuge within such Colonies and foreign possessions, on the basis as nearly as may be, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal from any Colony or foreign possession of Her Britannic Majesty shall be governed by the rules laid down in the preceding Articles of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties, but shall remain in force for six months after notice has been given for its termination.

The Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Vienna as soon as possible.

In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at Vienna, the 3rd day of December, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

(L.S.) ANDREW BUCHANAN.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at Vienna on the tenth instant:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirtieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, the said Act shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the Emperor of Austria.

12. House-breaking, with intent to steal, or to commit other crimes.
13. Crimes resulting from the act of wilfully setting fire to a house, or to buildings connected therewith, to the prejudice of another.
14. Robbery with violence,
15. Piracy according to the law of nations.
16. Sinking or destroying a vessel on the high seas, or the attempt to perpetrate such acts.
17. Crimes arising from assault on board a ship on the high seas, with intent to cause death or grievous bodily injuries.
18. Crimes arising from the revolt of two or more persons on board a ship on the high seas, against the authority of the captain.
19. Extradition will also take place for participation in any of the above-named crimes, provided that such participation shall be punishable by the laws of both the States of the High Contracting Powers.

ARTICLE III.

No British subject shall be delivered up by the Government or authorities of the United Kingdom to the Government or authorities of the Empire; and in like manner no Brazilian subject shall be delivered up by the Government or authorities of the Empire to the Government or authorities of the United Kingdom.

If, however, the person who has taken refuge in the territory of the other High Contracting party shall have become naturalized there after the perpetration of the crime, such naturalization shall not be an obstacle to his extradition according to the stipulations of this Treaty.

ARTICLE IV.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed has already been tried and acquitted, or punished, or if he is under trial, for the same crime for which extradition is asked. If he should be under trial for any other crime, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial, and the fulfilment of the punishment, when such may have been awarded.

ARTICLE V.

The extradition shall also not take place if, after the perpetration of the crime, or the institution of the penal prosecution, or the conviction thereon, the refugee shall have acquired exemption from prosecution or punishment by lapse of time, according to the laws of the State appealed to,

ARTICLE VI.

The person claimed shall not be delivered up for crimes of a political character, and when he shall have been delivered up on other grounds he shall not be punished for anterior political crimes. He shall not, moreover, be delivered up if he can clearly prove that the requisition is made with the object of trying him or of punishing him, for a political crime.

ARTICLE VII.

A person surrendered cannot be kept in prison, or brought to trial, in the State to which the surrender is made, for any other crime, or on account of any other matters, than those for which the extradition has been granted. This statement is not applicable to crimes committed after the extradition.

ARTICLE VIII.

If the person whose extradition is demanded by one of the High Contracting Parties shall be also claimed by one or more other Governments, on account of crimes committed in their respective territories, the following rule shall be observed :

If he shall be a subject of the High Contracting Party who claims him, the surrender shall be made to it. If he be not so, the other High Contracting Party shall have the power of delivering him up to the reclaiming Government which in the case in question may appear to the former best entitled to the preference.

ARTICLE IX.

A requisition for extradition shall be made through the respective Diplomatic Agents of the High Contracting Powers.

When it relates to a person accused only, it must be accompanied by the warrant of arrest, issued by the competent authority of the State applying for it, and by such evidence as according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify the arrest if the crime was there committed.

If the extradition refers to a person already convicted, the application must be accompanied by a copy of the sentence of condemnation, passed against him, given by a competent Tribunal of the State making the requisition.

The requisition cannot, however, be founded on a sentence passed in contumaciam, that is to say, when the delinquent has not been personally cited to defend himself.

ARTICLE X.

If the requisition has been in conformity with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State to which it has been addressed shall proceed to the capture of the refugee. The prisoner shall be brought before a competent authority, who is to examine him and conduct the preliminary investigations of the case just as if the apprehension had taken place for the crime committed in the same country.

ARTICLE XI.

The extradition shall in no case take place before the expiration of fifteen days counted from the apprehension, and after delay it shall only be carried out when the evidence has been found sufficient according to the laws of the country applied to either for subjecting the prisoner to trial if the crime had been there committed, or to prove the identity of the person convicted and condemned by the Tribunals of the State making the requisition.

ARTICLE XII.

In the examinations which are to be made in conformity with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State to which application is made, shall admit as valid evidence the sworn depositions or declarations of witnesses, which were taken in the other State, or the respective copies thereof as well as the judicial documents, warrants, or sentences, transmitted therefrom, provided they are signed or certified by the hand of the judge, magistrate, or public officer of that State, and authenticated, either by the oath of some witness, or by the official seal of the Minister of Justice or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE XIII.

If within two months counting from the date of arrest, sufficient evidence for the extradition shall not have been presented, the person arrested shall be set at liberty. He shall likewise be set at liberty if, within two months of the day on which he was placed at the disposal of the Diplomatic Agent, he shall not have been sent off to the reclaiming country.

ARTICLE XIV.

All the articles found in the possession of the person demanded, at the time of his apprehension, shall be seized in order to their delivery with him, when his extradition shall take place.

This delivery shall not be limited to effects or articles robbed, stolen, or obtained by other crimes, but shall extend to all that might serve as evidence of the crime; it shall be made even when the extradition could not be made after orders to that effect, on account of the flight or death of the person claimed.

ARTICLE XV.

The High Contracting Parties renounce whatever claims they may have for the reimbursement of the expenses incurred for the apprehension and maintenance of the persons to be delivered up, and for their conveyance until they shall be placed on board ship, as they agree to defray these outgoings in their respective countries.

ARTICLE XVI.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall apply to the colonies and other possessions of Her Britannic Majesty,

The requisition for the surrender shall be made to the Governor, or to the chief authority, in the Colony or Possession, by the highest Consular Agent of Brazil.

The surrender shall be made by the Governor or the chief authority, who shall, however, have the power either to make it, or to refer the matter to his Government.

Both in the requisitions and in the surrender, the conditions established by the foregoing Articles of this Treaty shall be, as far as may be possible, adhered to.

As Her Britannic Majesty has the power to adopt special arrangements in the Colonies and possessions, respecting the delivering up of delinquents, Her Majesty will facilitate the reclamations of Brazil in this respect, as far as may be possible, with due regard, however, to the provisions of this Treaty.

ARTICLE XVII.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, and in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws or the countries of the High Contracting Parties. It will remain in force until one of these shall give notice for its termination, but it shall then remain in force for six months counted from the day of this notification.

This Treaty shall be rectified, and the ratification exchanged in Rio de Janeiro, within three months, or sooner if possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Treaty, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at Rio de Janeiro, on the thirteenth day of the month of November, of the year of Our Lord Jesus Christ one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.) GEORGE BUCKLEY MATHEW.

The Undersigned, Plenipotentiaries of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, charged with making a Treaty for the extradition of criminals, upon which they have at this present agreed, having met in conference, took into their consideration the following subjects:—

They directed their attention to the fact that the criminal law of England punishes the crime of infanticide with the same penalty as that of murder, when accompanied by corresponding circumstances, and that it results therefrom that extradition should take place even for attempting to commit that crime.

On the other hand, they observed, that according to the Brazilian law, infanticide is not punished as murder, nor even as manslaughter, but as a crime distinct from both, and by a minor punishment, and that consequently extradition should not take place for the attempt.

They consequently resolved to declare that extradition shall solely take place for the crime of infanticide, and not for an attempt to commit that crime.

With this declaration they agreed to close this conference, from which the present Protocol emanates, which being found in conformity, was signed each having a copy thereof.

Done in the city of Rio de Janeiro, the thirteenth day of November of 1872.

(L.S.) GEORGE BUCKLEY MATHEW.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at Rio de Janeiro on the twenty-eight day of August last.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, the said Act shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the Emperor of Brazil.

1. The Intercolonial Railway will not be accountable for any articles unless the same be signed for as received by a duly authorized Agent.

2. Nor will it be responsible for the loss of, or damage done to Money, in Cash, Bills, Promissory Notes or securities for money, or Jewellery, Trinkets, Rings, Precious Stones, Gold or Silver, manufactured or unmanufactured, Gold and Silver Plate or Plated Articles ; Clocks, Watches, Timepieces, Marble, Lace, Furs, Silks in manufactured or unmanufactured state, and whether wrought up or not wrought up with other materials ; Writings, Title Deeds, Prints, Maps, Paintings, Engravings, Pictures, Stamps, or other valuables ; nor for damage done to China, Glass, Eggs, Wearing Apparel, Musical Instruments, Furniture, Toys, Stoves, Castings, Cast Iron Work, Grindstones, Tombstones, Slate, or any other such hazardous or brittle articles, in packages or otherwise.

3. Nor will it be responsible for delays from storms or accidents, or damages from the weather, fire, heat, frost, or delay of perishable articles, or from civil commotion ; nor will it, under any circumstances, be liable for loss of market or other claim arising from delay or detention of any train whether in starting or at any of the Stations, or in the course of the journey. The Railway does not undertake to send goods by any particular train, if there be an insufficient number of Cars at the Station, or the cars cannot be conveniently used for that purpose, notwithstanding the goods may have been taken to the Station before the hour appointed by the Railway.

4. Nor will it be responsible for the loss or damage of any packages insufficiently or improperly marked, packed, directed or described, or containing a variety of articles, liable by breaking to damage each other or other articles : nor for leakage arising from bad casks, or bad cooperage, or from fermentation or any other cause beyond the control of the Railway.

5. Nor will it be responsible for the loss or damage of any goods put into returned wrappers or boxes, or packages described as "Empties : " nor for any goods directed "to be left until called for," or "to order," warehoused for the convenience of the parties to whom they belong, or by or to whom they are consigned : nor will it, under any circumstances, be accountable for the loss or damage of goods that are not taken away immediately after advice of their arrival has been sent or posted.

6. Nor will it be responsible for any deficiency in weight or measure of Grain, &c., in bags or in bulk ; nor for any deficiency in weight, number, or measure of Lumber, Coal, or Iron carried by the car-load. Nor for shrinkage of all or any kinds of Sugars, or short weights of the same, unless a damage to the package can be shown to have happened whilst in the possession of the Railway.

7. No Agent or other employee of this Railway is authorised to take charge of Bank Notes, Money, or valuable Papers.

8. Senders of dangerous articles will be held accountable for any damage arising therefrom, or thereto, unless the contents are so described upon the direction, that due care may be observed in loading ; and in no case will the Railway be liable for the loss of any such articles ; and the Railway will not undertake the transport of Aquafortis, Acetic acid, Vitriol, Friction Matches, or Gunpowder, except at the convenience of the Railway, and by special arrangement.

If the owner or owners, or his or their agent shall not, within five days after the arrival of the Goods at the place of destination, pay the freight and any other charges due thereon, and take possession of and remove such Articles from the Railway premises, the General Superintendent may sell or cause the same to be sold at Public Auction, after giving ten days public notice of such sale; to defray the Railway's claims, and all expenses incurred thereon.

10. Fresh Fish, Fruit, Meat, Poultry, Oysters, and other perishable articles, are conveyed only at the owner's risk, and the freight must be prepaid.

11. All articles directed to be left at any Way Station, or platform, where no buildings have been established, or where there is no Resident Agent, must be prepaid, and will be at the risk of the owner, whenever they are landed at such Station or Platform; and all articles brought there for conveyance will also be at the owner's risk until taken into the Cars.

12. That all goods addressed to consignees at points beyond the places at which the Railway has Stations, and respecting which no directions to the contrary shall have been received at these Stations, will be forwarded to their destination by public carrier or otherwise, as opportunity may offer without any claim for delay against the Railway, for want of opportunity to forward them; or they will be allowed to remain on the Railway premises, pending communication with the consignees, at the risk of the owners, for any damage arising from any cause whatever. But, that the delivery of the goods by the Railway will be considered as complete, and the responsibility of the Railway will be considered to have ceased, when such carriers shall have received notice that the Railway is prepared to deliver to them the goods for further conveyance. "And it is expressly agreed that the Railway shall not be responsible for any loss, damage or detention that may happen to goods so sent by them, if such loss, damage, or detention occur after the said notice, or beyond their said limits. That all property contracted for, at a through rate or otherwise, to or from places beyond the line of the Intercolonial Railway, if shipped by water, shall, while not on the Railway, or in their sheds or warehouses, be entirely at the owner's risk." And in case of loss or damage to any goods for which this Railway or connecting lines may be liable, it is agreed and understood that they shall have the benefit of any insurance effected by or for account of the owner of the said goods, before any demand shall be made.

13. Storage will be charged on all Goods remaining in the Stations over 48 hours after their arrival, at the rate of five cents per barrel bulk per month, and no deduction will be made from this rate for goods remaining in store for a less time than one month.

14. Demurrage at the rate of Two Dollars per car, per day, will be charged on all Cars not unloaded within Thirty six hours after arrival, exclusive of Sundays; provided the same are loaded with Goods liable to be unloaded by the owner or consignee; the Railway reserving the right to discharge the same at the expense of the owner or consignee, at any time after the expiration of such 36 hours.

15. No Goods will be delivered until all charges against them are paid, and the Railway will not be accountable for the correctness of any "back charges" on Goods, &c., by other Roads, Companies, Conveyances, or Individuals.

16. No claim whatever, for loss or damage (for which the Railway is liable), will be allowed, unless notice in writing is given to the Station Agent before the goods are removed.

17. No charge less than Twenty-five cents will be made for any single package or consignment.

18. Vehicles are carried only at the owner's risk of damage from fire, weather, and all other contingencies—and must be prepaid.

20. Barley, Bones in bulk, Chalk in bulk, Corn,

23. Full Car Loads of 20,000 lbs. each, of any or all description of Goods, except Gunpowder and other hazardous articles to one address, may be rated fourth class.

24. All Live Stock conveyed over the Railway, are to be loaded and discharged by the owner or his agent, and he undertakes all risk of loss, injury, damage, and other contingencies, in loading, unloading, transportation, conveyance, and otherwise, no matter how caused and the stock must be fed at his expense. Halters are to be provided by him when necessary, or when in less quantities than car loads. One Drover free (second class) when accompanying his stock for the purpose of taking care of it, and paying the full price of a car load. Freight of all Live Stock to be prepaid. Cars cannot be hired to load Cattle, or Goods of any kind, with the privilege of "loaving up" from different Stations; and in no case can Drivers be permitted to go free, except when they have at least one full car load from one Station, and then to pass only from that Station.

25. Dogs will only be conveyed at the risk of the owner, who will be required to provide collar and chain for the animal, and prepay the freight.

26. Special arrangements may be made under certain extraordinary circumstances.

27. Hay and Straw will only be conveyed in Box Freight Cars and at owner's risk of fire.

28. The loading of Lumber will be limited to the quantities per car, hereinafter stated. Pine, Hemlock and Spruce will be reckoned as soft, and all other kinds as hard. Owners overloading will be charged double rates in every instance. The quantities mentioned as being the load for one car, will not be considered as applicable to Lumber which, by reason of its length, requires for its conveyance two or more cars. Scantling, sawn or hewn, and ship or deck Plank, or other long Lumber, must not be piled higher than the tariff quantity of the same description of goods would reach, if upon one car. Owners to produce survey bill when required by the Station Master, or other duly authorized agent; and in case of dispute as to the quantities, the Lumber may be re-surveyed at the expense of the party proved to be in error.

29. Lumber will be taken to mean Timber, Deals, Boards, Plank, Ship Stuff, Cordwood, Tanbark, Fence or Hoop Poles, Box Shooks, Clapboards, Staves, Logs, Laths, Shingles, Railway Sleepers, Spars, and all other similar products of the forests. It must in all cases be properly and safely laden upon the cars, and must not project over the ends of the cars, nor must cross-grained wood be used for stakes. In the event of the owner neglecting or refusing to obey the directions of the Station Master, or other person authorized by the Superintendent in relation thereto, the load will be reduced, if necessary, to bring it within the quantity prescribed for a car load, and afterwards so secured as to make it entirely safe for transportation, the expense of doing this being charged against the Goods.

30. When Lumber is put upon one car care must be taken to have a stake placed near the centre of the length in addition to the others, so as to prevent its being dependent on only two stakes; and when the load is of Logs or small round Timber, or such other description of Lumber as tends to settle, and thus produce increased strain upon the stakes, chains or ropes must be used about one third of the height from the top of the load, to bind it, and where entire safety cannot be otherwise secured, skids to separate the tiers must also be used.

31. Long Lumber extending over two or more cars must be bound by chains or large ropes. It must not be "bound" by the stakes, but loaded on "bunks," that it may "play" or "swivel" freely.

32. Lumber will be carried only at the convenience of the Railway, and at the risk of the owner.

33. Cars laden with Lumber will not be allowed to stand over to give owners or consignees choice of positions at the receiving Stations when other berths are unoccupied.

34. In Loading Cordwood, sticks must be placed at the edges of the car for the outer ends of the wood to rest upon, that it may tend, when piled, towards the centre. The stakes must be green spruce or straight hardwood of sufficient thickness.

35. Stations being often obstructed by deposits of Lumber of various kinds, and the ordinary business of the Station being thereby incommoded, in such cases the obstructions will be removed, and the cost of such removal, in addition to yardage, at the rate of One Dollar per car load per day, will form a charge against the Lumber. Notice will be given to the owner or consignee, that its removal is required before a certain time, and the charges will commence immediately on the expiration of such time. When the charges have accumulated so as to amount to half the value of the Lumber, it will be sold at Public Auction, after giving ten days public notice of such sale.

36. Lumber and other Goods will not be received at Sidings, unless by previous arrangement it is shown to the satisfaction of the Superintendent, that sufficient for a full train load of ten cars will be so placed that it can readily be laden with the assistance of an engine. A charge of $2.50 per hour will be made, in addition to the rate per car, when the engine is detained more than three hours.

37. To avoid errors in Way Billing loaded cars at Outsidings, Owners should fasten a ticket upon the side of the car, stating to whom the load belongs, and to whom and where it is to be consigned.

38. When Goods are required to be loaded by the Owner or his Agent, or at his expense, all fittings (such as Stakes, Bunks, Skids, Chains, Ropes, &c., for Lumber, and Sideboards for Coal, Sand, Bricks, Clay, Stone, Manganese, Grain, or articles of a similar character,) must be provided by him, or will be charged to him if furnished by the Railway. Such fittings will be transported back free, if necessary, but at the owner's risk.

39. When Cars, liable to be laden or unladen by the Owner or Consignee of the Goods, have been once placed, and for the convenience of the owner, or at his request, are shifted to finish at another berth in the same Station Yard, a charge of One Dollar per car will be made for such service.

40. Cars left at Stations or Sidings to fill requisitions, will be subject to demurrage after twenty-four hours (exclusive of Sunday); they may be handed over or removed to fill other requisitions.

5000 superficial feet of Hardwood.
8000 " " Softwood.
300 cubic feet of Hardwood Logs or Timber.
400 " " Softwood " "

the whole contents of each stick being included in the measurement.

In the absence of Survey Bills, Deals must not be laden higher than three feet.

Cedar Poles, properly secured to prevent spreading, may be laden not more than five feet high.

The quantities specified as the load for a car should be reduced in cases where the Lumber is very green, or when, from other causes, the prescribed quantities would be an unsafe load.

The maximum load for a Platform Car shall be 20,000 lbs., and for a Box Car 20,000 lbs.

43. A bushel of Oats, Salt or Barley shall be equal to 2151 cubic inches; a bushel of Potatoes or Turnips shall be equal to 2747 cubic inches. The quantity in car loads shall be ascertained, upon the cars being laden, by dividing the cubic inches in one bushel into the cubic contents in inches of the load. In case of dispute, the load, before bulk is broken, to be weighed upon the Railway Track Scales, and the result divided by the mean weight of Five Bushels shall be considered conclusive.

44. All Regulations previously enacted for the conveyance of Goods and Merchandise over this railway, inconsistent with the foregoing, are hereby cancelled,

EVIDENCE OF AGE TO BE REQUIRED FROM CANDIDATES FOR THE CIVIL SERVICE OF INDIA.

I.—EVERY Candidate born in England or Wales should produce a Certificate from the Registrar-General of Births, Marriages, and Deaths, or from one of his provincial Officers. This Certificate may be obtained at Somerset House, or from the Superintendent Registrar of the District in which the birth took place.

II.—A Candidate who is a Native of India must have his age certified by the Government of India, or of the Presidency or Province in which he may have resided.

III.—Every other Candidate not producing the Certificate mentioned in Clause I, must prove his age by Statutory Declaration, and should also, if possible, produce a record of Birth or Baptism from some official Register; under which term may be included the Parochial Registers of Baptisms, the non-Parochial Registers of Baptisms and Births deposited at Somerset House under Acts of Parliament, the Register kept at the India Office of persons born in India, &c. This Regulation applies—

1. To All Candidates not born in England or Wales.

2. To Candidates, who, though born in England or Wales, cannot produce the Registrar-General's Certificate.

The Civil Service Commissioners reserve to themselves the right of deciding in each case upon the sufficiency of the evidence produced, but they submit the following general rules for the guidance of Candidates:—

(a.) The Declaration should specify precisely the date and place of birth, and should, if possible, be made by the father or mother of the Candidate. If made by any other person, it should state the circumstances which enable the Declarant to speak to the fact. If an entry in a Bible or other family record be referred to, the Bible or other record must be produced at the time of making the Declaration, and must be mentioned in the Declaration as having been so produced.

(b.) If the Candidate was born in England or Wales, the Declaration must contain a statement, that after due inquiry no entry has been found in the books of the Registrar General; or a separate Declaration must be made to that effect.

(c.) If no extract from any Register is produced, the Declaration must contain a statement, that after due inquiry no such Record is believed to exist; or a separate Declaration must be made to that effect.

(d.) Statutory Declarations must be exactly in the form prescribed by the Act of 5 and 6 William IV, c. 62. A printed Form, if required, will be supplied on application to the Civil Service Commissioners.

N.B.—Clergymen, as such, are not qualified to take Declarations. 25-3

Et qu'il est, en outre, décrété que aussitôt que les étalons de la Puissance et les étalons départementaux auront été reçus, légalisés par le gouverneur en conseil et déposés comme il est dit ci-haut, et que les appareils nécessaires pour l'usage de ces étalons auront été obtenus par le ministre du revenu de l'intérieur, le gouverneur pourra, par proclamation, fixer un jour en en donnant pas moins de six mois d'avis préalable, à compter duquel tous contrats, conventions, ventes ou transactions exécutés en Canada pour travaux à faire, ou pour marchandises, denrées

ORDRES EN CONSEIL.

HOTEL DU GOUVERNEMENT, OTTAWA.

Vendredi, le 18e jour de Décembre 1874.

PRÉSENT :

SON EXCELLENCE LE GOUVERNEUR-GENERAL
EN CONSEIL.

ATTENDU que par un acte passé en la 36e année du règne de Sa Majesté, intitulé :

"Acte concernant les poids et mesures"—il est, entr'autres choses, décrété que "Le ministre du revenu de l'intérieur fera préparer trois assortiments d'étalons de longueur et de poids de première classe, chaque assortiment comprenant :—

1. L'étalon de la verge,
2. L'étalon de la livre avoir-du poids,
3. L'étalon de l'once de Troy,
4. L'étalon du gallon,

Et il les fera dûment vérifier et authentifier de la manière qu'il croira à propos.

Et le gouverneur, après s'être assuré de l'exactitude des étalons de première classe, pourra, par ordre en conseil, les constituer les seuls étalons de longueur et de poids légaux et de première classe en Canada, sous la dénomination de "Etalons de la Puissance," et, comme tels, les unités ou étalons de poids et mesures d'après lesquels tous autres poids et mesures définis par le présent acte, seront supputés et constatés ; et à compter de la date de cette proclamation, tous les étalons de première classe de poids et mesures antérieurement établis et légalisés par la législature de la ci-devant province du Canada, ou par les législatures de la Nouvelle-Ecosse, du Nouveau-Brunswick et de la Colombie Britannique, seront transférées au département du revenu de l'intérieur et resteront en sa possession ;

Et qu'il est, en outre, décrété que, le ministre du revenu de l'intérieur fera également préparer deux assortiments d'étalons, de deuxième classe, des poids et mesures définis et établis par le présent acte, ainsi que de leurs proportions et multiples, et le gouverneur en conseil, sur le rapport du ministre à l'effet qu'ils ont été dûment vérifiés et authentiqués en les comparant avec les "étalons de la Puissance," pourra constituer ces étalons de deuxième classe, les étalons légaux de longueur, poids et capacité, de seconde classe, sous la dénomination de "Etalons départementaux."

Et qu'il est, en outre, décrété que aussitôt que les étalons de la Puissance et les étalons départementaux auront été reçus, légalisés par le gouverneur en conseil et déposés comme il est dit ci-haut, et que les appareils nécessaires pour l'usage de ces étalons auront été obtenus par le ministre du revenu de l'intérieur, le gouverneur pourra, par proclamation, fixer un jour en donnant pas moins de six mois d'avis préalable, à compter duquel tous contrats, conventions, ventes ou transactions exécutés en Canada pour travaux à faire, ou pour marchandises denrées ou autres articles à vendre, délivrer ou accepter au poids ou à la mesure, lorsqu'il n'existera pas de stipulation au contraire, seront réputés avoir été exétés d'après les étalons de mesures et poids définis et établis par le présent acte.

Et attendu que l'honorable ministre du revenu de l'intérieur a fait préparer, conformément à la partie de l'acte précité, trois assortis d'étalon de première classe, comprenant :

1. L'étalon de la verge,
2. L'étalon de la livre avoir-du-poids,
3. L'étalon de l'once de Troy,
4. L'étalon du gallon,

lesquelles ont été dûment vérifiés et authentiqués, le plus minutieusement possible, comme suit :

Par une comparaison et une vérification minutieuses des dits étalons, par le préposé au bureau des étalons, avec les étalons impériaux dont il est le conservateur, à Westminster, Angleterre, et certificat de cette vérification et comparaison, sous le seing et sceau du dit préposé, étant déposé au département du revenu de l'intérieur.

Et attendu que le dit ministre du revenu de l'intérieur, a recommandé que Son Excellence le gouverneur-général en conseil, ayant ample preuve de l'exactitude de ces étalons de première classe, peut les déclarer étalons légaux et les seuls étalons de poids et longueur pour le Canada, sous la désignation "d'Etalons de la Puissance" et comme tels, ce sera d'après ces étalons que les unités de poids et mesures seront calculés et vérifiés en vertu de l'acte précité.

Son Excellence le gouverneur-général en conseil, sur la recommandation du dit ministre du revenu de l'intérieur, a bien voulu déclarer et declare, par le présent, que ces étalons de première classe sont légaux et les seuls étalons de poids et de longueur pour le Canada, sous la désignation "d'Etalons de la Puissance," et que, comme tels, ce sera d'après ces étalons que les unités de poids et mesures seront vérifiées en vertu de l'acte précité.

Et attendu que le dit ministre du revenu de l'intérieur a, en outre, fait rapport qu'il a fait préparer deux assortiments d'étalons de seconde classe des poids et mesures indiqués par les clauses précitées de l'acte mentionné, et des multiples et sous-multiples de ces étalons, et que ces étalons ont été dûment vérifiés et authentiqués par comparaison avec les "Etalons de la Puissance."

N.B. Pour les candidats nés dans l'Inde, le certificat devra émaner du gouvernement de l'Inde, ou de la Présidence ou Province où le candidat aura résidé.

(c) Qu'il n'a point de maladie, affection constitutionnelle ou infirmité qui le rendent impropre au service civil dans les Indes. †

(d) Qu'il est d'une bonne moralité; il devra aussi, avant le 1er février 1874, payer aux dits Commissaires, tels honoraires que le Secrétaire d'Etat pour les Indes pourra fixer. ‡

3. Si les certificats établissent, prima facie, les points ci-dessus, à la satisfaction des commissaires du service civil, le candidat sera admis à l'examen, sur paiement des honoraires fixes. Toutefois, les commissaires pourront à leur discrétion, avant d'accorder le certificat d'aptitude ci-dessus mentionné, faire telle enquête qu'ils jugeront convenable, et si le résultat de cette enquête est défavorable à un candidat, sous un quelconque des rapports mentionnés, il sera déclaré inadmissible dans le service civil des Indes, et, s'il a été préalablement désigné, il sera rayé de la liste des aspirants, (probationnés.)

* Le nombre total de nominations à faire et le nombre par chaque Présidence, seront annoncés plus tard.

† Les certificats de santé et de moralité ne doivent pas porter une date antérieure au 1er janvier, 1874.

‡ Pour cet examen les honoraires seront de £5, payables au moyen d'un timbre spécial, conformément à des instructions qui seront communiquées aux candidats.

“Rien n'est plus éloigné de notre intention que l'idée d'encourager les connaissances superficielles. Nous sommes d'avis qu'on ne doit savoir aucun grec à un candidat de désigner un sujet dont il n'a qu'une demi-connaissance.” Rapport du comité 1851.—Une déduction de commendants sera faite pour chaque chef, y comprises les mathématiques.

4. L'examen ne comprendra que les branches suivantes de l'enseignement :—

Les candidats pourront désigner avant le 1er février 1874, dans quelles branches de l'enseignement ils désirent être examinés, ou s'ils veulent l'être sur tout le programme. Aucun sujet n'est obligatoire.

5. On jugera du mérite des candidats d'après les coefficients, et les chiffres en regard de chaque branche d'enseignement, dans le tableau qui précède, indiquant le maximum dans chaque cas.

6. Aucun candidat n'obtiendra un coefficient à moins qu'il ne soit constaté qu'il a une connaissance complète du sujet auquel le coefficient se rapporte. §

7. L'Examen consistera en compositions écrites et en questions orales, suivant qu'il sera jugé nécessaire.

8. Les coefficients obtenus par chaque candidat, pour chacun des sujets sur lesquels il aura été examiné, seront ajoutés, et les noms des candidats qui auront obtenu un plus fort coefficient total que les autres seront inscrits, par ordre de mérite, et ces candidats seront désignés comme aspirants au service civil des Indes, pourvu qu'ils remplissent les autres conditions requises ; si l'un des candidats désignés ne remplissait pas les conditions requises, le secrétaire d'Etat au département des Indes décidera si le poste ainsi laissé vacant sera rempli ou non. Dans le premier cas, le candidat suivant, par ordre de mérite, et remplissant les conditions voulues, sera désigné. Le candidat refusant sa nomination ne pourra pas se présenter à un autre concours.

9. Avant de se rendre aux Indes, les candidats désignés seront aspirants pendant deux ans, et durant ces deux années, ils seront périodiquement examinés, afin qu'on puisse constater leurs progrès dans les branches suivantes de l'enseignement : *

Dans ces examens, comme au concours, on jugera du mérite des candidats d'après les coefficients ; et les chiffres en regard de chaque branche d'enseignements indiquent le maximum dans chaque cas. L'Examen consistera en composition écrites et en questions orales, suivant qu'il sera jugé nécessaire. Le dernier de ces examens aura lieu à la fin de la seconde année du terme de l'aspirant et constituera un "examen final" après lequel il sera décidé si l'aspirant est apte au service civil des Indes.

10. Tout candidat qui à l'un quelconque de ces examens périodiques paraîtra avoir volontairement négligé ses études ou être physiquement incapable de continuer le cours d'instruction prescrit, sera sujet à voir son nom rayé sur la liste des aspirants.

11. Les aspirants qui, à l'examen final, feront preuve complète des connaissances indiquées dans la règle No. 9 et qui auront fourni aux commissaires du service civil des certificats satisfaisants d'âge, de santé et de moralité, recevront des dits commissaires un certificat attestant qu'ils sont aptes à entrer dans le service civil des Indes, pourvu qu'ils se conforment aux règlements alors en vigueur dans ce service.

12. Les demandes d'admission à passer les examens, devront être adressées au secrétaire de la commission du service civil, Londres, S.W., qui fournira les blancs ad hoc.

Le 29 juillet, 1874.

Le Secrétaire d'Etat au département des Indes en conseil a autorisé les commissaires du service civil à publier les avis suivants :—

(2.) Aucun aspirant ne pourra se rendre aux Indes avant d'avoir passé l'examen final et reçu des commissaires du service civil un certificat en conséquence, ni après qu'il aura atteint l'âge de vingt quatre ans.

(3.) Les grades dans le service civil des Indes seront donnés aux aspirants suivant la liste de mérite dressée d'après l'examen final.

(4.) C'est l'intention du secrétaire d'Etat au département des Indes d'accorder la somme de £50 après chacun de trois premiers semestres du terme d'aspirant et £150, après le dernier semestre, à chacun des aspirants qui aura passé les examens requis à la satisfaction des commissaires et se sera conforme aux règlements qui pourront être fixés pour la gouverne des aspirants.

(5.) Tous les aspirants, après avoir passé le second examen périodique, devront se présenter au bureau de l'administration des Indes pour signer un engagement qui les obligera, entr'autres choses, à rembourser, dans certains cas, le montant de la gratification lorsqu'ils ne se rendront pas aux Indes. Pour les aspirants mineurs, une caution sera requise.

(6.) Après avoir passé l'examen final, chaque candidat devra se présenter encore au bureau de l'administration des Indes, à l'effet de signer une obligation de £1,000 garantie par deux cautions. Il y aura £1. 10s. de timbre à payer sur ces documents.

* Le choix devra être fait immédiatement après que le résultat du concours aura été annoncé, et le jour fixé par les commissaires du service civil.

DOWNING STREET,
30th March, 1874.

Sir,—I have the honor to transmit to you, for publication in the Colony under your Government, a copy of a Treaty between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Austria for the mutual Surrender of fugitive Criminals, as well as a copy of the Order in Council of the 17th instant, for carrying into effect that Treaty, which will come into operation on the 30th of March.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient humble Servant,

CARNARVON.

The Officer Administering
The Government of Canada.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT,

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled: "An Act for amending the law relating to the Extradition of Criminals," it was amongst other things enacted, that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Act shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the third day of December last between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Austria, King of Bohemia, &c., &c., and Apostolic King of Hungary, for the Mutual Extradition of Fugitive Criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, King of Bohemia, &c., &c., and Apostolic King of Hungary, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice and to the prevention of crime within the two countries and their jurisdictions that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up; Their said Majesties have named as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say:

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable Sir Andrew Buchanan, a member of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Her Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to His Imperial and Royal Apostolic Majesty:

And His Imperial and Royal Apostolic Majesty, the Count Julius Andrassy of Csik-Szent-Kiraly and Krasna Horka, His Imperial and Royal Majesty's Privy Councillor, Minister of the Imperial House and of Foreign Affairs, Grand Cross of the Order of St. Stephen, &c.;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

The High Contracting Parties engage to deliver up to each other those persons who, being accused or convicted of a crime committed in the territory of the one Party, shall be found within the territory of the other Party under the circumstances and conditions stated in the present Treaty.

ARTICLE II.

The crimes for which the extradition is to be granted are the following:—

1. Murder, or attempt to murder.
2. Manslaughter.
3. Counterfeiting or altering money, uttering or bringing into circulation counterfeit or altered money.
4. Forgery or counterfeiting, or altering or uttering what is forged or counterfeited or altered; comprehending the crimes designated in the Austrian Penal Laws or in the Hungarian Penal Laws and Customs as counterfeiting or falsification of paper money, bank notes, or other securities, forgery or falsification of other public or private documents, likewise the uttering or bringing into circulation, or wilfully using such counterfeited, forged, or falsified papers.
- The definition is to be determined accordingly with the Austrian Penal Laws if the extradition shall take place from Austria, and accordingly with the Hungarian Penal Laws and Customs if the extradition shall take place from Hungary.
5. Embezzlement or larceny.
6. Obtaining money or goods by false pretences.
7. Crimes against bankruptcy law: comprehending the crimes considered as frauds committed by the bankrupt in connection with the bankruptcy, according with the Austrian Penal Laws if the extradition shall take place from Austria, and with the Hungarian Penal Laws if the extradition shall take place from Hungary.
8. Fraud by a bailee, banker, agent, factor, trustee, or director or member or public officer of any company, made criminal by any law for the time being in force.
9. Rape.
10. Abduction.
11. Child stealing, kidnapping, and false imprisonment.
12. Burglary or housebreaking.
13. Arson.
14. Robbery with violence or with menaces.
15. Threats by letter or otherwise with intent to extort.
16. Sinking or destroying a vessel at sea, or attempting to do so.
17. Assaults on board a ship on the high seas, with intent to destroy life, or to do grievous bodily harm.
18. Revolt, or conspiracy to revolt, by two or more persons on board a ship on the high seas, against the authority of the master.
19. Perjury or subornation of perjury.
20. Malicious injury to property, if the offence be indictable.

The extradition is also to take place for participation in any of the aforesaid crimes, as accessory either before or after the fact, provided such participation be punishable by the laws of both the Contracting Parties.

In all these cases the extradition will only take place from the Austro-Hungarian States when the crimes if committed in Austria, would, according to Austrian law, constitute a "Verbrechen," or, if committed in Hungary, would, according to the laws and customs being in force in Hungary, constitute a crime ("buntett"); the extradition from Great Britain only when the crimes, if committed in England, or within English jurisdiction, would constitute an extradition crime, as described in the Extradition Acts of 1870 and 1873.

ARTICLE III.

In no case and on no grounds whatever shall the High Contracting Parties be held to concede the extradition of their own subjects.

ARTICLE IV.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or the person claimed on the part of the Government of Austria-Hungary, has already been tried and discharged or punished, or is still under trial, in the Austro-Hungarian dominions, or in the United Kingdom respectively, for the crime for which his extradition is demanded.

If the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or if the person claimed on the part of the Government of Austria-Hungary, should be under examination for any other crime in the Austro-Hungarian dominions, or in the United Kingdom respectively, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial, and the full execution of any punishment awarded to him.

Should an individual whose extradition is demanded be at litigation, or be detained in the country on account of private obligations, his surrender shall nevertheless be made, the injured party retaining the right to prosecute his claims before the competent authority.

ARTICLE V.

The extradition shall not take place if, with respect to the crime for which it is demanded, and according to the laws of the country applied to, criminal prosecution and punishment has lapsed.

ARTICLE VI.

A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove that the requisition for his surrender has, in fact, been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE VII.

If an individual whose extradition is demanded by either of the High Contracting Parties, in accordance with the terms of this Treaty, be also claimed by one or several other Powers on account of other crimes committed on their territory, he shall be surrendered to the Government in whose territory his gravest crime was committed; and if his crimes are all of the same gravity, or a doubt exists as to which is the gravest, to the Government which first made application for his surrender.

ARTICLE VIII.

A surrendered person shall in no case be kept in arrest or subjected to examination in the State to which he has been surrendered on account of another previous crime, or any other grounds than those of his surrender, unless such person has, after his surrender, had an opportunity of returning to the country whence he was surrendered, and has not made use of this opportunity, or unless he, after having returned there, reappears in the country to which he has already been surrendered.

This stipulation does not refer to crimes committed after surrender.

ARTICLE IX.

Requisitions for surrender shall be made by the Diplomatic Agents of the High Contracting Parties.

To the requisition for the surrender of an accused person there must be attached a warrant issued by the competent authorities of the State which demands extradition, and such proofs as would, according to the laws of the place where the accused was found, justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition refers to a person already convicted, the sentence passed by the competent Tribunal of State demanding his surrender must be produced.

No requisition for surrender can be based on a conviction in contumaciam.

ARTICLE X.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

The prisoner is then to be brought before a competent Magistrate, who is to examine him and to conduct the preliminary investigation of the case, just as if the apprehension had taken place for a crime committed in the same country.

ARTICLE XI.

A fugitive criminal may, however, in urgent cases be arrested under a warrant of a Police Magistrate, Judge of the Peace, or of any other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, or such evidence as would, in the opinion of the person issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime had been committed or the prisoner convicted in the district in which the authority happens to be; provided, however, that he shall be discharged if, within the shortest time possible, and at the utmost within fourteen days, a requisition for his surrender in accordance with the terms of Article IX of this Treaty is not made by the Diplomatic Agent of the State which demands his extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

The extradition shall not take place before the expiration of fifteen days from the apprehension, and then only if the evidence be found sufficient, according to the laws of the State applied to either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial, in case the crime had been committed in the territory of the said State, or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the Courts of the State which makes the requisition.

ARTICLE XIII.

In the examinations which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State applied to shall admit as entirely valid evidence, the sworn depositions or statements of witnesses taken in the other State, or copies thereof, and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, provided such documents are signed or certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of such State, and are authenticated by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE XIV.

If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, he shall be set at liberty.

ARTICLE XV.

All articles seized, which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension, shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for extradition has ordered the delivery thereof, be given up when the extradition takes place; and this delivery shall extend not only to property of the accused, and to the stolen articles, but also to every thing which may serve as a proof of the crime. If the extradition cannot be carried out in consequence of the flight or death of the individual who is claimed, the delivery of the above-mentioned objects shall take place nevertheless.

ARTICLE XVI.

Each of the Contracting Parties shall defray the expenses occasioned by the arrest within its territories, the detention, and the conveyance to its frontier of the persons to be surrendered, in pursuance of this Treaty.

ARTICLE XVII.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of such Colonies or foreign possessions shall be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Colony or possession by the chief Consular Officer of Austria-Hungary in such Colony or possession.

Such requisitions may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the said Governor or chief authority, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender, or to refer the matter to his Government.

Her Britannic Majesty shall, however, be at liberty to make special arrangements in the British Colonies and foreign possessions for the surrender of Austro-Hungarian criminals, who may take refuge within such Colonies and foreign possessions, on the basis as nearly as may be, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal from any Colony or foreign possession of Her Britannic Majesty shall be governed by the rules laid down in the preceding Articles of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties, but shall remain in force for six months after notice has been given for its termination.

The Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Vienna as soon as possible.

In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at Vienna, the 3rd day of December, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

(L.S.) ANDREW BUCHANAN.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at Vienna on the tenth instant:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirtieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, the said Act shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the Emperor of Austria.

the Government of Canada.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of Nov., 1873.

PRESENT,

COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled: "An Act for amending the law relating to the Extradition of Criminals," it was amongst other things enacted, that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Act shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or a subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions and qualifications as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the thirteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Brazil, for the Mutual Extradition of Fugitive Criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice, and to the prevention of crime within their respective territories and jurisdictions, that persons accused or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, being fugitives from justice, should under certain circumstances be reciprocally delivered up, have resolved to name their Plenipotentiaries for the celebration of a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, George Buckley Mathew, Esquire, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Her Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil;

And His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, the Marquis of S. Vicente, a Counsellor of State, Dignitary of the Order of the Rose, Senator and Grandee of the Empire;

Who, having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

The High Contracting Parties engage to deliver up, reciprocally, those persons who, being accused or convicted of having committed crime in the territory of the one Party, shall be found within the territory of the other, under the circumstances and conditions that are laid down in the present Treaty.

admit as valid evidence the sworn depositions or declarations of witnesses, which were taken in the other State, or the respective copies thereof as well as the judicial documents, warrants, or sentences, transmitted therefrom, provided they are signed or certified by the hand of the judge, magistrate, or public officer of that State, and authenticated, either by the oath of some witness, or by the official seal of the Minister of Justice or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE XIII.

If within two months counting from the date of arrest, sufficient evidence for the extradition shall not have been presented, the person arrested shall be set at liberty. He shall likewise be set at liberty if, within two months of the day on which he was placed at the disposal of the Diplomatic Agent, he shall not have been sent off to the reclaiming country.

ARTICLE XIV.

All the articles found in the possession of the person demanded, at the time of his apprehension, shall be seized in order to their delivery with him, when his extradition shall take place.

This delivery shall not be limited to effects or articles robbed, stolen, or obtained by other crimes, but shall extend to all that might serve as evidence of the crime; it shall be made even when the extradition could not be made after orders to that effect, on account of the flight or death of the person claimed.

ARTICLE XV.

The High Contracting Parties renounce whatever claims they may have for the reimbursement of the expenses incurred for the apprehension and maintenance of the persons to be delivered up, and for their conveyance until they shall be placed on board ship, as they agree to defray these outgoings in their respective countries.

ARTICLE XVI.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall apply to the colonies and other possessions of Her Britannic Majesty.

The requisition for the surrender shall be made to the Governor, or to the chief authority, in the Colony or Possession, by the highest Consular Agent of Brazil.

The surrender shall be made by the Governor or the chief authority, who shall, however, have the power either to make it, or to refer the matter to his Government.

Both in the requisitions and in the surrender, the conditions established by the foregoing Articles of this Treaty shall be, as far as may be possible, adhered to.

As Her Britannic Majesty has the power to adopt special arrangements in the Colonies and possessions, respecting the delivering up of delinquents, Her Majesty will facilitate the reclamations of Brazil in this respect, as far as may be possible, with due regard, however, to the provisions of this Treaty.

ARTICLE XVII.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, and in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws or the countries of the High Contracting Parties. It will remain in force until one of these shall give notice for its termination, but it shall then remain in force for six months counted from the day of this notification.

This Treaty shall be rectified, and the ratification exchanged in Rio de Janeiro, within three months, or sooner if possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Treaty, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at Rio de Janeiro, on the thirteenth day of the month of November, of the year of Our Lord Jesus Christ one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.) GEORGE BUCKLEY MATHEW.

The Undersigned, Plenipotentiaries of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, charged with making a Treaty for the extradition of criminals, upon which they have at this present agreed, having met in conference, took into their consideration the following subjects:—

They directed their attention to the fact that the criminal law of England punishes the crime of infanticide with the same penalty as that of murder, when accompanied by corresponding circumstances, and that it results therefrom that extradition should take place even for attempting to commit that crime.

On the other hand, they observed, that according to the Brazilian law, infanticide is not punished as murder, nor even as manslaughter, but as a crime distinct from both, and by a minor punishment, and that consequently extradition should not take place for the attempt.

They consequently resolved to declare that extradition shall solely take place for the crime of infanticide, and not for an attempt to commit that crime.

With this declaration they agreed to close this conference, from which the present Protocol emanates, which being found in conformity, was signed each having a copy thereof.

Done in the city of Rio de Janeiro, the thirteenth day of November of 1872.

(L.S.) GEORGE BUCKLEY MATHEW.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at Rio de Janeiro on the twenty-eight day of August last:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, the said Act shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the Emperor of Brazil.

GOVERNMENT NOTICES.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,

OTTAWA, 5th January, 1875.

DEPARTMENT ORDER No. 13.

Correspondence with the United States.

A Postal convention for the regulation of Postal charges between Canada and the United States, which has already had partial effect in regard to newspapers from the offices of publication, will go fully into operation on and from the 1st February, 1875.

1. On and from that date the Postage Rates to be charged in Canada on mail matter of all kinds, (except closed parcels and patterns and samples) posted in any part of the Dominion of Canada, addressed to any place in the United States will be the same as if addressed to any place in Canada.

2. These rates, namely: 3 cents per $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. or fraction thereof on Letters, one cent on Post Cards, and the ordinary Canadian postage rates as from time to time authorized on Newspapers from the offices of publication, transient Newspapers, and printed and miscellaneous matter of all kinds, must in all cases be fully prepaid, and, as a rule, by postage stamp—or they will not be forwarded.

3. When so fully prepaid—the ordinary Canada rates of postage—no further charge will be made on delivery in the United States.

4. If any Letter, Newspaper, or other mail matter addressed to the United States, be posted in Canada unpaid or not fully prepaid it must be immediately sent in to the Dead Letter Office, with the reason "unpaid" or "insufficiently prepaid" marked upon it.

5. The registration charge on Letters addressed to the United States will continue to be 5 cents, which must be prepaid by postage stamp in addition to the ordinary letter postage rate.

6. Letters and all other Mail matter coming from the United States into Canada will be subject to like regulations, as respects the posting there and delivery here. Nothing posted in the United States for Canada will be forwarded unless fully prepaid the ordinary domestic postage rates of the United States; and when mail matter is so prepaid and forwarded, no further charge is to be made on delivery in this country.

7. These regulations do not authorize any exchange of closed parcels, nor of packages of patterns or samples; but it is understood that some provision will shortly be made for the reciprocal transmission of small packets of genuine samples and patterns of merchandise, of which due notice will be given to Postmasters.

ATTENDU que par un acte passé en la 36^e année du règne de Sa Majesté, intitulé : "Acte concernant les poids et mesures"—il est, entr'autres choses, décrété que le ministre du revenu de l'intérieur, fera préparer trois assortiments d'étalons de longueur et de poids de première classe, chaque assortiment comprenant :—

Et qu'il est, en outre, décrété que, le ministre du revenu de l'intérieur fera également préparer deux assortiments d'étalons, de deuxième classe, des poids et mesures définis et établis par le présent acte, ainsi que de leurs proportions et multiples, et le gouverneur en conseil, sur le rapport du ministre à l'effet qu'ils ont été dûment vérifiés et authentiqués en les comparant avec les "Etalons de la Puissance," pourra constituer ces étalons de deuxième classe, les étalons légaux de longueur, poids et capacité, de seconde classe, sous la dénomination de "Etalons départementaux."

Et qu'il est, en outre, décrété que aussitôt que les étalons de la Puissance et les étalons départementaux auront été reçus, légalisés par le gouverneur en conseil et déposés comme il est dit ci haut, et que les appareils nécessaires pour l'usage de ces étalons auront été obtenus par le ministre du revenu de l'intérieur, le gouverneur pourra, par proclamation, fixer un jour en en donnant pas moins de six mois d'avis préalable, à compter duquel tous contrats, conventions, ventes ou transactions exécutés en Canada pour travaux à faire, ou pour marchandises, denrées ou autres articles à vendre, délivrer ou accepter au poids ou à la mesure, lorsqu'il n'existera pas de stipulation au contraire, seront réputés avoir été exécutés d'après les étalons de mesures et poids définis et établis par le présent acte.

Et attendu que l'honorable ministre du revenu de l'intérieur a fait préparer, conformément à la partie de l'acte précité, trois assortis d'étalons de première classe, comprenant :

1. L'étalon de la verge,

Et attendu de plus en vertu de l'acte en partie précité, un assortiment d'étalons de la Puissance a été mis sous la garde de l'Orateur du Sénat, un assortiment sous la garde de l'Orateur de la Chambre des Communes, et un assortiment sous la garde du ministre du revenu de l'intérieur sous telles conditions pour prévenir des accidents et la détérioration, voulues et déterminées par l'ordre du gouverneur en conseil.

Et attendu que le dit ministre du revenu de l'intérieur a, en outre, fait préparer deux assortiments d'étalons de seconde classe des poids et mesures indiqués par les clauses précitées de l'acte mentionné, et des multiples et sous-multiples de ces étalons.

CIRCULAIRE.

DOWNING STREET,
30 mars, 1874.

MONSIEUR,

J'ai l'honneur de vous transmettre pour publication dans la colonie placée sous votre gouvernement, copie d'un Traité conclu entre Sa Majesté et l'Empereur d'Autriche pour la reddition mutuelle des criminels, ainsi que copie de l'Ordre en Conseil du 20 courant pour mettre à exécution ce traité.

J'ai l'honneur d'être,

Monsieur,

Votre très-obéissant et humble serviteur,
CARNARVON.

A l'administrateur
du gouvernement du Canada.

Château de Windsor, le 17ème jour de mars 1874.

PRÉSENT :

SA TRÈS-EXCELLENTE MAJESTÉ LA REINE EN
CONSEIL.

ATTENDU que par un Acte du Parlement fait et passé dans la Session du Parlement tenue dans les trente-troisième et trente-quatrième années du règne de Sa Majesté actuellement régnante, intitulé : "Acte pour amender la loi relative à l'extradition des criminels," il est entr'autres choses statué que lorsqu'un arrangement aura été fait avec un pouvoir étranger au sujet de la reddition à ce pouvoir des criminels fugitifs, Sa Majesté pourra, par Ordre en Conseil, ordonner que le dit Acte s'applique à tel pouvoir étranger ; et que Sa Majesté peut, par le même ou par un Ordre en Conseil subséquent, limiter l'opération de l'Ordre, et la restreindre aux criminels fugitifs qui sont ou qui sont supposés être dans la partie des possessions de Sa Majesté spécifiée dans l'Ordre, et en rendre l'exécution sujette à telles conditions, acceptions et qualifications qui pourront être trouvées nécessaires.

Et attendu qu'un traité a été conclu le quatorzième jour de mai dernier, entre Sa Majesté et l'Empereur d'Autriche pour l'extradition mutuelle des criminels fugitifs, lequel traité est dans les termes suivants :—

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, et Sa Majesté l'Empereur d'Autriche, Roi de Bohême, etc., etc., et Roi Apostolique de Hongrie, ayant jugé opportun, en vue d'une meilleure administration de la justice et pour assurer la répression des crimes dans les deux pays et dans leurs juridictions, de livrer réciproquement, sous certaines conditions, les personnes accusées ou convaincues des crimes ci-après énumérés, et qui auraient fui la justice de leur pays ; les dites Majestés ont nommé pour leurs Plénipotentiaires à l'effet de conclure un Traité dans ce but, savoir :

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, le Très-Honorable Sir Andrew Buchanan, membre du conseil privé de Sa Majesté, Grand-Croix du Très-Honorable Ordre du Bain, ambassadeur extraordinaire et plénipotentiaire près Sa Majesté Impériale et Apostolique Royale :

Et Sa Majesté Impériale et Apostolique Royale Le Comte Julius Andrassy de Csik-Szent Kiraly et Kr. Sna Horka, Conseiller Privé de Sa Majesté Impériale et Royale, ministre de La Maison Impériale et des affaires étrangères, Grand-Croix de l'ordre de St Etienne, etc. ;

Lesquels, après s'être communiqué réciproquement leurs pleins pouvoirs, reconnus en bonne et due forme, sont convenus des articles suivants :—

ARTICLE I.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes s'engagent à se livrer de part et d'autre les personnes qui, étant accusées ou convaincues d'un crime commis dans le territoire de l'une des parties, seront trouvées dans le territoire de l'autre partie, sous les circonstances et conditions précisées au présent traité.

ARTICLE II.

Les crimes pour lesquels l'extradition doit être accordée sont les suivants :—

1. Meurtre, ou tentative de meurtre.
2. Homicide.
3. Contrefaçon ou altération de monnaie, ainsi que l'emploi ou la mise en circulation de monnaie contrefaite ou altérée.
4. Faux, contrefaçon, ou altération, ou mise en circulation de ce qui est falsifié, contrefait ou altéré, comprenant le crime désigné dans le code pénal Autrichien et dans le code pénal Hongrois comme contrefaçon ou falsification du papier-monnaie, billets de banque, ou autres écrits faux ou falsifications d'autres documents publics et privés, aussi bien que le placement ou la mise en circulation, ou l'emploi à bon escient de tels papiers contrefaits, ou falsifiés.

La définition sera déterminée par le code pénal d'Autriche, si l'extradition doit avoir lieu en Autriche, et d'après le code pénal et les coutumes de La Hongrie, si l'extradition doit avoir lieu en Hongrie.

5. Soustraction frauduleuse ou vol.
6. Escroquerie d'argent, valeurs ou marchandises sous de faux prétextes.
7. Crimes de banqueroutiers frauduleux prévus par la loi ; comprenant les crimes désignés dans le code pénal Autrichien, si l'extradition doit avoir lieu en

Autriche et dans le code pénal Hongrois si l'extradition doit avoir lieu en Hongrie.

8. Fraude par un syndic, banquier, agent, facteur, fidéi-commis, directeur ou membre ou officier public d'une compagnie, décrétée comme criminelle par les lois à l'époque où elle a été commise.

9. Viol.

10. Enlèvement d'un mineur.

11. Enlèvement d'enfant ou autres personnes et emprisonnement sous faux prétextes.

12. Vol avec effraction ou escalade.

13. Incendie.

14. Vol avec violence ou menaces.

15. Menaces, par lettres ou autrement, avec intention d'extorquer.

16. Couler ou détruire un vaisseau en mer, ou tenter d'accomplir l'un de ces actes.

17. Attaque ou résistance à bord d'un navire en haute mer avec intention d'attenter à la vie ou d'infliger des blessures graves.

18. Révolte ou complot par deux ou plusieurs personnes tendant à produire une révolte à bord d'un navire en pleine mer, contre l'autorité du capitaine.

19. Parjure ou subornation de parjure.

20. Dommages malicieusement faits à la propriété, si l'offense comporte mise en accusation.

L'extradition doit aussi avoir lieu pour participation à l'un des crimes sus-nommés, pourvu que telle participation soit punissable en vertu des lois des deux parties contractantes.

Dans tous ces cas, l'extradition n'aura lieu des Etats Austro-Hongrois, que si les crimes, étant commis en Autriche, constituent un "Verbrechen" ou étant commis en Hongrie, constituent un crime ("buntett") ; l'extradition n'aura lieu de la Grande-Bretagne, que si les crimes, étant commis en Angleterre, ou dans sa juridiction, constituent un crime punissable d'extradition, d'après les lois concernant l'extradition, passées en 1870 et 1873.

ARTICLE III.

Dans aucun cas et pour aucun motif les Hautes Parties Contractantes ne consentiront à l'extradition de leurs propres sujets.

ARTICLE IV.

L'extradition ne pourra avoir lieu si l'individu réclamé par le gouvernement du Royaume-Uni, ou si l'individu réclamé par le gouvernement Austro-Hongrois a déjà été jugé et libéré ou a subi sa peine, ou est encore en jugement, dans l'un des Etats de l'Empire ou dans le Royaume-Uni, respectivement, pour le crime pour lequel son extradition est demandée.

Si l'individu réclamé par le gouvernement du Royaume-Uni, ou si l'individu réclamé par l'un des gouvernements de l'Empire Austro-Hongrois, est en voie de subir son procès pour un autre crime dans l'un des Etats de l'Empire Austro-Hongrois, ou dans le Royaume-Uni, respectivement, son extradition devra être différée jusqu'à la conclusion du procès et l'entière exécution de la peine qui lui sera imposée.

Si l'individu dont l'extradition est demandée est en procès ou retenu dans le pays pour des obligations particulières, il devra néanmoins être livré, la partie lésée conservant le droit de continuer à faire valoir ses réclamations devant les autorités compétentes.

ARTICLE V.

L'extradition n'aura pas lieu, si, subséquemment au crime, ou à l'institution des poursuites criminelles, ou à la condamnation, prescription de l'action ou de la peine est acquise par le laps de temps écoulé, d'après les lois de l'Etat où le prévenu s'est réfugié.

ARTICLE VI.

Un criminel fugitif ne sera pas extradé si le délit pour lequel l'extradition est demandée est considéré comme un délit politique, ou s'il prouve que la demande d'extradition a été faite en réalité dans le but de la poursuivre ou de la punir pour un délit d'un caractère politique.

ARTICLE VII.

Si un individu dont l'extradition est réclamée par l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes, conformément aux termes du présent traité, est aussi réclamé par un ou plusieurs autres pouvoirs pour des crimes commis sur leur territoire, il sera livré au gouvernement sur le territoire duquel il aura commis l'offense la plus grave; et si ses crimes sont tous de la même gravité ou s'il y a doute pour décider lequel est le plus grave, il sera livré au gouvernement qui, le premier, aura fait la demande d'extradition.

Une personne extradée ne peut en aucun cas être tenue en prison, ou être amenée pour subir son procès dans l'Etat auquel elle a été livrée, pour aucun autre crime, ou au sujet d'aucune autre affaire que l'accusation au nom de laquelle l'extradition a eu lieu, à moins que cette personne, après son extradition, n'ait eu occasion de retourner au pays d'où elle a été extradée, et n'ait pas profité de cette occasion, ou à moins qu'après y être retournée elle revienne dans le pays auquel elle a été livrée.

Cette stipulation ne s'applique point aux crimes commis après l'extradition.

ARTICLE IX.

Les demandes d'extradition devront être faites par le canal des agents diplomatiques des Hautes Parties Contractantes respectivement.

La demande d'extradition d'un accusé devra être accompagnée d'un mandat d'arrestation lancé par l'autorité compétente de l'Etat qui demande l'extradition, et des témoignages qui, d'après les lois de la localité où l'accusé est découvert, pourraient justifier son arrestation si le crime eût été commis en ce lieu.

Si la demande d'extradition a trait à une personne déjà convaincue, elle doit être accompagnée de la sentence prononcée contre cette personne par la Cour compétente de l'Etat qui formule la demande d'extradition.

Une demande d'extradition ne peut être fondée sur des sentences prononcées par contumace.

ARTICLE X.

Si la demande d'extradition est conforme aux stipulations qui précèdent, les autorités compétentes de l'Etat à qui elle est adressée devront procéder à l'arrestation du fugitif.

Lorsque le fugitif aura été arrêté, il sera amené devant un magistrat compétent, qui devra l'examiner et diriger les investigations préliminaires en ce cas, absolument comme si l'arrestation eût eu lieu pour un crime commis dans ce même pays.

ARTICLE XI.

Un criminel fugitif pourra, néanmoins, dans les cas urgents, être arrêté sur mandat d'un magistrat de police, juge de paix ou toute autre autorité compétente, dans l'un ou l'autre pays sur toute information ou plainte qui, dans l'opinion de la personne émettant le mandat, justifierait l'émission d'un mandat si le crime eût été commis ou si le criminel eût été convaincu dans le district où se trouve le magistrat; pourvu, toutefois, qu'il sera libéré dans le plus court délai possible, et d'au plus quatorze jours, demande d'extradition, aux termes de l'article IX du présent traité n'étant pas faite par l'agent diplomatique de l'Etat qui demande l'extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

L'extradition ne pourra avoir lieu avant l'expiration de quinze jours à partir de l'arrestation, et alors seulement, si les témoignages sont trouvés suffisants, d'après les lois de l'Etat auquel l'extradition est demandée, soit pour justifier la mise en jugement du prisonnier au cas où le crime aurait été commis dans le territoire de cet Etat, soit pour établir que le prisonnier est bien la personne condamnée par les cours de justice de l'Etat qui demande l'extradition.

ARTICLE XIII.

Dans les examens préliminaires qu'elles auront à faire, conformément aux stipulations qui précèdent, les autorités de l'Etat auquel l'extradition est demandée, devront admettre comme témoignages entièrement valides les dépositions ou déclarations sous serment des témoins prises dans un autre Etat, ou copie d'icelles, aussi bien que des mandats et des jugements qui se rapportent à l'affaire, pourvu que tels documents soient signés ou certifiés par un juge, magistrat ou officier de tel Etat, et authentiqués par le serment de quelque témoin, ou par le sceau officiel du ministre de la justice, ou d'autres ministres d'Etat.

ARTICLE XIV.

Si des preuves suffisantes pour autoriser l'extradition ne sont pas produites dans le cours de deux mois après l'arrestation du fugitif, il sera remis en liberté.

ARTICLE XV.

Tout objet trouvé en la possession de l'individu réclamé, au moment de son arrestation, sera, si l'autorité compétente de l'Etat auquel l'extradition est demandée en a ainsi ordonné, saisi pour être livré avec sa personne lorsque l'extradition aura lieu. Cette remise ne sera pas limitée aux articles acquis par vol mais elle s'étendra à toute chose qui pourrait servir de pièce de conviction. Si l'extradition ne peut pas avoir lieu par suite de la fuite ou du décès de l'individu réclamé, les articles sus-mentionnés seront néanmoins remis.

ARTICLE XVI.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes supporteront les dépenses occasionnées par l'arrestation sur leurs territoires respectifs, la detention et le transport à la frontière des personnes livrées aux termes du présent traité.

ARTICLE XVII.

Les stipulations du présent traité seront applicables aux colonies et possessions étrangères de Sa Majesté Britannique.

La demande d'extradition d'un criminel fugitif qui s'est réfugié dans telles colonies ou possessions étrangères, sera faite au Gouverneur ou au fonctionnaire principal de cette colonie ou possession par le principal agent consulaire de l'Empire Austro-Hongrois dans telle colonie ou possession.

Ces demandes seront faites ou accueillies, en suivant toujours aussi exactement que possible, les stipulations de ce traité, par le dit gouverneur ou premier fonctionnaire, qui, cependant, aura la faculté ou d'accorder l'extradition ou d'en référer à son gouvernement.

Sa Majesté Britannique se réserve, cependant, le droit de faire des arrangements spéciaux dans les colonies anglaises ou possessions étrangères pour l'extradition des criminels Austro-Hongrois qui auraient cherché refuge dans des colonies ou possessions étrangères, en se conformant, aussi exactement que possible, aux stipulations du présent traité.

La demande d'extradition d'un criminel fugitif d'une colonie ou possession étrangère de Sa Majesté Britannique devra être faite conformément aux règles prescrites dans les précédents articles du présent traité.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Le présent traité entrera en vigueur dix jours après sa publication dans les formes prescrites par la législation des pays respectifs.

L'une ou l'autre des Hautes Parties Contractantes peut mettre fin au traité, mais il devra rester en vigueur six mois après qu'un avis de cessation aura été donné.

Le traité sera ratifié, et les ratifications seront échangées à Vienne le plus tôt possible.

En foi de quoi les Plénipotentiaires respectifs ont signé ce même traité et y ont apposé le sceau de leurs armes.

Fait à Vienne, le 3me jour de décembre en l'année de Notre-Seigneur mil huit cent soixante-treize.

(L. S.) ANDREW BUCHANAN,

Et, attendu que les ratifications de ce même traité ont été échangées à Vienne, le dix courant :

C'est pourquoi, maintenant, Sa Majesté par et de l'avis de son Conseil Privé, et en vertu de l'autorité à Elle conférée par l'acte précité, ordonne, et il est par le présent ordonné, qu'à partir du trentième jour de mars, mil huit cent soixante-quatorze, le dit acte s'appliquera au dit traité avec l'Empereur d'Autriche.

ATTENDU que par un Acte du Parlement fait et passé dans la Session du Parlement tenue dans les trente-troisième et trente-quatrième années du règne de Sa Majesté actuellement régnante, intitulé : "Acte pour amender la loi relative à l'extradition des criminels," il est entr'autres choses statue que lorsqu'un arrangement aura été fait avec un pouvoir étranger au sujet de la reddition à ce pouvoir des criminels fugitifs, Sa Majesté pourra, par Ordre en Conseil, ordonner que le dit Acte s'applique à tel pouvoir étranger ; et que Sa Majesté peut, par le même ou par un Ordre en Conseil subsequnt, limiter l'opération de l'Ordre, et la restreindre aux criminels fugitifs qui sont ou qui sont supposés être dans la partie des possessions de Sa Majesté spécifiée dans l'Ordre, et en rendre l'exécution sujette à telles conditions, acceptions et qualifications qui pourront être trouvées nécessaires.

Et attendu qu'un traité a été conclu le treizième jour de novembre, mil huit cent soixante-douze, entre Sa Majesté et l'Empereur du Brésil pour l'extradition mutuelle des criminels fugitifs, lequel traité est dans les termes suivants :—

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, et Sa Majesté l'Empereur du Brésil, ayant jugé opportun, en vue d'une meilleure administration de la justice et pour assurer la répression des crimes dans les deux pays et dans leurs juridiction de livrer réciproquement, sous certaines conditions, les personnes accusées ou convaincues des crimes ci-après énumérés, et qui auraient fui la justice de leur pays ; les dites Majestés ont nommé pour leurs Plénipotentiaires à l'effet de conclure un traité dans ce but, savoir :

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, M. George Buckley Mathew, Ecr., Compagnon du Très-Honorable Ordre du Bain, son envoyé extraordinaire et plénipotentiaire près Sa Majesté, l'Empereur du Brésil.

Et Sa Majesté l'Empereur du Brésil, le Marquis de St. Vicente, conseiller d'état, dignitaire de l'Ordre de la Rose, Sénateur et Grand de l'Empire ;

Lesquels, après s'être communiqué réciproquement leurs pleins pouvoirs, reconnus en bonne et due forme, sont convenus des articles suivants :—

ARTICLE I.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes s'engagent à se livrer de part et d'autre les personnes qui, étant accusées ou convaincues d'un crime commis dans le territoire de l'une des parties, seront trouvées dans le territoire de l'autre partie, sous les circonstances et conditions précisées au présent traité.

ARTICLE II.

Les crimes pour lesquels l'extradition doit être accordée sont les suivants :—

1. Meurtre, ou tentative de meurtre.
2. Homicide.
3. Fabrication, imitation illégale, contrefaçon ou altération de monnaie, ainsi que l'emploi ou la mise en circulation de monnaie contrefaite ou altérée.
4. Faux, contrefaçon, ou altération, ou mise en circulation de ce qui est falsifié, contrefait ou altéré, comprenant le crime désigné dans le code pénal Brésilien et comme contrefaçon ou falsification de papier-monnaie, billets de banque ou autres effets publics et privés, aussi bien que le placement ou la mise en circulation, ou l'emploi à bon escient de tels papiers contrefaits, ou falsifiés.
5. Vol ou détournement de deniers ou effets publics ou privés, par abus de confiance.
6. Fraudes ou prétextes faux ou frauduleux pour obtenir des deniers d'une autre personne.
7. Banqueroute sujette à poursuite criminel conformément aux lois ad hoc.
8. Fraude par un syndic, banquier, agent, facteur, fidéi commis, directeur ou membre ou officier public d'une compagnie, décrétée comme criminelle par les lois à l'époque où elle a été commise.
9. Viol par force ou menaces.
10. Enlèvement d'un mineur.
11. Enlèvement d'enfant.
12. Extraction avec intention de voler ou de commettre d'autres crimes.
13. Crimes résultant de l'acte de mettre volontairement le feu à une maison ou aux bâtiments qui en dépendent pour porter préjudice à une autre personne.
14. Vol avec violence.
15. Piraterie, d'après le droit des gens.
16. Couler ou détruire un vaisseau en mer, ou tenter d'accomplir l'un de ces actes.
17. Crimes résultant d'attaque ou résistance à bord d'un navire en haute mer avec intention d'attenter à la vie ou d'infliger des blessures graves.
18. Crimes résultant de révolte ou complot par deux ou plusieurs personnes tendant à produire une révolte à bord d'un navire en pleine mer, contre l'autorité du capitaine.
19. L'extradition doit aussi avoir lieu pour participation à l'un des crimes sus-nommés, pourvu que telle participation soit punissable en vertu des lois des deux parties contractantes.

ARTICLE III.

Aucun sujet anglais ne sera livré par le gouvernement ou les autorités du Royaume-Uni au gouvernement ou aux autorités de l'Empire, et, de même, aucun sujet brésilien ne sera livré par le gouvernement ou les autorités de l'empire au gouvernement ou aux autorités du Royaume-Uni.

Et, tout étoit, la personne qui a cherché refuge sur le territoire de l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes, s'est fait naturaliser après la perpétration du crime, cet acte de naturalisation ne sera pas un obstacle à son extradition aux termes du présent traité.

ARTICLE IV.

L'extradition n'aura pas lieu si la personne réclamée a déjà été jugée et acquittée, ou condamnée, ou si elle subit alors jugement pour le même crime qui fait le sujet de la demande d'extradition. Si elle est en voie de subir son jugement pour un autre crime, son extradition devra être différée jusqu'à la conclusion du procès et l'expiration de la peine qui lui aura été infligée.

ARTICLE V.

L'extradition n'aura pas lieu, si, subséquemment au crime, ou à l'institution des poursuites criminelles, ou à la condamnation, prescription de l'action ou de la peine est acquise par le laps de temps écoulé, d'après les lois de l'Etat ou le prévenu s'est réfugié.

ARTICLE VI.

La personne réclamée ne pourra être livrée pour crimes de nature politique, et lorsqu'elle aura été livrée pour d'autres raisons elle ne sera pas punie pour crimes politiques antérieurs. De plus, elle ne sera pas livrée s'il est clairement prouvé que la demande d'extradition est faite en vue de juger cette personne ou de la punir pour crime politique.

ARTICLE VII.

Une personne extradée ne peut en aucun cas être tenue en prison, ou être amenée pour subir son procès dans l'Etat auquel elle a été livrée, pour aucun autre crime, ou au sujet d'aucune autre affaire que l'accusation au nom de laquelle l'extradition a eu lieu. Cette stipulation ne s'applique point aux crimes commis après l'extradition.

ARTICLE VIII.

Si la personne dont l'extradition est demandée par l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes est aussi réclamée par un ou plusieurs autres gouvernements pour des crimes commis sur leurs territoires respectifs, la règle suivante sera observée :

S'il s'agit d'un sujet de la Haute Partie Contractante qui réclame, l'extradition aura lieu. Dans le cas contraire, l'autre Haute Partie Contractante aura pouvoir de livrer la personne au gouvernement qui lui semblera avoir droit à la préférence.

ARTICLE IX.

Les demandes d'extradition devront être faites par le canal des agents diplomatiques des Hautes Parties Contractantes respectivement.

La demande d'extradition d'un accusé devra être accompagnée d'un mandat d'arrestation lancé par l'autorité compétente de l'Etat qui demande l'extradition, et des témoignages qui, d'après les lois de la localité où l'accusé est découvert, pourraient justifier son arrestation si le crime eût été commis en ce lieu. Si la demande d'extradition a trait à une personne déjà convaincue, elle doit être accompagnée de la sentence prononcée contre cette personne par la Cour compétente de l'Etat qui formule la demande d'extradition.

Une demande d'extradition ne peut être fondée sur des sentences prononcées par contumace, c'est-à-dire lorsque le délinquant n'a pas été personnellement cité pour se défendre lui-même.

ARTICLE X.

Si la demande d'extradition est conforme aux stipulations qui précèdent, les autorités compétentes de l'Etat à qui elle est adressée devront procéder à l'arrestation du fugitif.

Le fugitif sera amené devant un magistrat compétent, qui devra l'examiner et diriger les investigations préliminaires en ce cas, absolument comme si l'arrestation eût eu lieu pour un crime commis dans ce même pays.

ARTICLE XI.

Dans aucun cas, l'extradition ne pourra avoir lieu avant l'expiration de quinze jours à partir de l'arrestation, et alors seulement, si les témoignages sont trouvés suffisants, d'après les lois de l'Etat auquel l'extradition est demandée, soit pour justifier la mise en jugement du prisonnier au cas où le crime aurait été commis dans le territoire de cet Etat, soit pour établir que le prisonnier est bien la personne condamnée par les cours de justice de l'Etat qui demande l'extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

Dans les examens préliminaires qu'elles auront à faire, conformément aux stipulations qui précèdent, les autorités de l'Etat auquel l'extradition est demandée, devront admettre comme témoignages entièrement valides les dépositions ou déclarations sous serment des témoins prises dans un autre Etat, ou copie d'icelles, aussi bien que des mandats et des jugements qui se rapportent à l'affaire, pourvu que tels documents soient signés ou certifiés par un juge, magistrat ou officier de tel Etat, et authentiqués par le serment de quelque témoin, ou par le sceau officiel du ministre de la justice, ou d'autres ministres d'Etat.

ARTICLE XIII.

Si dans la période de deux mois après l'arrestation, preuve suffisante pour l'extradition n'a pas été fournie, la personne arrêtée sera mise en liberté. Elle sera aussi mise en liberté si, dans une période de deux mois après le jour où elle a été mise à la disposition de l'agent diplomatique, elle n'a pas été remise aux autorités du pays qui la réclame.

ARTICLE XIV.

Tous les objets trouvés en la possession de la personne réclamée, à l'époque de son arrestation, seront saisis afin d'être livrés en même temps qu'elle lorsque l'extradition aura lieu.

Cette remise ne se bornera pas aux effets ou objets volés ou obtenus par d'autres crimes mais s'étendra à tout ce qui peut servir à prouver le crime ; et cette remise sera traitée qu'un même l'extradition ne pourrait avoir en conséquence de la fuite ou du décès de la personne réclamée.

ARTICLE XV.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes renoncent à toutes réclamations pour remboursement des frais encourus pour l'arrestation et l'entretien des personnes qui doivent être livrées, et pour leur transport à bord d'un navire ; elles conviennent de payer respectivement ces frais.

ARTICLE XVI.

Les stipulations du présent traité seront applicables aux colonies et possessions étrangères de Sa Majesté Britannique.

La demande d'extradition sera faite au Gouverneur ou au fonctionnaire principal de cette colonie ou possession par le principal agent consulaire du Brésil.

Le criminel sera livré par le gouverneur ou le fonctionnaire principal, qui aura toutefois pouvoir ou de livrer le criminel ou d'en référer à son gouvernement.

Dans les demandes et dans l'extradition, les conditions établies par les articles précédents du traité devront être remplies autant que possible.

Sa Majesté Britannique ayant le pouvoir d'adopter des dispositions spéciales pour l'extradition des délinquants dans des colonies ou possessions, Sa Majesté facilitera, autant que possible, les réclamations du Brésil en ayant égard aux termes du présent traité.

ARTICLE XVI.

Le présent traité entrera en vigueur dix jours après sa publication dans les formes prescrites par la législation des pays respectifs.

L'une ou l'autre des Hautes Parties Contractantes peut mettre fin au traité, mais il devra rester en vigueur six mois après qu'un avis de cessation aura été donné.

Le traité sera ratifié, et les ratifications seront échangées à Rio de Janeiro, dans une période de trois mois ou plutôt, si possible.

En foi de quoi les Plénipotentiaires respectifs ont signé ce même traité et y ont apposé le sceau de leurs armes.

Fait à Rio de Janeiro, le treizième jour du mois de novembre, en l'année de Notre-Seigneur Jésus-Christ mil huit cent soixante-douze.

(L. S.) GEORGE BUCKLEY MATHEW.

(L. S.) MARQUEZ DE S. VICENTE.

Les soussignés, Plénipotentiaires de Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, et de Sa Majesté l'Empereur du Brésil, chargés de conclure un traité pour l'extradition des criminels, traité au sujet duquel ils se sont entendus, ayant tenu conférence ont examiné les points suivants :—

Ils ont observé que le code pénal anglais punit le crime d'infanticide de la même peine que le meurtre, quand il est accompagné de circonstance analogues, et il en résulte que l'extradition devrait avoir lieu même pour tentative de commettre ce crime.

D'autre part, ils ont observés que, d'après le code pénal du Brésil, l'infanticide n'est pas puni comme meurtre, ni même comme meurtre involontaire, mais comme crime distinct des deux précédents et d'une peine plus légère, et que conséquemment l'extradition ne doit pas avoir lieu pour tentative d'infanticide.

Ils ont, en conséquence, résolu que l'extradition aurait lieu seulement pour le crime d'infanticide et non pour tentative de commettre ce crime.

Avec cette déclaration ils ont clos la conférence, dont le présent est le protocole, lequel, ayant été trouvé conforme, a été signé, chacun des Plénipotentiaires en ayant une copie.

Fait en la cité de Rio de Janeiro, le 13ème jour de novembre 1872.

(L. S.) GEORGE BUCKLEY MATHEW.

Et attendu que les ratifications de ce même traité ont été échangées à Rio de Janeiro, le vingt-huitième jour d'août dernier.

C'est pourquoi, maintenant, Sa Majesté par et de l'avis de son Conseil Privé, et en vertu de l'autorité à Elle conférée par l'acte précité, ordonne, et il est par le présent ordonné, qu'à partir du premier jour de décembre mil huit cent soixante-treize, le dit acte s'appliquera au dit traité avec l'Empereur du Brésil.

ORDRES EN CONSEIL.

HOTEL DU GOUVERNEMENT, OTTAWA.

Vendredi, le 18e jour de Décembre 1874.

PRESENT :

SON EXCELLENCE LE GOUVERNEUR-GENERAL
EN CONSEIL.

ATTENDU que par un acte passé en la 36e année du règne de Sa Majesté, intitulé :

"Acte concernant les poids et mesures"—il est, entr'autres choses, décrété que "Le ministre du revenu de l'intérieur fera préparer trois assortiments d'étalons de longueur et de poids de première classe, chaque assortiment comprenant :—

1. L'étalon de la verge,
2. L'étalon de la livre avoir-du-poids,
3. L'étalon de l'once de Troy,
4. L'étalon du gallon,

Et il les fera dûment vérifier et authentifier de la manière qu'il croira à propos.

Et le gouverneur, après s'être assuré de l'exactitude des étalons de première classe, pourra, par ordre en conseil, les constituer les seuls étalons de longueur et de poids légaux et de première classe en Canada, sous la dénomination de "Etalons de la Puissance," et, comme tels, les unités ou étalons de poids et mesures d'après lesquels tous autres poids et mesures définis par le présent acte, seront supprimés et constatés ; et à compter de la date de cette proclamation, tous les étalons de première classe de poids et mesures antérieurement établis et légalisés par la législature de la ci-devant province du Canada, ou par les législatures de la Nouvelle-Ecosse, du Nouveau-Brunswick et de la Colombie Britannique, seront transférées au département du revenu de l'intérieur et resteront en sa possession ;

Et qu'il est, en outre, décrété que, le ministre du revenu de l'intérieur fera également préparer deux assortiments d'étalons, de deuxième classe, des poids et mesures définis et établis par le présent acte, ainsi que de leurs proportions et multiples, et le gouverneur en conseil, sur le rapport du ministre à l'effet qu'ils ont été dûment vérifiés et authentiqués en les comparant avec les "étalons de la Puissance," pourra constituer ces étalons de deuxième classe, les étalons légaux de longueur, poids et capacité, de seconde classe, sous la dénomination de "Etalons départementaux."

Et qu'il est, en outre, décrété que aussitôt que les étalons de la Puissance et les étalons départementaux auront été reçus, légalisés par le gouverneur en conseil et déposés comme il est dit ci-haut, et que les appareils nécessaires pour l'usage de ces étalons auront été obtenus par le ministre du revenu de l'intérieur, le gouverneur pourra, par proclamation, fixer un jour en en donnant pas moins de six mois d'avis préalable, à compter duquel tous contrats, conventions, ventes ou transactions exécutés en Canada pour travaux à faire, ou pour marchandises denrées ou autres articles à vendre, délivrer ou accepter au poids ou à la mesure, lorsqu'il n'existera pas de stipulation au contraire, seront réputés avoir été exécutés d'après les étalons de mesures et poids définis et établis par le présent acte.

Et attendu que l'honorable ministre du revenu de l'intérieur a fait préparer, conformément à la partie de l'acte précité, trois assortis d'étalon de première classe, comprenant :

1. L'étalon de la verge,
2. L'étalon de la livre avoir-du poids,
3. L'étalon de l'once de Troy,
4. L'étalon du gallon,

lesquelles ont été dûment vérifiés et authentiqués, le plus minutieusement possible, comme suit :

Par une comparaison et une vérification minutieuses des dits étalons, par le préposé au bureau des étalons, avec les étalons impériaux dont il est le conservateur, à Westminster, Angleterre, et certificat de cette vérification et comparaison, sous le seing et sceau du dit préposé, étant déposé au département du revenu de l'intérieur.

Et attendu que le dit ministre du revenu de l'intérieur, a recommandé que Son Excellence le gouverneur-général en conseil, ayant ample preuve de l'exactitude de ces étalons de première classe, peut les déclarer étalons légaux et les seuls étalons de poids et longueur pour le Canada, sous la désignation "d'Etalons de la Puissance" et comme tels, ce sera d'après ces étalons que les unités de poids et mesures seront calculés et vérifiés en vertu de l'acte précité.

Son Excellence le gouverneur général en conseil, sur la recommandation du dit ministre du revenu de l'intérieur, a bien voulu déclarer et déclare, par le pré-

sent, que ces étalons de première classe sont légaux et les seuls étalons de poids et de longueur pour le Canada, sous la désignation "d'Étalons de la Puissance," et que, comme tels, ce sera d'après ces étalons que les unités de poids et mesures seront vérifiées en vertu de l'acte précité.

Et attendu que le dit ministre du revenu de l'intérieur a, en outre, fait rapport qu'il a fait préparer deux assortiments d'étalons de seconde classe des poids et mesures indiqués par les clauses précitées de l'acte mentionné, et des multiples et sous-multiples de ces étalons, et que ces étalons ont été dûment vérifiés et authentiqués par comparaison avec les "Étalons de la Puissance."

Son Excellence le gouverneur-général en conseil, sur la recommandation du dit ministre du revenu de l'intérieur a bien voulu déclarer et il est par le présent ordre, déclaré que ces étalons secondaires de poids, longueur et capacité, seront légaux sous la désignation "d'Étalons départementaux."

AVIS DU GOUVERNEMENT.

DEPARTEMENT DES POSTES,

OTTAWA, 5 Janvier 1875.

ORDRE No. 13 DU DÉPARTEMENT.

Correspondance avec les Etats-Unis.

Une convention postale pour la détermination des frais de port de lettres entre le Canada et les Etats-Unis, qui a déjà été partiellement mise à effet en égard aux journaux envoyés des bureaux de la publication, sera mise entièrement en opération le et après le 1er jour de février 1875.

1. Le et après cette date les taux de postes prélevés en Canada sur matière de malles de toutes sortes (à l'exception de paquets cachetés, de paquets, et d'échantillons) envoyée de quelque part que ce soit, en Canada, et adressée à aucun endroit dans les Etats-Unis, seront les mêmes que si elle était adressée à un endroit quelconque en Canada.

2. Ces taux, savoir, 3 centins par $\frac{1}{2}$ once, ou la fraction d'un $\frac{1}{2}$ once, sur les lettres, 1 centin sur les cartes de poste, et le taux de poste ordinaire en Canada, comme déterminé de temps en temps sur journaux envoyés des bureaux de la publication, les journaux transitoires, et les matières imprimées et diverses de toutes sortes, doivent en tous cas être suffisamment payé d'avance, et cela dans presque tous les cas, par timbres-postes—ou elles ne seront pas expédiées.

3. Dans tous les cas où ces matières sont payées à l'avance—aux taux de poste usuels en Canada—elles seront distribuées franc de port aux Etats-Unis.

4. Si aucune lettre, gazette, ou autre matière de malles adressée aux Etats-Unis, sont mise à la poste sans être payée d'avance, ou sans être suffisamment payée, elle doit être immédiatement envoyée au bureau des Lettres Mortes, avec la cause : "non payée," ou "insuffisamment payée d'avance," marquée dessus.

5. Le taux de régistration sur les lettres adressées aux Etats-Unis sera, comme auparavant, de 5 cents chaque, ce qui doit être payé d'avance par timbre-poste, en addition au taux ordinaire de port.

6. Les lettres et toutes les autres matières de malles expédiées des Etats-Unis en Canada, seront sujettes aux mêmes régulations, quant à la mise en Poste aux Etats-Unis et la distribution en Canada. Aucune lettre ou autre matières quelconque mise à la poste aux Etats-Unis, et adressées au Canada, ne sera expédiée, à moins qu'elle ne soit suffisamment payée d'avance au taux de port domestique usuel aux Etats-Unis ; et quand la dite matière est ainsi payée d'avance et expédiée, elle sera distribuée franc de port dans cette contrée.

7. Ces règlements n'autorisent aucunement l'échange, de quelque sorte que ce soit, de paquets cachetés, ni de paquets de patrons ou d'échantillons ; mais il est sous-entendu qu'une provision quelconque sera faite sous peu pour la transmission réciproque de petits paquets de véritables patrons et échantillons de marchandises, dont avis sera dûment donné aux maîtres de Poste.

CIRCULAR.

DOWNING STREET,
28th November, 1874.

Sir,

1. The Administrator of a Colonial Government has recently forwarded to me a Petition to the Queen in Council from one of the parties in a private suit, for leave to appeal to Her Majesty in Council from a Judgment of the Supreme Court of the Colony.

2. I take this opportunity to inform you that it is no part of the duty of the Governor of a Colony to forward such Petitions, but that they should be brought before the Lords of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council by a professional Agent of the Petitioner in the usual manner.

3. I have further to inform you that it is not the practice of the Judicial Committee to return any answer to such Petitions until an appearance has been entered on behalf of the Petitioner.

4. If, therefore, application should be made to you by a party in a private suit to transmit a Petition of this nature to the Secretary of State, you will decline to do so ; and you will inform the Petitioner what are the proper steps to be taken in the matter.

OWNING STREET,
30th March, 1874.

Sir,—I have the honor to transmit to you, for publication in the Colony under your Government, a copy of a Treaty between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Austria for the mutual Surrender of fugitive Criminals, as well as a copy of the Order in Council of the 17th instant, for carrying into effect that Treaty, which will come into operation on the 30th of March.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient humble Servant,
CARNARVON.

The Officer Administering
The Government of Canada.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT,

COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled : "An Act for amending the law relating to the Extradition of Criminals," it was amongst other things enacted, that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Act shall apply in the case of such foreign State ; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient :

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the third day of December last between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Austria, King of Bohemia, &c., &c., and Apostolic King of Hungary, for the Mutual Extradition of Fugitive Criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following :—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, King of Bohemia, &c., &c., and Apostolic King of Hungary, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice and to the prevention of crime within the two countries and their jurisdictions that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up ; Their said Majesties have named as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say :

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable Sir Andrew Buchanan, a member of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Her Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to His Imperial and Royal Apostolic Majesty :

And His Imperial and Royal Apostolic Majesty, the Count Julius Andrassy of Csik-Szent-Kiraly and Krasna Horka, His Imperial and Royal Majesty's Privy Councillor, Minister of the Imperial House and of Foreign Affairs, Grand Cross of the Order of St. Stephen, &c. ;

Who after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles :—

ARTICLE I.

The High Contracting Parties engage to deliver up to each other those persons who, being accused or convicted of a crime committed in the territory of the one Party, shall be found within the territory of the other Party under the circumstances and conditions stated in the present Treaty.

ARTICLE II.

The crimes for which the extradition is to be granted are the following :—

1. Murder, or attempt to murder.
2. Manslaughter.
3. Counterfeiting or altering money, uttering or bringing into circulation counterfeit or altered money.
4. Forgery or counterfeiting, or altering or uttering what is forged or counterfeited or altered ; comprehending the crimes designated in the Austrian Penal Laws or in the Hungarian Penal Laws and Customs as counterfeiting or falsification of paper money, bank notes, or other securities, forgery or falsification of other public or private documents, likewise the uttering or bringing into circulation, or wilfully using such counterfeited, forged, or falsified papers,

The definition is to be determined accordingly with the Austrian Penal Laws if the extradition shall take place from Austria, and accordingly with the Hungarian Penal Laws and Customs if the extradition shall take place from Hungary.

5. Embezzlement or larceny.

6. Obtaining money or goods by false pretences.

7. Crimes against bankruptcy law: comprehending the crimes considered as frauds committed by the bankrupt in connection with the bankruptcy, according with the Austrian Penal Laws if the extradition shall take place from Austria, and with the Hungarian Penal Laws if the extradition shall take place from Hungary.

8. Fraud by a bailee, banker, agent, factor, trustee, or director or member or public officer of any company, made criminal by any law for the time being in force.

9. Rape.

10. Abduction.

11. Child stealing, kidnapping, and false imprisonment.

12. Burglary or housebreaking.

13. Arson.

14. Robbery with violence or with menaces.

15. Threats by letter or otherwise with intent to extort.

16. Sinking or destroying a vessel at sea, or attempting to do so.

17. Assaults on board a ship on the high seas, with intent to destroy life, or to do grievous bodily harm.

18. Revolt, or conspiracy to revolt, by two or more persons on board a ship on the high seas, against the authority of the master.

19. Perjury or subornation of perjury.

20. Malicious injury to property, if the offence be indictable.

The extradition is also to take place for participation in any of the aforesaid crimes, as accessory either before or after the fact, provided such participation be punishable by the laws of both the Contracting Parties.

In all these cases the extradition will only take place from the Austro-Hungarian States when the crimes, if committed in Austria, would, according to Austrian law, constitute a "Verbrechen," or, if committed in Hungary, would, according to the laws and customs being in force in Hungary, constitute a crime ("buntett"); the extradition from Great Britain only when the crimes, if committed in England, or within English jurisdiction, would constitute an extradition crime, as described in the Extradition Acts of 1870 and 1873.

ARTICLE III.

In no case and on no grounds whatever shall the High Contracting Parties be held to concede the extradition of their own subjects.

ARTICLE IV.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or the person claimed on the part of the Government of Austria-Hungary, has already been tried and discharged or punished, or is still under trial, in the Austro-Hungarian dominions, or in the United Kingdom respectively, for the crime for which his extradition is demanded.

If the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or if the person claimed on the part of the Government of Austria-Hungary, should be under examination for any other crime in the Austro-Hungarian dominions, or in the United Kingdom respectively, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial, and the full execution of any punishment awarded to him.

Should an individual whose extradition is demanded be at litigation, or be detained in the country on account of private obligations, his surrender shall nevertheless be made, the injured party retaining the right to prosecute his claims before the competent authority.

ARTICLE V.

The extradition shall not take place if, with respect to the crime for which it is demanded, and according to the laws of the country applied to, criminal prosecution and punishment has lapsed.

ARTICLE VI.

A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove that the requisition for his surrender has, in fact, been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE VII.

If an Individual whose extradition is demanded by either of the High Contracting Parties, in accordance with the terms of this Treaty, be also claimed by one or several other Powers on account of other crimes committed on their territory, he shall be surrendered to the Government in whose territory his gravest crime was committed; and if his crimes are all of the same gravity, or a doubt exists as to which is the gravest, to the Government which first made application for his surrender.

ARTICLE VIII.

A surrendered person shall in no case be kept in arrest or subjected to examination in the State to which he has been surrendered on account of another previous crime, or any other grounds than those of his surrender, unless such person has, after his surrender, had an opportunity of returning to the country whence he was surrendered, and has not made use of this opportunity, or unless he, after having returned there, reappears in the country to which he has already been surrendered.

This stipulation does not refer to crimes committed after surrender.

ARTICLE IX.

Requisitions for surrender shall be made by the Diplomatic Agents of the High Contracting Parties.

To the requisition for the surrender of an accused person there must be attached a warrant issued by the competent authorities of the State which demands extradition, and such proofs as would, according to the laws of the place where the accused was found, justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition refers to a person already convicted, the sentence passed by the competent Tribunal of State demanding his surrender must be produced.

No requisition for surrender can be based on a conviction in contumaciam.

ARTICLE X.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

The prisoner is then to be brought before a competent Magistrate, who is to examine him and to conduct the preliminary investigation of the case, just as if the apprehension had taken place for a crime committed in the same country.

ARTICLE XI.

A fugitive criminal may, however, in urgent cases be arrested under a warrant of a Police Magistrate, Judge of the Peace, or of any other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, or such evidence as would, in the opinion of the person issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime had been committed or the prisoner convicted in the district in which the authority happens to be; provided, however, that he shall be discharged if, within the shortest time possible, and at the utmost within fourteen days, a requisition for his surrender in accordance with the terms of Article IX of this Treaty is not made by the Diplomatic Agent of the State which demands his extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

The extradition shall not take place before the expiration of fifteen days from the apprehension, and then only if the evidence be found sufficient, according to the laws of the State applied to either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial, in case the crime had been committed in the territory of the said State, or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the Courts of the State which makes the requisition.

ARTICLE XIII.

In the examinations which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State applied to shall admit as entirely valid evidence, the sworn depositions or statements of witnesses taken in the other State, or copies thereof, and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, provided such documents are signed or ratified by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of such State, and are authenticated by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE XIV.

If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, he shall be set at liberty.

ARTICLE XV.

All articles seized, which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension, shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for extradition has ordered the delivery thereof, be given up when the extradition takes place; and this delivery shall extend not only to property of the accused, and to the stolen articles, but also to every thing which may serve as a proof of the crime. If the extradition cannot be carried out in consequence of the flight or death of the individual who is claimed, the delivery of the above-mentioned objects shall take place nevertheless.

ARTICLE XVI.

Each of the Contracting Parties shall defray the expenses occasioned by the arrest within its territories, the detention, and the conveyance to its frontier, of the persons to be surrendered, in pursuance of this Treaty.

ARTICLE XVII.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of such Colonies or foreign possessions shall be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Colony or possession by the chief Consular Officer of Austria-Hungary in such Colony or possession.

Such requisitions may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the said Governor or chief authority, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender, or to refer the matter to his Government.

Her Britannic Majesty shall, however, be at liberty to make special arrangements in the British Colonies and foreign possessions for the surrender of Austro-Hungarian criminals, who may take refuge within such Colonies and foreign possessions, on the basis as nearly as may be, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal from any Colony or foreign possession of Her Britannic Majesty shall be governed by the rules laid down in the preceding Articles of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties, but shall remain in force for six months after notice has been given for its termination.

The Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Vienna as soon as possible.

In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at Vienna, the 3rd day of December, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

(L.S.) ANDREW BUCHANAN.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at Vienna on the tenth instant:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirtieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, the said Act shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the Emperor of Austria.

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the thirteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Brazil, for the Mutual Extradition of Fugitive Criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice, and to the prevention of crime within their respective territories and jurisdictions, that persons accused or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, being fugitives from justice, should under certain circumstances be reciprocally delivered up, have resolved to name their Plenipotentiaries for the celebration of a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say:—

ARTICLE IV.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed has already been tried and acquitted, or punished, or if he is under trial, for the same crime for which extradition is asked. If he should be under trial for any other crime, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial, and the fulfilment of the punishment, when such may have been awarded.

If the person whose extradition is demanded by one of the High Contracting Parties shall be also claimed by one or more other Governments, on account of crimes committed in their respective territories, the following rule shall be observed:

If he shall be a subject of the High Contracting Party who claims him, the surrender shall be made to it. If he be not so, the other High Contracting Party shall have the power of delivering him up to the reclaiming Government which in the case in question may appear to the former best entitled to the preference.

ARTICLE IX.

A requisition for extradition shall be made through the respective Diplomatic Agents of the High Contracting Powers.

When it relates to a person accused only, it must be accompanied by the warrant of arrest, issued by the competent authority of the State applying for it, and by such evidence as according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify the arrest if the crime was there committed.

If the extradition refers to a person already convicted, the application must be accompanied by a copy of the sentence of condemnation, passed against him, given by a competent Tribunal of the State making the requisition.

The requisition cannot, however, be founded on a sentence passed in contumaciam, that is to say, when the delinquent has not been personally cited to defend himself.

ARTICLE X.

If the requisition has been in conformity with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State to which it has been addressed shall proceed to the capture of the refugee. The prisoner shall be brought before a competent authority, who is to examine him and conduct the preliminary investigations of the case just as if the apprehension had taken place for the crime committed in the same country.

ARTICLE XI.

The extradition shall in no case take place before the expiration of fifteen days counted from the apprehension, and after delay it shall only be carried out when the evidence has been found sufficient according to the laws of the country applied to either for subjecting the prisoner to trial if the crime had been there committed, or to prove the identity of the person convicted and condemned by the Tribunals of the State making the requisition.

ARTICLE XII.

In the examinations which are to be made in conformity with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State to which application is made, shall admit as valid evidence the sworn depositions or declarations of witnesses, which were taken in the other State, or the respective copies thereof as well as the judicial documents, warrants, or sentences, transmitted therefrom, provided they are signed or certified by the hand of the judge, magistrate, or public officer of that State, and authenticated, either by the oath of some witness, or by the official seal of the Minister of Justice or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE XIII.

If within two months counting from the date of arrest, sufficient evidence for the extradition shall not have been presented, the person arrested shall be set at liberty. He shall likewise be set at liberty if, within two months of the day on which he was placed at the disposal of the Diplomatic Agent, he shall not have been sent off to the reclaiming country.

ARTICLE XIV.

All the articles found in the possession of the person demanded, at the time of his apprehension, shall be seized in order to their delivery with him, when his extradition shall take place.

This delivery shall not be limited to effects or articles robbed, stolen, or obtained by other crimes, but shall extend to all that might serve as evidence of the crime; it shall be made even when the extradition could not be made after orders to that effect, on account of the flight or death of the person claimed.

ARTICLE XV.

The High Contracting Parties renounce whatever claims they may have for the reimbursement of the expenses incurred for the apprehension and maintenance of the persons to be delivered up, and for their conveyance until they shall be placed on board ship, as they agree to defray these outgoings in their respective countries.

ARTICLE XVI.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall apply to the colonies and other possessions of Her Britannic Majesty.

The requisition for the surrender shall be made to the Governor, or to the chief authority, in the Colony or Possession, by the highest Consular Agent of Brazil.

The surrender shall be made by the Governor or the chief authority, who shall, however, have the power either to make it, or to refer the matter to his Government.

Both in the requisitions and in the surrender, the conditions established by the foregoing Articles of this Treaty shall be, as far as may be possible, adhered to.

As Her Britannic Majesty has the power to adopt special arrangements in the Colonies and possessions, respecting the delivering up of delinquents, Her Majesty will facilitate the reclamations of Brazil in this respect, as far as may be possible, with due regard, however, to the provisions of this Treaty.

ARTICLE XVII.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, and in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws or the countries of the High Contracting Parties. It will remain in force until one of these shall give notice for its termination, but it shall then remain in force for six months counted from the day of this notification.

This Treaty shall be rectified, and the ratification exchanged in Rio de Janeiro, within three months, or sooner if possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Treaty, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at Rio de Janeiro, on the thirteenth day of the month of November, of the year of Our Lord Jesus Christ one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.) GEORGE BUCKLEY MATHEW.

The Undersigned, Plenipotentiaries of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, charged with making a Treaty for the extradition of criminals, upon which they have at this present agreed, having met in conference, took into their consideration the following subjects:—

They directed their attention to the fact that the criminal law of England punishes the crime of infanticide with the same penalty as that of murder, when accompanied by corresponding circumstances, and that it results therefrom that extradition should take place even for attempting to commit that crime.

On the other hand, they observed, that according to the Brazilian law, infanticide is not punished as murder, nor even as manslaughter, but as a crime distinct from both, and by a minor punishment, and that consequently extradition should not take place for the attempt.

They consequently resolved to declare that extradition shall solely take place for the crime of infanticide, and not for an attempt to commit that crime.

With this declaration they agreed to close this conference, from which the present Protocol emanates, which being found in conformity, was signed each having a copy thereof.

Done in the city of Rio de Janeiro, the thirteenth day of November of 1872.

(L.S.) GEORGE BUCKLEY MATHEW.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at Rio de Janeiro on the twenty-eight day of August last:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, the said Act shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the Emperor of Brazil.

2. That the instrument to be used for testing all imported refined petroleum shall be the "Coal Oil Pyrometer," made by Charles Potter, Toronto, Ontario, and all such petroleum as will not stand the fire test of 105 degrees, as required by said Pyrometer, as required by section 2 of chapter 15 of 24 Victoria, when used according to the instructions accompanying the same, shall be dealt with as may be ordered by the Minister of Customs in each case.

3. That every package of imported Refined Petroleum, inspected as before provided, shall be legibly marked or stamped in such manner as the Minister of Customs may direct.

4. That no imported refined Petroleum, which will not stand the said Test, whether designated as "Coal Oil," "Naphtha," "Benzine," "Benzole," "Paraffine" or other oil or fluid, distilled, manufactured or produced by any process or treatment whatever, shall be admitted to entry for consumption or Warehouse in Canada, unless the Importer shall have produced a license from a Collector or other proper Officer of Inland Revenue, authorizing him to import and keep the same on hand.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,

OTTAWA, 5th January, 1875.

DEPARTMENT ORDER NO. 13.

Correspondence with the United States.

A Postal convention for the regulation of Postal charges between Canada and the United States, which has already had partial effect in regard to newspapers from the offices of publication, will go fully into operation on and from the 1st February, 1875.

1. On and from that date the Postage Rates to be charged in Canada on mail matter of all kinds, (except closed parcels and patterns and samples) posted in any part of the Dominion of Canada, addressed to any place in the United States will be the same as if addressed to any place in Canada.

2. These rates, namely: 3 cents per $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. or fraction thereof on Letters, one cent on Post Cards, and the ordinary Canadian postage rates as from time to time authorized on Newspapers from the offices of publication, transient Newspapers, and printed and miscellaneous matter of all kinds, must in all cases be fully prepaid, and, as a rule, by postage stamp—or they will not be forwarded.

3. When so fully prepaid—the ordinary Canada rates of postage—no further charge will be made on delivery in the United States.

4. If any Letter, Newspaper, or other mail matter addressed to the United States, be posted in Canada unpaid or not fully prepaid it must be immediately sent in to the Dead Letter Office, with the reason “unpaid” or “insufficiently prepaid” marked upon it.

5. The registration charge on Letters addressed to the United States will continue to be 5 cents, which must be prepaid by postage stamp in addition to the ordinary letter postage rate.

6. Letters and all other Mail matter coming from the United States into Canada will be subject to like regulations, as respects the posting there and delivery here. Nothing posted in the United States for Canada will be forwarded unless fully prepaid the ordinary domestic postage rates of the United States; and when mail matter is so prepaid and forwarded, no further charge is to be made on delivery in this country.

7. These regulations do not authorize any exchange of closed parcels, nor of packages of patterns or samples; but it is understood that some provision will shortly be made for the reciprocal transmission of small packets of genuine samples and patterns of merchandise, of which due notice will be given to Postmasters.

D. A. MACDONALD,

CIRCULAIRE.

DOWNING STREET,
Le 28 novembre, 1874.

MONSIEUR,

1. L'administrateur d'un gouvernement colonial m'a dernièrement expédié une pétition à la Reine en conseil envoyée par l'une des parties dans une cause privée et demandant permission d'en appeler à Sa Majesté en Conseil d'un jugement de la cour suprême de la colonie.

2. Je saisis cette occasion de vous informer qu'il n'appartient pas au Gouverneur d'une colonie d'expédier pareilles pétitions, mais qu'elles devraient être soumises, en la manière ordinaire, aux Lords du comité judiciaire du Conseil Privé par un agent légalement autorisé du pétitionnaire.

3. Je dois aussi vous informer que le comité judiciaire ne répond pas à ces pétitions tant que le pétitionnaire ne s'est pas fait représenter devant le comité.

4. Si donc l'on venait vous demander d'expédier au secrétaire d'état pareille pétition, relativement à une cause privée, vous refuserez d'obtempérer à pareille demande, et vous informerez le pétitionnaire de la marche qu'il doit suivre dans l'affaire.

J'ai l'honneur d'être,

Monsieur,

Votre très-humble et très obéissant serviteur,
CARNARVON.

À l'administrateur du gouvernement du Canada.

MONSIEUR,

J'ai l'honneur de vous transmettre pour publication dans la colonie placée sous votre gouvernement copie d'un Traité conclu entre Sa Majesté et l'Empereur d'Autriche pour la reddition mutuelle des criminels, ainsi que copie de l'Ordre en Conseil du 20 courant pour mettre à exécution ce traité.

J'ai l'honneur d'être,

Monsieur,

Votre très-obéissant et humble serviteur,

CARNARVON.

À l'administrateur
du gouvernement du Canada.

Château de Windsor, le 17ème jour de mars 1874.

PRÉSENT :

CONSEIL.

ATTENDU que par un Acte du Parlement fait et passé dans la Session du Parlement tenue dans les trente-troisième et trente-quatrième années du règne de Sa Majesté actuellement régnante, intitulé : "Acte pour amender la loi relative à l'extradition des criminels," il est entre'autres choses statué que lorsqu'un arrangement aura été fait avec un pouvoir étranger au sujet de la reddition à ce pouvoir des criminels fugitifs, Sa Majesté pourra, par Ordre en Conseil, ordonner que le dit Acte s'applique à tel pouvoir étranger ; et que Sa Majesté peut, par le même ou par un Ordre en Conseil subséquent, limiter l'opération de l'Ordre, et la restreindre aux criminels fugitifs qui sont ou qui sont supposés être dans la partie des possessions de Sa Majesté spécifiée dans l'Ordre, et en rendre l'exécution sujette à telles conditions, acceptions et qualifications qui pourront être trouvées nécessaires.

Et attendu qu'un traité a été conclu le quatorzième jour de mai dernier, entre Sa Majesté et l'Empereur d'Autriche pour l'extradition mutuelle des criminels fugitifs, lequel traité est dans les termes suivants :—

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, et Sa Majesté l'Empereur d'Autriche, Roi de Bohême, etc., etc., et Roi Apostolique de Hongrie, ayant jugé opportun, en vue d'une meilleure administration de la justice et pour assurer la répression des crimes dans les deux pays et dans leurs juridictions, de livrer réciproquement, sous certaines conditions, les personnes accusées ou convaincues des crimes ci-après énumérés, et qui auraient fui la justice de leur pays ; les dites Majestés ont nommé pour leurs Plénipotentiaires à l'effet de conclure un Traité dans ce but, savoir :

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, le Très-Honorable Sir Andrew Buchanan, membre du conseil privé de Sa Majesté, Grand-Croix du Très-Honorable Ordre du Bain, ambassadeur extraordinaire et plénipotentiaire près Sa Majesté Impériale et Apostolique Royale :

Et Sa Majesté Impériale et Apostolique Royale Le Comte Julius Andrassy de Csik-Szent-Kiraly et Krasna Horka, Conseiller Privé de Sa Majesté Impériale et Royale, ministre de La Maison Impériale et des affaires étrangères, Grand-Croix de l'ordre de St. Etienne, etc. ;

Lesquels, après s'être communiqué réciproquement leurs pleins pouvoirs, reconnus en bonne et due forme, sont convenus des articles suivants :

ARTICLE I.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes s'engagent à se livrer de part et d'autre les personnes qui, étant accusées ou convaincues d'un crime commis dans le territoire de l'une des parties, seront trouvées dans le territoire de l'autre partie, sous les circonstances et conditions précisées au présent traité.

L'extradition ne pourra avoir lieu si l'individu réclamé par le gouvernement du Royaume-Uni, ou si l'individu réclamé par le gouvernement Austro-Hongrois a déjà été jugé et libéré ou a subi sa peine, ou est encore en jugement, dans l'un des Etats de l'Empire ou dans le Royaume-Uni, respectivement, pour le crime pour lequel son extradition est demandée.

Si l'individu réclamé par le gouvernement du Royaume-Uni, ou si l'individu réclamé par l'un des gouvernements de l'Empire Austro-Hongrois, est en voie de subir son procès pour un autre crime dans l'un des Etats de l'Empire Austro-Hongrois, ou dans le Royaume-Uni, respectivement, son extradition devra être différée jusqu'à la conclusion du procès et l'entière exécution de la peine qui lui sera imposée.

Si l'individu dont l'extradition est demandée est en procès ou retenu dans le pays pour des obligations particulières, il devra néanmoins être livré, la partie lésée conservant le droit de continuer à faire valoir ses réclamations devant les autorités compétentes.

ARTICLE V.

L'extradition n'aura pas lieu, si, subséquemment au crime, ou à l'institution des poursuites criminelles, ou à la condamnation, prescription de l'action ou de la peine est acquise par le laps de temps écoulé, d'après les lois de l'Etat où le prévenu s'est réfugié.

ARTICLE VI.

Un criminel fugitif ne sera pas extradé si le délit pour lequel l'extradition est demandée est considéré comme un délit politique, ou s'il prouve que la demande d'extradition a été faite en réalité dans le but de la poursuivre ou de la punir pour un délit d'un caractère politique.

ARTICLE VII.

Si un individu dont l'extradition est réclamée par l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes, conformément aux termes du présent traité, est aussi réclamé par un ou plusieurs autres pouvoirs pour des crimes commis sur leur territoire, il sera livré au gouvernement sur le territoire duquel il aura commis l'offense la plus grave ; et si ses crimes sont tous de la même gravité ou s'il y a doute pour décider lequel est le plus grave, il sera livré au gouvernement qui, le premier, aura fait la demande d'extradition.

Une personne extradée ne peut en aucun cas être tenue en prison, ou être amenée pour subir son procès dans l'Etat auquel elle a été livrée, pour aucun autre crime, ou au sujet d'aucune autre affaire que l'accusation au nom de laquelle l'extradition a eu lieu, à moins que cette personne, après son extradition, n'ait eu occasion de retourner au pays d'où elle a été extradée, et n'ait pas profité de cette occasion, ou à moins qu'après y être retournée elle revienne dans le pays auquel elle a été livrée.

Cette stipulation ne s'applique point aux crimes commis après l'extradition.

ARTICLE IX.

Les demandes d'extradition devront être faites par le canal des agents diplomatiques des Hautes Parties Contractantes respectivement.

La demande d'extradition d'un accusé devra être accompagnée d'un mandat d'arrestation lancé par l'autorité compétente de l'Etat qui demande l'extradition, et des témoignages qui, d'après les lois de la localité où l'accusé est découvert, pourraient justifier son arrestation si le crime eût été commis en ce lieu.

Si la demande d'extradition a trait à une personne déjà convaincue, elle doit être accompagnée de la sentence prononcée contre cette personne par la Cour compétente de l'Etat qui formule la demande d'extradition.

Une demande d'extradition ne peut être fondée sur des sentences prononcées par contumace.

ARTICLE X.

Si la demande d'extradition est conforme aux stipulations qui précèdent, les autorités compétentes de l'Etat à qui elle est adressée devront procéder à l'arrestation du fugitif.

Lorsque le fugitif aura été arrêté, il sera amené devant un magistrat compétent, qui devra l'examiner et diriger les investigations préliminaires en ce cas, absolument comme si l'arrestation eût eu lieu pour un crime commis dans ce même pays.

ARTICLE XI.

Un criminel fugitif pourra, néanmoins, dans les cas urgents, être arrêté sur mandat d'un magistrat de police, juge de paix ou toute autre autorité compétente, dans l'un ou l'autre pays, sur toute information ou plainte qui, dans l'opinion de la personne émettant le mandat, justifierait l'émission d'un mandat si le crime eût été commis ou si le criminel eût été convaincu dans le district où se trouve le magistrat; pourvu, toutefois, qu'il sera libéré dans le plus court délai possible, et d au plus quatorze jours, demande d'extradition, aux termes de l'article IX du présent traité n'étant pas faite par l'agent diplomatique de l'Etat qui demande l'extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

L'extradition ne pourra avoir lieu avant l'expiration de quinze jours à partir de l'arrestation, et alors seulement, si les témoignages sont trouvés suffisants, d'après les lois de l'Etat auquel l'extradition est demandée, soit pour justifier la mise en jugement du prisonnier au cas où le crime aurait été commis dans le territoire de cet Etat, soit pour établir que le prisonnier est bien la personne condamnée par les cours de justice de l'Etat qui demande l'extradition.

ARTICLE XIII.

Dans les examens préliminaires qu'elles auront à faire, conformément aux stipulations qui précèdent, les autorités de l'Etat auquel l'extradition est demandée, devront admettre comme témoignages entièrement valides les dépositions ou déclarations sous serment des témoins prises dans un autre Etat, ou copie d'icelles, aussi bien que des mandats et des jugements qui se rapportent à l'affaire, pourvu que tels documents soient signés ou certifiés par un juge, magistrat ou officier de tel Etat, et authentiqués par le serment de quelque témoin, ou par le sceau officiel du ministre de la justice, ou d'autres ministres d'état.

ARTICLE XIV.

Si des preuves suffisantes pour autoriser l'extradition ne sont pas produites dans le cours de deux mois après l'arrestation du fugitif, il sera remis en liberté.

ARTICLE XV.

Tout objet trouvé en la possession de l'individu réclamé, au moment de son arrestation, sera, si l'autorité compétente de l'Etat auquel l'extradition est demandée en a ainsi ordonné, saisi pour être livré avec sa personne lorsque l'extradition aura lieu. Cette remise ne sera pas limitée aux articles acquis par vol mais elle s'étendra à toute chose qui pourrait servir de pièce de conviction. Si l'extradition ne peut pas avoir lieu par suite de la fuite ou du décès de l'individu réclamé, les articles sus-mentionnés seront néanmoins remis.

ARTICLE XVI.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes supporteront les dépenses occasionnées par l'arrestation sur leurs territoires respectifs, la détention et le transport à la frontière des personnes livrées aux termes du présent traité.

ARTICLE XVII.

Les stipulations du présent traité seront applicables aux colonies et possessions étrangères de Sa Majesté Britannique.

La demande d'extradition d'un criminel fugitif qui s'est réfugié dans telles colonies ou possessions étrangères, sera faite au Gouverneur ou au fonctionnaire principal de cette colonie ou possession par le principal agent consulaire de l'Empire Austro-Hongrois dans telle colonie ou possession.

Ces demandes seront faites ou accueillies, en suivant toujours aussi exactement que possible, les stipulations de ce traité, par le dit gouverneur ou premier fonctionnaire, qui, cependant, aura la faculté ou d'accorder l'extradition ou d'en référer à son gouvernement.

Sa Majesté Britannique se réserve, cependant, le droit de faire des arrangements spéciaux dans les colonies anglaises ou possessions étrangères pour l'extradition des criminels Austro-Hongrois qui auraient cherché refuge dans des colonies ou possessions étrangères, en se conformant, aussi exactement que possible, aux stipulations du présent traité.

La demande d'extradition d'un criminel fugitif d'une colonie ou possession étrangère de Sa Majesté Britannique devra être faite conformément aux règles prescrites dans les précédents articles du présent traité.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Le présent traité entrera en vigueur dix jours après sa publication dans les formes prescrites par la législation des pays respectifs.

L'une ou l'autre des Hautes Parties Contractantes peut mettre fin au traité, mais il devra rester en vigueur six mois après qu'un avis de cessation aura été donné.

Le traité sera ratifié, et les ratifications seront échangées à Vienne le plus tôt possible.

En foi de quoi les Plénipotentiaires respectifs ont signé ce même traité et y ont apposé le sceau de leurs armes.

Fait à Vienne, le 3me jour de décembre en l'année de Notre-Seigneur mil huit cent soixante-treize.

(L. S.) ANDREW BUCHANAN,

Et, attendu que les ratifications de ce même traité ont été échangées à Vienne, le dix courant :

C'est pourquoi, maintenant, Sa Majesté par et de l'avis de son Conseil Privé, et en vertu de l'autorité à Elle conférée par l'acte précité, ordonne, et il est par le présent ordonné, qu'à partir du trentième jour de mars, mil huit cent soixante-quatorze, le dit acte s'appliquera au dit traité avec l'Empereur d'Autriche.

CIRCULAIRE.

DOWNING STREET,
29 novembre 1874.

MONSIEUR,—J'ai l'honneur de vous transmettre pour publication dans la colonie placée sous votre gouvernement, copie d'un traité conclu entre Sa Majesté et l'Empereur du Brésil pour la reddition mutuelle des criminels, ainsi que copie de l'Ordre en Conseil du 20 courant pour mettre à exécution ce traité.

J'ai l'honneur d'être,
Monsieur,
Votre très obéissant et humble serviteur,

KIMBERLEY.

du gouvernement du Canada.

Château de Balmoral, le 20ème jour de novembre 1873.

PRÉSENT :

CONSEIL.

ATTENDU que par un Acte du Parlement fait et passé dans la Session du Parlement tenue dans les trente-troisième et trente-quatrième années du règne de Sa Majesté actuellement régnante, intitulé : "Acte pour amender la loi relative à l'extradition des criminels," il est entr'autres choses statué que lorsqu'un arrangement aura été fait avec un pouvoir étranger au sujet de la reddition à ce pouvoir des criminels fugitifs, Sa Majesté pourra, par Ordre en Conseil, ordonner que le dit Acte s'applique à tel pouvoir étranger ; et que Sa Majesté peut, par le même ou par un Ordre en Conseil subséquent, limiter l'opération de l'Ordre, et la restreindre aux criminels fugitifs qui sont ou qui sont supposés être dans la partie des possessions de Sa Majesté spécifiée dans l'Ordre, et en rendre l'exécution sujette à telles conditions, acceptions et qualifications qui pourront être trouvées nécessaires.

Et attendu qu'un traité a été conclu le treizième jour de novembre, mil huit cent soixante-douze, entre Sa Majesté et l'Empereur du Brésil pour l'extradition mutuelle des criminels fugitifs, lequel traité est dans les termes suivants :—

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, et Sa Majesté l'Empereur du Brésil, ayant jugé opportun, en vue d'une meilleure administration de la justice et pour assurer la répression des crimes dans les deux pays et dans leurs juridiction de livrer réciproquement, sous certaines conditions, les personnes accusées ou convaincues des crimes ci-après énumérés, et qui auraient fui la justice de leur pays ; les dites Majestés ont nommé pour leurs Plénipotentiaires à l'effet de conclure un traité dans ce but, savoir :

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, M. George Buckley Mathew, Ecrl., Compagnon du Très-Honorable Ordre du Bain, son envoyé extraordinaire et plénipotentiaire près Sa Majesté, l'Empereur du Brésil.

Et Sa Majesté l'Empereur du Brésil, le Marquis de St. Vicente, conseiller d'état, dignitaire de l'Ordre de la Rose, Sénateur et Grand de l'Empire ;

Lesquels, après s'être communiqué réciproquement leurs pleins pouvoirs, reconnus en bonne et due forme, sont convenus des articles suivants :—

ARTICLE I.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes s'engagent à se livrer de part et d'autre les personnes qui, étant accusées ou convaincues d'un crime commis dans le territoire de l'une des parties, seront trouvées dans le territoire de l'autre partie, sous les circonstances et conditions précisées au présent traité.

ARTICLE II.

Les crimes pour lesquels l'extradition doit être accordée sont les suivants :—

1. Meurtre, ou tentative de meurtre.
2. Homicide.
3. Fabrication, imitation illégale, contrefaçon ou altération de monnaie, ainsi que l'emploi ou la mise en circulation de monnaie contrefaite ou altérée.
4. Faux, contrefaçon, ou altération, ou mise en circulation de ce qui est falsifié, contrefait ou altéré, comprenant le crime désigné dans le code pénal Brésilien et comme contrefaçon ou falsification de papier-monnaie, billets de banque ou autres effets publics et privés, aussi bien que le placement ou la mise en circulation, ou l'emploi à bon escient de tels papiers contrefaits, ou falsifiés.
5. Vol ou détournement de deniers ou effets publics ou privés, par abus de confiance.
6. Fraudes ou prétextes faux ou frauduleux pour obtenir des deniers d'une autre personne.
7. Banqueroute sujette à poursuite criminel conformément aux lois ad hoc.
8. Fraude par un syndic, banquier, agent, facteur, fidéi commis, directeur ou membre ou officier public d'une compagnie, décrétée comme criminelle par les lois à l'époque où elle a été commise.
9. Viol par force ou menaces.
10. Enlèvement d'un mineur.
11. Enlèvement d'enfant.
12. Extraction avec intention de voler ou de commettre d'autres crimes.
13. Crimes résultant de l'acte de mettre volontairement le feu à une maison ou aux bâtiments qui en dépendent pour porter préjudice à une autre personne.
14. Vol avec violence.
15. Piraterie, d'après le droit des gens.
16. Couler ou détruire un vaisseau en mer, ou tenter d'accomplir l'un de ces actes.
17. Crimes résultant d'attaque ou résistance à bord d'un navire en haute mer avec intention d'attenter à la vie ou d'infliger des blessures graves.
18. Crimes résultant de révolte ou complot par deux ou plusieurs personnes tendant à produire une révolte à bord d'un navire en pleine mer, contre l'autorité du capitaine.
19. L'extradition doit aussi avoir lieu pour participation à l'un des crimes sus-nommés, pourvu que telle participation soit punissable en vertu des lois des deux parties contractantes.

ARTICLE III.

Aucun sujet anglais ne sera livré par le gouvernement ou les autorités du Royaume-Uni au gouvernement ou aux autorités de l'Empire, et, de même, aucun sujet brésilien ne sera livré par le gouvernement ou les autorités de l'Empire au gouvernement ou aux autorités du Royaume-Uni.

Si, toutefois, la personne qui a cherché refuge sur le territoire de l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes, s'est fait naturaliser après la perpétration de crime, cet acte de naturalisation ne sera pas un obstacle à son extradition aux termes du présent traité.

ARTICLE IV.

L'extradition n'aura pas lieu si la personne réclamée a déjà été jugée et acquittée, ou condamnée, ou si elle subit alors jugement pour le même crime qui fait le sujet de la demande d'extradition. Si elle est en voie de subir son jugement pour un autre crime, son extradition devra être différée jusqu'à la conclusion du procès et l'expiration de la peine qui lui aura été infligée.

ARTICLE V.

L'extradition n'aura pas lieu, si, subséquemment au crime, ou à l'institution des poursuites criminelles, ou à la condamnation, prescription de l'action ou de la peine est acquise par le laps de temps écoulé, d'après les lois de l'Etat ou le prévenu s'est réfugié.

ARTICLE VI.

La personne réclamée ne pourra être livrée pour crimes de nature politique, et lorsqu'elle aura été livrée pour d'autres raisons elle ne sera pas punie pour crimes politiques antérieurs. De plus, elle ne sera pas livrée s'il est clairement prouvé que la demande d'extradition est faite en vue de juger cette personne ou de la punir pour crime politique.

ARTICLE VII.

Une personne extradée ne peut en aucun cas être tenue en prison, ou être amenée pour subir son procès dans l'Etat auquel elle a été livrée, pour aucun autre crime, ou au sujet d'aucune autre affaire que l'accusation au nom de laquelle l'extradition a eu lieu. Cette stipulation ne s'applique point aux crimes commis après l'extradition.

ARTICLE VIII.

Si la personne dont l'extradition est demandée par l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes est aussi réclamée par un ou plusieurs autres gouvernements pour des crimes commis sur leurs territoires respectifs, la règle suivante sera observée :

S'il s'agit d'un sujet de la Haute Partie Contractante qui réclame, l'extradition aura lieu. Dans le cas contraire, l'autre Haute Partie Contractante aura pouvoir de livrer la personne au gouvernement qui lui semblera avoir droit à la préférence.

ARTICLE IX.

Les demandes d'extradition devront être faites par le canal des agents diplomatiques des Hautes Parties Contractantes respectivement.

La demande d'extradition d'un accusé devra être accompagnée d'un mandat d'arrestation lancé par l'autorité compétente de l'Etat qui demande l'extradition, et des témoignages qui, d'après les lois de la localité où l'accusé est découvert, pourraient justifier son arrestation si le crime eût été commis en ce lieu. Si la demande d'extradition a trait à une personne déjà convaincue, elle doit être accompagnée de la sentence prononcée contre cette personne par la Cour compétente de l'Etat qui formule la demande d'extradition.

Une demande d'extradition ne peut être fondée sur des sentences prononcées par contumace, c'est-à-dire lorsque le délinquant n'a pas été personnellement cité pour se défendre lui-même.

ARTICLE X.

Si la demande d'extradition est conforme aux stipulations qui précèdent, les autorités compétentes de l'Etat à qui elle est adressée devront procéder à l'arrestation du fugitif.

Le fugitif sera amené devant un magistrat compétent, qui devra l'examiner et diriger les investigations préliminaires en ce cas, absolument comme si l'arrestation eût eu lieu pour un crime commis dans ce même pays.

ARTICLE XI.

Dans aucun cas, l'extradition ne pourra avoir lieu avant l'expiration de quinze jours à partir de l'arrestation, et alors seulement, si les témoignages sont trouvés suffisants, d'après les lois de l'Etat auquel l'extradition est demandée, soit pour justifier la mise en jugement du prisonnier au cas où le crime aurait été commis dans le territoire de cet Etat, soit pour établir que le prisonnier est bien la personne condamnée par les cours de justice de l'Etat qui demande l'extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

Dans les examens préliminaires qu'elles auront à faire, conformément aux stipulations qui précèdent, les autorités de l'Etat auquel l'extradition est demandée, devront admettre comme témoignages entièrement valides les dépositions ou déclarations sous serment des témoins prises dans un autre Etat, ou copie d'icelles, aussi bien que des mandats et des jugements qui se rapportent à l'affaire, pourvu que tels documents soient signés ou certifiés par un juge, magistrat ou officier de tel Etat, et authentiqués par le serment de quelque témoin, ou par le sceau officiel du ministre de la justice, ou d'autres ministres d'Etat.

ARTICLE XIII.

Si dans la période de deux mois après l'arrestation, preuve suffisante pour l'extradition n'a pas été fournie, la personne arrêtée sera mise en liberté. Elle sera aussi mise en liberté si, dans une période de deux mois après le jour où elle a été mise à la disposition de l'agent diplomatique, elle n'a pas été remise aux autorités du pays qui la réclame.

ARTICLE XIV.

Tous les objets trouvés en la possession de la personne réclamée, à l'époque de son arrestation, seront saisis afin d'être livrés en même temps qu'elle lorsque l'extradition aura lieu.

Cette remise ne se bornera pas aux effets ou objets volés ou obtenus par d'autres crimes mais s'étendra à tout ce qui peut servir à prouver le crime ; et cette remise sera traitée quand même l'extradition ne pourrait avoir en conséquence de la fuite ou du décès de la personne réclamée.

ARTICLE XV.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes renoncent à toutes réclamations pour remboursement des frais encourus pour l'arrestation et l'entretien des personnes qui doivent être livrées, et pour leur transport à bord d'un navire ; elles conviennent de payer respectivement ces frais.

ARTICLE XVI.

Les stipulations du présent traité seront applicables aux colonies et possessions étrangères de Sa Majesté Britannique.

La demande d'extradition sera faite au Gouverneur ou au fonctionnaire principal de cette colonie ou possession par le principal agent consulaire du Brésil.

Le criminel sera livré par le gouverneur ou le fonctionnaire principal, qui aura toutefois pouvoir ou de livrer le criminel ou d'en reléguer à son gouvernement.

Dans les demandes et dans l'extradition, les conditions établies par les articles précédents du traité devront être remplies autant que possible.

Sa Majesté Britannique ayant le pouvoir d'adopter des dispositions spéciales pour l'extradition des délinquants dans des colonies ou possessions, Sa Majesté facilitera, autant que possible, les réclamations du Brésil en ayant égard aux termes du présent traité.

ARTICLE XVI.

Le présent traité entrera en vigueur dix jour après sa publication dans les formes prescrites par la législation des pays respectifs.

L'une ou l'autre des Hautes Parties Contractantes peut mettre fin au traité, mais il devra rester en vigueur six mois après qu'un avis de cessation aura été donné.

Le traité sera ratifié, et les ratifications seront échangées à Rio de Janeiro, dans une période de trois mois, ou plutôt, si possible.

En foi de quoi les Plénipotentiaires respectifs ont signé ce même traité et y ont apposé le sceau de leurs armes.

Fait à Rio de Janeiro, le treizième jour du mois de novembre, en l'année de Notre-Seigneur Jésus-Christ mil huit cent soixante-douze.

(L. S.) GEORGE BUCKLEY MATHEW.

(L. S.) MARQUEZ DE S. VICENTE.

Les soussignés, Plénipotentiaires de Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, et de Sa Majesté l'Empereur du Brésil, chargés de conclure un traité pour l'extradition des criminels, traité au sujet duquel ils se sont entendus, ayant tenu conférence ont examiné les points suivants :—

Ils ont observé que le code pénal anglais punit le crime d'infanticide de la même peine que le meurtre, quand il est accompagné de circonstance analogues, et il en résulte que l'extradition devrait avoir lieu même pour tentative de commettre ce crime.

D'autre part, ils ont observés que, d'après le code pénal du Brésil, l'infanticide n'est pas puni comme meurtre, ni même comme meurtre involontaire, mais comme crime distinct des deux précédents et d'une peine plus légère, et que conséquemment l'extradition ne doit pas avoir lieu pour tentative d'infanticide.

Ils ont, en conséquence, résolu que l'extradition aurait lieu seulement pour le crime d'infanticide et non pour tentative de commettre ce crime.

Avec cette déclaration ils ont clos la conférence, dont le présent est le protocole, lequel, ayant été trouvé conforme, a été signé, chacun des Plénipotentiaires en ayant une copie.

Fait en la cité de Rio de Janeiro, le 13ème jour de novembre 1872.

(L. S.) GEORGE BUCKLEY MATHEW.

Et attendu que les ratifications de ce même traité ont été échangées à Rio de Janeiro, le vingt-huitième jour d'août dernier.

C'est pourquoi, maintenant, Sa Majesté par et de l'avis de son Conseil Privé, et en vertu de l'autorité à Elle conférée par l'acte précité, ordonne, et il est par le présent ordonné, qu'à partir du premier jour de décembre mil huit cent soixante-treize, le dit acte s'appliquera au dit traité avec l'Empereur du Brésil.

AVIS DU GOUVERNEMENT.

DEPARTEMENT DES POSTES,

OTTAWA, 5 Janvier 1875.

ORDRE No. 13 DU DÉPARTEMENT.

Correspondance avec les Etats-Unis.

Une convention postale pour la détermination des frais de port de lettres entre le Canada et les Etats-Unis, qui a déjà été partiellement mise à effet en égard aux journaux envoyés des bureaux de la publication, sera mise entièrement en opération le et après le 1er jour de février 1875.

1. Le et après cette date les taux de postes prélevés en Canada sur matière de malles de toutes sortes (à l'exception de paquets cachetés, de patrons, et d'échantillons) envoyée de quelque part que ce soit, en Canada, et adressée à aucun endroit dans les Etats-Unis, seront les mêmes que si elle était adressée à un endroit quelconque en Canada.

2. Ces taux, savoir, 3 centins par $\frac{1}{2}$ once, ou la fraction d'un $\frac{1}{2}$ once, sur les lettres, 1 centin sur les cartes de poste, et le taux de poste ordinaire en Canada, comme déterminé de temps en temps sur journaux envoyés des bureaux de la publication, les journaux transitoires, et les matières imprimées et diverses de toutes sortes, doivent en tous cas être suffisamment payé d'avance, et cela dans presque tous les cas, par timbres-postes—où elles ne seront pas expédiées.

3. Dans tous les cas où ces matières sont payées à l'avance—aux taux de poste usuels en Canada—elles seront distribuées franc de port aux Etats-Unis.

4. Si aucune lettre, gazette, ou autre matière de malles adressée aux Etats-Unis, sont mise à la poste sans être payée d'avance, ou sans être suffisamment payée, elle doit être immédiatement envoyée au bureau des Lettres Mortes, avec la cause: "non payée," ou "insuffisamment payée d'avance," marquée dessus.

5. Le taux de régistration sur les lettres adressées aux Etats-Unis sera, comme auparavant, de 5 cents chaque, ce qui doit être payé d'avance par timbre-poste, en addition au taux ordinaire de port.

6. Les lettres et toutes les autres matières de malles expédiées des Etats-Unis en Canada, seront sujettes aux mêmes régulations, quant à la mise en Poste aux Etats-Unis et la distribution en Canada. Aucune lettre ou autre matières quelconque mise à la poste aux Etats-Unis, et adressées au Canada, ne sera expédiée, à moins qu'elle ne soit suffisamment payée d'avance au taux de port domestique usuel aux Etats-Unis; et quand la dite matière est ainsi payée d'avance et expédiée, elle sera distribuée franc de port dans cette contrée.

7. Ces règlements n'autorisent aucunement l'échange, de quelque sorte que ce soit, de paquets cachetés, ni de paquets de patrons ou d'échantillons; mais il est sous-entendu qu'une provsion quelcon que sera faite sous peu pour la transmission réciprocale de petits paquets de véritables patrons et échantillons de marchandises, dont avis sera d'ament donné aux maître de Poste.

D. A. MACDONALD,
Maître Général des Postes.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of Canada to be hereunto affixed. By Command,

RICHARD POPE,
Clerk of the Crown in Chancery.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
January 15th, 1875.

Sir,

I am commanded by the Governor General to inform you that His Excellency has had under his full and anxious consideration the evidence and other documents connected with the trial of Ambrose Lepine, who has been capitally convicted before the Court of Assize held at Winnipeg on the 10th day of October, 1874, of the murder of Thomas Scott, on the 4th day of March, 1870, at Fort Garry.

Although His Excellency entirely agrees with the finding of the Jury, and considers that the crime, of which the prisoner Lepine has been convicted, was nothing less than a cruel and unjustifiable murder, he is of opinion that subsequent circumstances, and, notably, the relations into which the Provincial Au-authorities of Manitoba entered with the prisoner and his associates are such as, in a great degree, to fetter the hands of Justice.

It further appears to His Excellency that the case has passed beyond the province of Departmental Administration, and that it will be best dealt with under the Royal Instructions, which authorize the Governor General, in certain Capital cases, to dispense with the advice of his Ministers, and to exercise the Prerogative of the Crown according to his independent judgment, and on his own personal responsibility.

I have it, therefore, in command to inform you that it is His Excellency's pleasure that the Capital sentence passed upon the prisoner Lepine be commuted into two years imprisonment in gaol from the date of conviction, and the permanent forfeiture of his political rights.

His Excellency desires that the necessary instrument for giving effect to this commutation be forthwith prepared.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your most obedient humble servant,

My Lord,

In further reference to previous correspondence I have the honour to enclose for your Lordship information, a copy of a communication I have addressed to the Honourable Telesphore Fournier, my Minister of Justice, instructing him to commute the capital sentence recently passed on Ambrose Lepine, into imprisonment for two years in gaol, and the permanent forfeiture of his political rights.

2. In thus dispensing with the advice of responsible Ministers, and exercising the Queen's Prerogative according to my own judgment, I am aware I have undertaken a very grave responsibility, more especially as the facts and considerations which the issue has to be determined are of a very complex and embarrassing character. Upon this, however, I will not enlarge as they have already been fully set forth in former despatches.

3. I am quite convinced that the matter is one which, in the general interests of this country, will have been best dealt with by my direct action.

4. Although the commuted sentence may appear very inadequate to the enormity of the crime, which it is the punishment, I believe it to be such as will best satisfy the conflicting exigencies of the case.

I have the honour to be, My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient Humble Servant,

SIR,

1. The Administrator of a Colonial Government has recently forwarded to me a Petition to the Queen in Council from one of the parties in a private suit, for leave to appeal to Her Majesty in Council from a Judgment of the Supreme Court of the Colony.

ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, OTTAWA.

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL
IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS it has been represented that large importations of Coal Oils are continually taking place at various ports in the Dominion, samples of many of which will not stand the fire test required by the Inland Revenue Act, 1868, and amendments thereto; also that large importations of certain products of Petroleum, such as Gasoline, Benzine and Benzole are being made, such articles being very explosive and dangerous at a very low temperature.

His Excellency, on the recommendation of the Honorable the Minister of Customs, and under the provisions of the 17th section of the Act passed in the session of the Parliament of Canada, held in the 31st year of Her Majesty's Reign, chaptered 50 and intitled: "An Act to increase the Excise duty on spirits, to impose an excise duty on refined Petroleum, and to provide for the Inspection thereof," has been pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that with a view to the better regulation of the foreign Petroleum trade, and the security of the lives and property of Her Majesty's subjects, the following regulations be and they are hereby adopted and established, that is to say:

1. From and after the date hereof, the officers appointed to gauge and test spirituous liquors, wines, &c., at the respective ports of Toronto and Hamilton in Ontario; the Port of Quebec, in Quebec; the Port of St. John, in New Brunswick; and the Port of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, shall be and they are hereby appointed Inspectors of Imported Refined Petroleum at those Ports respectively; and that the respective Collectors of Customs and Sub-collectors of Customs at all other ports and out-ports in Canada, shall be and they are hereby appointed Inspectors of imported Refined Petroleum at their respective ports and out-ports, with power to employ in the actual process of testing such oils any officer or officers under their respective surveys whom they shall consider competent for that purpose.

2. That the instrument to be used for testing all imported refined petroleum shall be the "Coal Oil Pyrometer," made by Charles Potter, Toronto, Ontario, and all such petroleum as will not stand the fire test of 195 degrees, as required by said Pyrometer, as required by section 2 of chapter 15 of 24 Victoria, when used according to the instructions accompanying the same, shall be dealt with as may be ordered by the Minister of Customs in each case.

3. That every package of imported Refined Petroleum, inspected as before provided, shall be legibly marked or stamped in such manner as the Minister of Customs may direct.

4. That no imported refined Petroleum, which will not stand the said Test, whether designated as "Coal Oil," "Naphtha," "Benzine," "Benzole," "Paraffine" or other oil or fluid, distilled, manufactured or produced by any process or treatment whatever, shall be admitted to entry for consumption or Warehouse in Canada, unless the Importer shall have produced a license from a Collector or other proper Officer of Inland Revenue, authorizing him to import and keep the same on hand.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,

OTTAWA, 5th January, 1875.

DEPARTMENT ORDER No. 13.

Correspondence with the United States.

A Postal convention for the regulation of Postal charges between Canada and the United States, which has already had partial effect in regard to newspapers from the offices of publication, will go fully into operation on and from the 1st February, 1875.

1. On and from that date the Postage Rates to be charged in Canada on mail matter of all kinds, (except closed parcels and patterns and samples) posted in any part of the Dominion of Canada, addressed to any place in the United States will be the same as if addressed to any place in Canada.

2. These rates, namely: 3 cents per $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. or fraction thereof on Letters, one cent on Post Cards, and the ordinary Canadian postage rates as from time to time authorized on Newspapers from the offices of publication, transient Newspapers, and printed and miscellaneous matter of all kinds, must in all cases be fully prepaid, and, as a rule, by postage stamp—or they will not be forwarded.

3. When so fully prepaid—the ordinary Canada rates of postage—no further charge will be made on delivery in the United States.

4. If any Letter, Newspaper, or other mail matter addressed to the United States, be posted in Canada unpaid or not fully prepaid it must be immediately sent in to the Dead Letter Office, with the reason "unpaid" or "insufficiently prepaid" marked upon it.

5. The registration charge on Letters addressed to the United States will continue to be 5 cents, which must be prepaid by postage stamp in addition to the ordinary letter postage rate.

6. Letters and all other Mail matter coming from the United States into Canada will be subject to like regulations, as respects the posting there and delivery here. Nothing posted in the United States for Canada will be forwarded unless fully prepaid the ordinary domestic postage rates of the United States; and when mail matter is so prepaid and forwarded, no further charge is to be made on delivery in this country.

7. These regulations do not authorize any exchange of closed parcels, nor of packages of patterns or samples; but it is understood that some provision will shortly be made for the reciprocal transmission of small packets of genuine samples and patterns of merchandise, of which due notice will be given to Postmasters.

D. A. MACDONALD,
Postmaster General.

28-3

THE attention of parties concerned is hereby directed to the provisions of the "Inland Revenue Act of 1875" (37 Vic., chap. 8) which came into force upon the 1st day of January inst.

Application for such licenses should be made to the Collector of the Inland Revenue Division within which such business is, or is to be carried on.

That portion of the Act relating to the Adulteration of Food, Drink or Drugs will become operative only within Inland Revenue Divisions for which Analysts shall, from time to time, be appointed, of which due notice will be given so soon as such appointment shall have been made.

A. BRUNEL,
Commissioner.

R. W. SCOTT,
Secrétaire d'Etat

HOTEL DU GOUVERNEMENT,
Le 15 Janvier, 1875.

MONSIEUR,

J'ai reçu ordre du Gouverneur-Général de vous informer que Son Excellence a examiné, avec un soin particulier et une pénible sollicitude, les dépositions et le dossier de l'affaire d'Ambroise Lépine qui a été condamné à la peine capitale, par la Cour d'Assises tenue à Winnipeg le 10ème jour d'Octobre, 1874, pour le meurtre de Thomas Scott, meurtre accompli le 4ème jour de Mars, 1870, au Fort-Garry.

Bien que Son Excellence approuve entièrement le verdict du Jury et considère que le crime dont le prisonnier Lépine a été trouvé coupable, n'est rien moins qu'un meurtre cruel et injustifiable, Son Excellence est d'opinion que des circonstances ultérieures et, notamment, les relations que les autorités de Manitoba ont eues avec le prisonnier et ses complices, sont de nature à entraver, jusqu'à un certain point, l'action de la Justice.

Son Excellence croit en outre que la cause est maintenant sortie du Domaine de l'Administration de la Justice et qu'il vaut mieux y appliquer les instructions royales qui autorisent le Gouverneur-Général, dans certains cas entraînant la peine capitale, à se dispenser de l'avis de ses ministres et à exercer la prérogative de la Couronne, d'après son libre jugement et sous sa responsabilité personnelle.

J'ai donc reçu ordre de vous informer que c'est le bon plaisir de Son Excellence que la peine capitale prononcée contre le prisonnier Lépine, soit commuée en deux années d'emprisonnement à partir de la date du jugement, et la privation, pour la vie, de ses droits politiques.

Son Excellence désire que l'acte donnant effet à cette commutation soit dressé immédiatement.

J'ai l'honneur d'être, Monsieur,
Vre très-humble et très-obéissant serviteur,

H. C. FLETCHER,
Secrétaire du Gouverneur Général,

A l'Honorable
Ministre de la Justice,
Ottawa.

No. 9.

CANADA.

HOTEL DU GOUVERNEMENT,
Le 18 janvier 1875.

MILORD,

Faisant suite à une correspondance antérieure, j'ai l'honneur d'expédier ci-incluse à Votre Seigneurie, copie d'une communication que j'ai adressée à l'Honorable Téléphore Fournier, mon ministre de la justice et par laquelle je lui donne instruction de commuer la peine capitale prononcée contre Ambroise Lépine, en l'emprisonnement pour deux années, et la privation, pour la vie, de ses droits politiques.

2. En me dispensant ainsi de l'avis de mes ministres responsables et exerçant la prérogative royale au meilleur de mon jugement, je sais que j'assume une très-grave responsabilité, d'autant plus que les faits et considérations qui amènent cette décision sont d'une nature aussi complexe qu'embarrassante. Toutefois, je ne m'étendrai pas ici sur les détails que j'ai longuement expliqués dans des dépêches antérieures.

3. Je crois fermement que, dans l'intérêt général du pays, il est mieux que j'intervienne directement dans cette affaire.

4. Bien que la peine, telle que commuée, puisse ne pas sembler proportionnée à l'énormité du crime qu'elle doit punir, je crois avoir pris le meilleur moyen de concilier les exigences rivales issues de cette cause.

J'ai l'honneur d'être, Milord
De Votre Seigneurie,
Le très-humble et très-obéissant serviteur,

DUFFERIN.

Au Très-Honorable
Secrétaire d'Etat au
Département des Colonies.

CIRCULAIRE.

DOWNING STREET,
Le 28 novembre, 1874.

MONSIEUR,

1. L'administrateur d'un gouvernement colonial m'a dernièrement expédié une pétition à la Reine en conseil envoyée par l'une des parties dans une cause privée et demandant permission d'en appeler à Sa Majesté en Conseil d'un jugement de la cour suprême de la colonie.

2. Je saisis cette occasion de vous informer qu'il n'appartient pas au Gouverneur d'une colonie d'expédier pareilles pétitions, mais qu'elles devraient être soumises, en la manière ordinaire, aux Lords du comité judiciaire du Conseil Privé par un agent légalement autorisé du pétitionnaire.

3. Je dois aussi vous informer que le comité judiciaire ne répond pas à ces pétitions tant que le pétitionnaire ne s'est pas fait représenter devant le comité.

4. Si donc l'on venait vous demander d'expédier au secrétaire d'état pareille pétition, relativement à une cause privée, vous refuserez d'obtempérer à pareille demande, et vous informerez le pétitionnaire de la marche qu'il doit suivre dans l'affaire.

J'ai l'honneur d'être,
Monsieur,
Votre très-humble et très-obéissant serviteur,

CARNARVON.

A l'administrateur du gouvernement du Canada.

CIRCULAIRE.

DOWNING STREET,

MONSIEUR,

J'ai l'honneur de vous transmettre pour publication dans la colonie placée sous votre gouvernement, copie d'un Traité conclu entre Sa Majesté et l'Empereur d'Autriche pour la reddition mutuelle des criminels, ainsi que copie de l'Ordre en Conseil du 20 courant pour mettre à exécution ce traité.

J'ai l'honneur d'être,
Monsieur,
Votre très-obéissant et humble serviteur,

CARNARVON

A l'administrateur
du gouvernement du Canada.

Château de Windsor, le 17ème jour de mars 1874.

PRÉSENT :

CONSEIL.

ATTENDU que par un Acte du Parlement fait et passé dans la Session du Parlement tenue dans les trente-troisième et trente-quatrième années du règne de Sa Majesté actuellement régnante, intitulé : "Acte pour amender la loi relative à l'extradition des criminels," il est entr'autres choses statué que lorsqu'un arrangement aura été fait avec un pouvoir étranger au sujet de la reddition à ce pouvoir des criminels fugitifs, Sa Majesté pourra, par Ordre en Conseil, ordonner que le dit Acte s'applique à tel pouvoir étranger ; et que Sa Majesté peut, par le même ou par un Ordre en Conseil subséquent, limiter l'opération de l'Ordre, et la restreindre aux criminels fugitifs qui sont ou qui sont supposés être dans la partie des possessions de Sa Majesté spécifiée dans l'Ordre, et en rendre l'exécution sujette à telles conditions, acceptions et qualifications qui pourront être trouvées nécessaires.

Et attendu qu'un traité a été conclu le quatorzième jour de mai dernier, entre Sa Majesté et l'Empereur d'Autriche pour l'extradition mutuelle des criminels fugitifs, lequel traité est dans les termes suivants :—

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, et Sa Majesté l'Empereur d'Autriche, Roi de Bohême, etc., etc., et Roi Apostolique de Hongrie, ayant jugé opportun, en vue d'une meilleure administration de la justice et pour assurer la répression des crimes dans les deux pays et dans leurs juridictions, de livrer réciproquement, sous certaines conditions, les personnes accusées ou convaincues des crimes ci-après énumérés, et qui auraient fui la justice de leur pays ; les dites Majestés ont nommé pour leurs Plénipotentiaires à l'effet de conclure un Traité dans ce but, savoir :

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, le Très-Honorable Sir Andrew Buchanan, membre du conseil privé de Sa Majesté, Grand-Croix du Très-Honorable Ordre du Bain, ambassadeur extraordinaire et plénipotentiaire près Sa Majesté Impériale et Apostolique Royale :

Et Sa Majesté Impériale et Apostolique Royale Le Comte Julius Andrassy de Csik-Szent Kiraly et Krasna Horka, Conseiller Privé de Sa Majesté Impériale et Royale, ministre de La Maison Impériale et des affaires étrangères, Grand-Croix de l'ordre de St. Etienne, etc. ;

Lesquels, après s'être communiqué réciproquement leurs pleins pouvoirs, reconnus en bonne et due forme, sont convenus des articles suivants :—

ARTICLE I.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes s'engagent à se livrer de part et d'autre les personnes qui, étant accusées ou convaincues d'un crime commis dans le territoire de l'une des parties, seront trouvées dans le territoire de l'autre partie, sous les circonstances et conditions précisées au présent traité.

ARTICLE II.

Les crimes pour lesquels l'extradition doit être accordée sont les suivants :—

1. Meurtre, ou tentative de meurtre.
2. Homicide.
3. Contrefaçon ou altération de monnaie, ainsi que l'emploi ou la mise en circulation de monnaie contrefaite ou altérée.
4. Faux, contrefaçon, ou altération, ou mise en circulation de ce qui est falsifié, contrefait ou altéré, comprenant le crime désigné dans le code pénal Autrichien et dans le code pénal Hongrois comme contrefaçon ou falsification du papier-monnaie, billets de banque, ou autres écrits faux ou falsifications d'autres documents publics et privés, aussi bien que le placement ou la mise en circulation, ou l'emploi à bon escient de tels papiers contrefaits, ou falsifiés.

La définition sera déterminée par le code pénal d'Autriche, si l'extradition doit avoir lieu en Autriche, et d'après le code pénal et les coutumes de La Hongrie, si l'extradition doit avoir lieu en Hongrie.

5. Soustraction frauduleuse ou vol.
6. Escroquerie d'argent, valeurs ou marchandises sous de faux prétextes.
7. Crimes de banqueroutiers frauduleux prévus par la loi; comprenant les crimes désignés dans le code pénal Autrichien, si l'extradition doit avoir lieu en Autriche et dans le code pénal Hongrois si l'extradition doit avoir lieu en Hongrie.
8. Fraude par un syndic, banquier, agent, facteur, fidéi-commis, directeur ou membre ou officier public d'une compagnie, décrétée comme criminelle par les lois à l'époque où elle a été commise.
9. Viol.
10. Enlèvement d'un mineur.
11. Enlèvement d'enfant ou autres personnes et emprisonnement sous faux prétextes.
12. Vol avec effraction ou escalade.
13. Incendie.
14. Vol avec violence ou menaces.
15. Menaces, par lettres ou autrement, avec intention d'extorquer.
16. Couler ou détruire un vaisseau en mer, ou tenter d'accomplir l'un de ces actes.
17. Attaque ou résistance à bord d'un navire en haute mer avec intention d'attenter à la vie ou d'infliger des blessures graves.
18. Révolte ou complot par deux ou plusieurs personnes tendant à produire une révolte à bord d'un navire en pleine mer, contre l'autorité du capitaine.
19. Parjure ou subornation de parjure.
20. Dommages malicieusement faits à la propriété, si l'offense comporte mise en accusation.

L'extradition doit aussi avoir lieu pour participation à l'un des crimes sus-nommés, pourvu que telle participation soit punissable en vertu des lois des deux parties contractantes.

Dans tous ces cas, l'extradition n'aura lieu des Etats Austro-Hongrois, que si les crimes, étant commis en Autriche, constituent un "Verbrechen" ou étant commis en Hongrie, constituent un crime ("buntett"); l'extradition n'aura lieu de la Grande-Bretagne, que si les crimes, étant commis en Angleterre, ou dans sa juridiction, constituent un crime punissable d'extradition, d'après les lois concernant l'extradition, passées en 1870 et 1873.

ARTICLE III.

Dans aucun cas et pour aucun motif les Hautes Parties Contractantes ne consentiront à l'extradition de leurs propres sujets.

ARTICLE IV.

L'extradition ne pourra avoir lieu si l'individu réclamé par le gouvernement du Royaume-Uni, ou si l'individu réclamé par le gouvernement Austro-Hongrois a déjà été jugé et libéré ou a subi sa peine, ou est encore en jugement, dans l'un des Etats de l'Empire ou dans le Royaume-Uni, respectivement, pour le crime pour lequel son extradition est demandée.

Si l'individu réclamé par le gouvernement du Royaume-Uni, ou si l'individu réclamé par l'un des gouvernements de l'Empire Austro-Hongrois, est en voie de subir son procès pour un autre crime dans l'un des Etats de l'Empire Austro-Hongrois, ou dans le Royaume-Uni, respectivement, son extradition devra être différée jusqu'à la conclusion du procès et l'entière exécution de la peine qui lui sera imposée.

Si l'individu dont l'extradition est demandée est en procès ou retenu dans le pays pour des obligations particulières, il devra néanmoins être livré, la partie lésée conservant le droit de continuer à faire valoir ses réclamations devant les autorités compétentes.

ARTICLE V.

L'extradition n'aura pas lieu, si, subséquemment au crime, ou à l'institution des poursuites criminelles, ou à la condamnation, prescription de l'action ou de la peine est acquise par le laps de temps écoulé, d'après les lois de l'Etat où le prévenu s'est réfugié.

ARTICLE VI.

Un criminel fugitif ne sera pas extradé si le délit pour lequel l'extradition est demandée est considéré comme un délit politique, ou s'il prouve que la demande d'extradition a été faite en réalité dans le but de la poursuivre ou de la punir pour un délit d'un caractère politique.

ARTICLE VII.

Si un individu dont l'extradition est réclamée par l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes, conformément aux termes du présent traité, est aussi réclamé par un ou plusieurs autres pouvoirs pour des crimes commis sur leur territoire, il sera livré au gouvernement sur le territoire duquel il aura commis l'offense la plus grave; et si ses crimes sont tous de la même gravité ou s'il y a doute pour décider lequel est le plus grave, il sera livré au gouvernement qui, le premier, aura fait la demande d'extradition.

Une personne extradée ne peut en aucun cas être tenue en prison, ou être amenée pour subir son procès dans l'Etat auquel elle a été livrée, pour aucun autre crime, ou au sujet d'aucune autre affaire que l'accusation au nom de laquelle l'extradition a eu lieu, à moins que cette personne, après son extradition, n'ait eu occasion de retourner au pays d'où elle a été extradée, et n'ait pas profité de cette occasion, ou à moins qu'après y être retournée elle revienne dans le pays auquel elle a été livrée.

Cette stipulation ne s'applique point aux crimes commis après l'extradition.

ARTICLE IX.

Les demandes d'extradition devront être faites par le canal des agents diplomatiques des Hautes Parties Contractantes respectivement.

La demande d'extradition d'un accusé devra être accompagnée d'un mandat d'arrestation lancé par l'autorité compétente de l'Etat qui demande l'extradition, et des témoignages qui, d'après les lois de la localité où l'accusé est découvert, pourraient justifier son arrestation si le crime eût été commis en ce lieu.

Si la demande d'extradition a trait à une personne déjà convaincue, elle doit être accompagnée de la sentence prononcée contre cette personne par la Cour compétente de l'Etat qui formule la demande d'extradition.

Une demande d'extradition ne peut être fondée sur des sentences prononcées par contumace.

ARTICLE X.

Si la demande d'extradition est conforme aux stipulations qui précèdent, les autorités compétentes de l'Etat à qui elle est adressée devront procéder à l'arrestation du fugitif.

Lorsque le fugitif aura été arrêté, il sera amené devant un magistrat compétent, qui devra l'examiner et diriger les investigations préliminaires en ce cas, absolument comme si l'arrestation eût eu lieu pour un crime commis dans ce même pays.

ARTICLE XI.

Un criminel fugitif pourra, néanmoins, dans les cas urgents, être arrêté sur mandat d'un magistrat de police, juge de paix ou toute autre autorité compétente, dans l'un ou l'autre pays, sur toute information ou plainte qui, dans l'opinion de la personne émettant le mandat, justifierait l'émission d'un mandat si le crime eût été commis ou si le criminel eût été convaincu dans le district où se trouve le magistrat; pourvu, toutefois, qu'il sera libéré dans le plus court délai possible, et d au plus quatorze jours, demande d'extradition, aux termes de l'article IX du présent traité n'étant pas faite par l'agent diplomatique de l'Etat qui demande l'extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

L'extradition ne pourra avoir lieu avant l'expiration de quinze jours à partir de l'arrestation, et alors seulement, si les témoignages sont trouvés suffisants, d'après les lois de l'Etat auquel l'extradition est demandée, soit pour justifier la mise en jugement du prisonnier au cas où le crime aurait été commis dans le territoire de cet Etat, soit pour établir que le prisonnier est bien la personne condamnée par les cours de justice de l'Etat qui demande l'extradition.

ARTICLE XIII.

Dans les examens préliminaires qu'elles auront à faire, conformément aux stipulations qui précèdent, les autorités de l'Etat auquel l'extradition est demandée, devront admettre comme témoignages entièrement valides les dépositions ou déclarations sous serment des témoins prises dans un autre Etat, ou copie d'icelles, aussi bien que des mandats et des jugements qui se rapportent à l'affaire, pourvu que tels documents soient signés ou certifiés par un juge, magistrat ou officier de tel Etat, et authentiqués par le serment de quelque témoin, ou par le sceau officiel du ministre de la justice, ou d'autres ministres d'Etat.

ARTICLE XIV.

Si des preuves suffisantes pour autoriser l'extradition ne sont pas produites dans le cours de deux mois après l'arrestation du fugitif, il sera remis en liberté.

ARTICLE XV.

Tout objet trouvé en la possession de l'individu réclamé, au moment de son arrestation, sera, si l'autorité compétente de l'Etat auquel l'extradition est demandée en a ainsi ordonné, saisi pour être livré avec sa personne lorsque l'extradition aura lieu. Cette remise ne sera pas limitée aux articles acquis par vol mais elle s'étendra à toute chose qui pourrait servir de pièce de conviction. Si l'extradition ne peut pas avoir lieu par suite de la fuite ou du décès de l'individu réclamé, les articles sus-mentionnés seront néanmoins remis.

ARTICLE XVI.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes supporteront les dépenses occasionnées par l'arrestation sur leurs territoires respectifs, la détention et le transport à la frontière des personnes livrées aux termes du présent traité.

ARTICLE XVII.

Les stipulations du présent traité seront applicables aux colonies et possessions étrangères de Sa Majesté Britannique.

La demande d'extradition d'un criminel fugitif qui s'est réfugié dans telles colonies ou possessions étrangères, sera faite au Gouverneur ou au fonctionnaire principal de cette colonie ou possession par le principal agent consulaire de l'Empire Austro-Hongrois dans telle colonie ou possession.

Ces demandes seront faites ou accueillies, en suivant toujours aussi exactement que possible, les stipulations de ce traité, par le dit gouverneur ou premier fonctionnaire, qui, cependant, aura la faculté ou d'accorder l'extradition ou d'en référer à son gouvernement.

Sa Majesté Britannique se réserve, cependant, le droit de faire des arrangements spéciaux dans les colonies anglaises ou possessions étrangères pour l'extradition des criminels Austro-Hongrois qui auraient cherché refuge dans des colonies ou possessions étrangères, en se conformant, aussi exactement que possible, aux stipulations du présent traité.

La demande d'extradition d'un criminel fugitif d'une colonie ou possession étrangère de Sa Majesté Britannique devra être faite conformément aux règles prescrites dans les précédents articles du présent traité.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Le présent traité entrera en vigueur dix jours après sa publication dans les formes prescrites par la législation des pays respectifs.

L'une ou l'autre des Hautes Parties Contractantes peut mettre fin au traité, mais il devra rester en vigueur six mois après qu'un avis de cessation aura été donné.

Le traité sera ratifié, et les ratifications seront échangées à Vienne le plus tôt possible.

En foi de quoi les Plénipotentiaires respectifs ont signé ce même traité et y ont apposé le sceau de leurs armes.

Fait à Vienne, le 3me jour de décembre en l'année de Notre Seigneur mil huit cent soixante-treize.

(L. S.) ANDREW BUCHANAN,

Et, attendu que les ratifications de ce même traité ont été échangées à Vienne, le dix courant :

C'est pourquoi, maintenant, Sa Majesté par et de l'avis de son Conseil Privé, et en vertu de l'autorité à Elle conférée par l'acte précité, ordonne, et il est par le présent ordonné, qu'à partir du trentième jour de mars, mil huit cent soixante-quatorze, le dit acte s'appliquera au dit traité avec l'Empereur d'Autriche.

PRÉSENT :

CONSEIL.

ATTENDU que par un Acte du Parlement fait et passé dans la Session du Parlement tenue dans les trente-troisième et trente-quatrième années du règne de Sa Majesté actuellement régnante, intitulé : "Acte pour amender la loi relative à l'extradition des criminels," il est entr'autres choses statué que lorsqu'un arrangement aura été fait avec un pouvoir étranger au sujet de la reddition à ce pouvoir des criminels fugitifs, Sa Majesté pourra, par Ordre en Conseil, ordonner que le dit Acte s'applique à tel pouvoir étranger ; et que Sa Majesté peut, par le même ou par un Ordre en Conseil subséquent, limiter l'opération de l'Ordre, et la restreindre aux criminels fugitifs qui sont ou qui sont supposés être dans la partie des possessions de Sa Majesté spécifiée dans l'Ordre, et en rendre l'exécution sujette à telles conditions, exceptions et qualifications qui pourront être trouvées nécessaires.

Et attendu qu'un traité a été conclu le treizième jour de novembre, mil huit cent soixante-douze, entre Sa Majesté et l'Empereur du Brésil pour l'extradition mutuelle des criminels fugitifs, lequel traité est dans les termes suivants :—

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, et Sa Majesté l'Empereur du Brésil, ayant jugé opportun, en vue d'une meilleure administration de la justice et pour assurer la répression des crimes dans les deux pays et dans leurs juridiction de livrer réciproquement, sous certaines conditions, les personnes accusées ou convaincues des crimes ci-après énumérés, et qui auraient fui la justice de leur pays ; les dites Majestés ont nommé pour leurs Plénipotentiaires à l'effet de conclure un traité dans ce but, savoir :

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, M. George Buckley Mathew, Ecr., compagnon du Très-Honorable Ordre du Bain, son envoyé extraordinaire et plénipotentiaire près Sa Majesté, l'Empereur du Brésil.

Et Sa Majesté l'Empereur du Brésil, le Marquis de St. Vicente, conseiller d'état, dignitaire de l'Ordre de la Rose, Sénateur et Grand de l'Empire ;

Lesquels, après s'être communiqué réciproquement leurs pleins pouvoirs, reconnus en bonne et due forme, sont convenus des articles suivants :—

ARTICLE I.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes s'engagent à se livrer de part et d'autre les personnes qui, étant accusées ou convaincues d'un crime commis dans le territoire de l'une des parties, seront trouvées dans le territoire de l'autre partie, sous les circonstances et conditions précisées au présent traité.

ARTICLE II.

Les crimes pour lesquels l'extradition doit être accordée sont les suivants :—

1. Meurtre, ou tentative de meurtre.
2. Homicide.
3. Fabrication, imitation illégale, contrefaçon ou altération de monnaie, ainsi que l'emploi ou la mise en circulation de monnaie contrefaite ou altérée.
4. Faux, contrefaçon, ou altération, ou mise en circulation de ce qui est falsifié, contrefait ou altéré, comprenant le crime désigné dans le code pénal Brésilien, et comme contrefaçon ou falsification de papier-monnaie, billets de banque ou autres effets publics et privés, aussi bien que le placement ou la mise en circulation, ou l'emploi à bon escient de tels papiers contrefaits, ou falsifiés.
5. Vol ou détournement de deniers, ou effets publics ou privés, par abus de confiance.
6. Fraudes ou prétextes faux ou frauduleux pour obtenir des deniers d'une autre personne.
7. Banqueroute sujette à poursuite criminel conformément aux lois ad hoc.
8. Fraude par un syndic, banquier, agent, facteur, fidéi-commis, directeur ou membre ou officier public d'une compagnie, décrétée comme criminelle par les lois à l'époque où elle a été commise.
9. Viol par force ou menaces.
10. Enlèvement d'un mineur.
11. Enlèvement d'enfant.
12. Extorsion avec intention de voler ou de commettre d'autres crimes.
13. Crimes résultant de l'acte de mettre volontairement le feu à une maison ou aux bâtiments qui en dépendent pour porter préjudice à une autre personne.
14. Vol avec violence.
15. Piraterie, d'après le droit des gens.
16. Couler ou détruire un vaisseau en mer, ou tenter d'accomplir l'un de ces actes.
17. Crimes résultant d'attaque ou résistance à bord d'un navire en haute mer avec intention d'attenter à la vie ou d'infliger des blessures graves.
18. Crimes résultant de révolte ou complot par deux ou plusieurs personnes tendant à produire une révolte à bord d'un navire en pleine mer, contre l'autorité du capitaine.
19. L'extradition doit aussi avoir lieu pour participation à l'un des crimes sus-nommés, pourvu que telle participation soit punissable en vertu des lois des deux parties contractantes.

ARTICLE III.

Aucun sujet anglais ne sera livré par le gouvernement ou les autorités du Royaume-Uni au gouvernement ou aux autorités de l'Empire, et, de même, aucun sujet brésilien ne sera livré par le gouvernement ou les autorités de l'empire au gouvernement ou aux autorités du Royaume-Uni.

Si, toutefois, la personne qui a cherché refuge sur le territoire de l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes, s'est fait naturaliser après la perpétration du crime, cet acte de naturalisation ne sera pas un obstacle à son extradition aux termes du présent traité.

ARTICLE IV.

L'extradition n'aura pas lieu si la personne réclamée a déjà été jugée et acquittée, ou condamnée, ou si elle subit alors jugement pour le même crime qui fait le sujet de la demande d'extradition. Si elle est en voie de subir son jugement pour un autre crime, son extradition devra être différée jusqu'à la conclusion du procès et l'expiration de la peine qui lui aura été infligée.

ARTICLE V.

L'extradition n'aura pas lieu, si, subséquentement au crime, ou à l'institution des poursuites criminelles, ou à la condamnation, prescription de l'action ou de la peine est acquise par le laps de temps écoulé, d'après les lois de l'Etat ou le prévenu s'est réfugié.

ARTICLE VI.

La personne réclamée ne pourra être livrée pour crimes de nature politique, et lorsqu'elle aura été livrée pour d'autres raisons elle ne sera pas punie pour crimes politiques antérieurs. De plus, elle ne sera pas livrée, s'il est clairement prouvé que la demande d'extradition est faite en vue de juger cette personne ou de la punir pour crime politique.

ARTICLE VII.

Une personne extradée ne peut en aucun cas être tenue en prison, ou être amenée pour subir son procès dans l'Etat auquel elle a été livrée, pour aucun autre crime, ou au sujet d'aucune autre affaire que l'accusation au nom de laquelle l'extradition a eu lieu. Cette stipulation ne s'applique point aux crimes commis après l'extradition.

ARTICLE VIII.

Si la personne dont l'extradition est demandée par l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes est aussi réclamée par un ou plusieurs autres gouvernements pour des crimes commis sur leurs territoires respectifs, la règle suivante sera observée :

S'il s'agit d'un sujet de la Haute Partie Contractante qui réclame, l'extradition aura lieu. Dans le cas contraire, l'autre Haute Partie Contractante aura pouvoir de livrer la personne au gouvernement qui lui semblera avoir droit à la préférence.

ARTICLE IX.

Les demandes d'extradition devront être faites par le canal des agents diplomatiques des Hautes Parties Contractantes respectivement.

La demande d'extradition d'un accusé devra être accompagnée d'un mandat d'arrestation lancé par l'autorité compétente de l'Etat qui demande l'extradition, et des témoignages qui, d'après les lois de la localité où l'accusé est découvert, pourraient justifier son arrestation si le crime eût été commis en ce lieu. Si la demande d'extradition a trait à une personne déjà convaincue, elle doit être accompagnée de la sentence prononcée contre cette personne par la Cour compétente de l'Etat qui formule la demande d'extradition.

Une demande d'extradition ne peut être fondée sur des sentences prononcées par contumace, c'est-à-dire lorsque le délinquant n'a pas été personnellement cité pour se défendre lui-même.

ARTICLE X.

Si la demande d'extradition est conforme aux stipulations qui précèdent, les autorités compétentes de l'Etat à qui elle est adressée devront procéder à l'arrestation du fugitif.

Le fugitif sera amené devant un magistrat compétent, qui devra l'examiner et diriger les investigations préliminaires en ce cas, absolument comme si l'arrestation eût eu lieu pour un crime commis dans ce même pays.

ARTICLE XI.

Dans aucun cas, l'extradition ne pourra avoir lieu avant l'expiration de quinze jours à partir de l'arrestation, et alors seulement, si les témoignages sont trouvés suffisants, d'après les lois de l'Etat auquel l'extradition est demandée, soit pour justifier la mise en jugement du prisonnier au cas où le crime aurait été commis dans le territoire de cet Etat, soit pour établir que le prisonnier est bien la personne condamnée par les cours de justice de l'Etat qui demande l'extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

Dans les examens préliminaires qu'elles auront à faire, conformément aux stipulations qui précèdent, les autorités de l'Etat auquel l'extradition est demandée, devront admettre comme témoignages entièrement valides les dépositions ou déclarations sous serment des témoins prises dans un autre Etat, ou copie d'icelles, aussi bien que des mandats et des jugements qui se rapportent à l'affaire, pourvu que tels documents soient signés ou certifiés par un juge, magistrat ou officier de tel Etat, et authentiqués par le serment de quelque témoin, ou par le sceau officiel du ministre de la justice, ou d'autres ministres d'Etat.

ARTICLE XIII.

Si dans la période de deux mois après l'arrestation, preuve suffisante pour l'extradition n'a pas été fournie, la personne arrêtée sera mise en liberté. Elle sera aussi mise en liberté si, dans une période de deux mois après le jour où elle a été mise à la disposition de l'agent diplomatique, elle n'a pas été remise aux autorités du pays qui la réclame.

ARTICLE XIV.

Tous les objets trouvés en la possession de la personne réclamée, à l'époque de son arrestation, seront saisis afin d'être livrés en même temps qu'elle lorsque l'extradition aura lieu.

Cette remise ne se bornera pas aux effets ou objets volés ou obtenus par d'autres crimes mais s'étendra à tout ce qui peut servir à prouver le crime ; et cette remise sera traitée qu'ind même l'extradition ne pourrait avoir en conséquence de la fuite ou du décès de la personne réclamée.

ARTICLE XV.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes renoncent à toutes réclamations pour remboursement des frais encourus pour l'arrestation et l'entretien des personnes qui doivent être livrées, et pour leur transport à bord d'un navire ; elles conviennent de payer respectivement ces frais.

ARTICLE XVI.

Les stipulations du présent traité seront applicables aux colonies et possessions étrangères de Sa Majesté Britannique.

La demande d'extradition sera faite au Gouverneur ou au fonctionnaire principal de cette colonie ou possession par le principal agent consulaire du Brésil.

Le criminel sera livré par le gouverneur ou le fonctionnaire principal, qui aura toutefois pouvoir ou de livrer le criminel ou d'en réclamer à son gouvernement.

Dans les demandes et dans l'extradition, les conditions établies par les articles précédents du traité devront être remplies autant que possible.

Sa Majesté Britannique ayant le pouvoir d'adopter des dispositions spéciales pour l'extradition des délinquants dans des colonies ou possessions, Sa Majesté facilitera, autant que possible, les réclamations du Brésil en ayant égard aux termes du présent traité.

ARTICLE XVI.

Le présent traité entrera en vigueur dix jours après sa publication dans les formes prescrites par la législation des pays respectifs.

L'une ou l'autre des Hautes Parties Contractantes peut mettre fin au traité, mais il devra rester en vigueur six mois après qu'un avis de cessation aura été donné.

Le traité sera ratifié, et les ratifications seront échangées à Rio de Janeiro, dans une période de trois mois ou plutôt, si possible.

En foi de quoi les Plénipotentiaires respectifs ont signé ce même traité et y ont apposé le sceau de leurs armes.

Fait à Rio de Janeiro, le trezième jour du mois de novembre, en l'année de Notre-Seigneur Jésus-Christ mil huit cent soixante-douze.

(L S) GEORGE BUCKLEY MATHEW.
(L S) MARQUEZ DE S. VICENTE.

Les soussignés, Plénipotentiaires de Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, et de Sa Majesté l'Empereur du Brésil, chargés de conclure un traité pour l'extradition des criminels, traité au sujet duquel ils se sont entendus, ayant tenu conférence ont examiné les points suivants :—

Ils ont observé que le code pénal anglais punit le crime d'infanticide de la même peine que le meurtre, quand il est accompagné de circonstance analogues, et il en résulte que l'extradition devrait avoir lieu même pour tentative de commettre ce crime.

D'autre part, ils ont observés que, d'après le code pénal du Brésil, l'infanticide n'est pas puni comme meurtre, ni même comme meurtre involontaire, mais comme crime distinct des deux précédents et d'une peine plus légère, et que conséquemment l'extradition ne doit pas avoir lieu pour tentative d'infanticide.

Ils ont, en conséquence, résolu que l'extradition aurait lieu seulement pour le crime d'infanticide et non pour tentative de commettre ce crime.

Avec cette déclaration ils ont clos la conférence, dont le présent est le protocole, lequel, ayant été trouvé conforme, a été signé, chacun des Plénipotentiaires en ayant une copie.

Fait en la cité de Rio de Janeiro, le 13ème jour de novembre 1872.

(L S) GEORGE BUCKLEY MATHEW.

Et attendu que les ratifications de ce même traité ont été échangées à Rio de Janeiro, le vingt-huitième jour d'août dernier.

C'est pourquoi, maintenant, Sa Majesté par et de l'avis de son Conseil Privé, et en vertu de l'autorité à Elle conférée par l'acte précité, ordonne, et il est par le présent ordonné, qu'à partir du premier jour de décembre mil huit cent soixante-treize, le dit acte s'appliquera au dit traité avec l'Empereur du Brésil.

Vendredi, le 15e jour de Janvier 1875

PRESENT :

SON EXCELLENCE LE GOUVERNEUR-GENERAL
EN CONSEIL.

ATTENDU qu'il a été représenté qu'on importe continuellement, à plusieurs ports du Canada, de grandes quantités de pétroles, dont plusieurs échantillons ne peuvent supporter l'épreuve du feu exigée par "l'Acte du revenu de l'intérieur, 1868," et les amendements au dit acte; aussi que l'on fait de grandes importations de divers produits du pétrole, tels que la gasoline, la benzine et la benzole,—ces articles étant très-explosifs et dangereux à une très basse température;

Son Excellence, sur la recommandation de l'hon. ministre des douanes, et en vertu des dispositions de la 17ème section de l'acte passé en la session du parlement du Canada, tenue en la 31ème année du règne de Sa Majesté, et intitulé: "Acte pour augmenter le droit d'Excise sur les spiritueux, pour imposer un droit d'Excise sur le pétrole raffiné, et pourvoir à son inspection," a bien voulu ordonner et il est, par le présent ordonné qu'en vue de mieux régler le commerce du pétrole avec l'étranger et pour la sûreté de la vie et des propriétés des sujets de Sa Majesté, les règlements suivants soient et sont, par le présent, adoptés et établis, savoir :—

1. De et après cette date, les officiers nommés pour jager et éprouver les liqueurs spiritueuses, vins, etc., aux ports respectifs de Toronto et Hamilton, dans la province d'Ontario, de Québec dans la province de Québec, de St. Jean, du Nouveau-Brunswick, et d'Halifax, à la Nouvelle-Ecosse, sont, par le présent, nommés inspecteurs du pétrole raffiné importé à ces ports respectivement et les divers percepteurs et percepteurs adjoints des douanes, à tous les autres ports et ports extérieurs, en Canada, sont, par le présent, nommés inspecteurs du pétrole raffiné importés à leurs ports et ports extérieurs respectifs, avec pouvoir d'employer, dans l'épreuve de ces huiles, tout officier ou officiers sous leur contrôle respectif qu'ils pourront juger compétents à cet égard.

2. L'assortiment que l'on devra employer pour éprouver le pétrole raffiné sera "Pyromètre à pétrole," fabriqué par Charles Potter, Toronto, Ontario, et tout pétrole qui ne supportera pas l'épreuve du feu exigée par la section 8, chap 15, 34 Victoria, en employant le dit pyromètre, lorsqu'il sera employé d'après les instructions qui accompagnent l'instrument, sera traité suivant ce que le ministre des douanes décidera dans chaque cas.

3. Tout colis de pétrole raffiné importé, après inspection comme susdit, devra être lisiblement marqué ou estampé suivant les instructions du ministre des douanes.

4. Aucun pétrole raffiné qui ne surportera pas la dite épreuve, que ce soit du "pétrole" proprement dit, du "Napthe," de la "Benzine," de la "Benzole," de la "paraffine" ou autre huile ou fluide distillé, fabriqué ou produit par un procédé ou traitement quelconque, ne sera admis, en entrée, pour consommation ou entrepôt, en Canada, à moins que l'importateur ne produise un permis du percepteur ou autre officier du revenu de l'intérieur, dûment autorisé, lui donnant autorisation d'importer et de garder ce produit.

AVIS DU GOUVERNEMENT.

DEPARTEMENT DES POSTES,

OTTAWA, le 5 Janvier, 1875

ORDRE No. 13 DU DÉPARTEMENT.

Correspondance avec les Etats-Unis.

Une convention postale pour la détermination des frais de port de lettres entre le Canada et les Etats-Unis, laquelle a déjà été partiellement mise à effet eu égard aux journaux envoyés des bureaux de publication, sera mise entièrement en opération le et après le 1er jour de février, 1875.

1. De et après cette date les taux prélevés en Canada sur articles de toutes sortes pouvant être transportés par la poste (à l'exception de paquets cachetés, de patrons, et d'échantillons), envoyés de quelque part que ce soit, en Canada, et adressés à aucun endroit dans les Etats-Unis, seront les mêmes que s'ils étaient adressés à un endroit quelconque en Canada.

2. Ces taux, savoir, 3 centins par $\frac{1}{2}$ once, ou la fraction d'une $\frac{1}{2}$ once, sur les lettres, 1 centin sur les cartes-poste, et le taux de poste ordinaire en Canada, comme déterminé de temps en temps, sur journaux envoyés des bureaux de publication, les journaux in transitu, et les imprimés et articles divers de toutes sortes, doivent en tous cas être suffisamment payés d'avance, et cela dans presque tous les cas, par timbres-poste, ou ils ne seront pas expédiés.

3. Dans tous les cas où ces articles sont payés à l'avance—aux taux de poste usuels en Canada—ils seront distribués francs de port aux Etats-Unis.

4. Si aucune lettre, gazette, ou autre article adressé aux Etats-Unis, sont mis à la poste sans être payés d'avance, ou sans être suffisamment payés, ils doivent être immédiatement envoyés au bureau des Lettres Mortes, avec la cause : "Non payé," ou "Insuffisamment payé d'avance," inscrite dessus.

5. Le taux d'enregistrement sur les lettres adressées aux Etats-Unis sera, comme auparavant, de 5 centins chacune, ce qui doit être payé d'avance par timbre-poste, en outre du taux ordinaire de port.

6. Les lettres et tous autres articles expédiés par la poste, des Etats-Unis en Canada, seront sujets aux mêmes règlements, quant à la mise à la poste aux Etats-Unis et la distribution en Canada. Aucune lettre ou autre article quelconque mis à la poste aux Etats-Unis, et adressés au Canada, ne seront expédiés, à moins qu'ils ne soient suffisamment payés d'avance au taux de port local usuel aux Etats-Unis; et quand le dit article est ainsi payé d'avance et expédié, il sera distribué franc de port dans ce pays.

7. Ces règlements n'autorisent aucunement l'échange, de quelque sorte que ce soit, de paquets cachetés, ni de paquets de patrons ou d'échantillons; mais il est sous-entendu qu'une disposition quelconque sera prise sous peu pour la transmission réciproque de petits paquets de patrons et échantillons de marchandises, ce dont avis sera dûment donné aux maîtres de poste.

D. A. MACDONALD,
Ministre-Général des Postes.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
January 15th, 1875.

Sir,

I am commanded by the Governor General to inform you that His Excellency has had under his full and anxious consideration the evidence and other documents connected with the trial of Ambrose Lepine, who has been capitally convicted before the Court of Assize held at Winnipeg on the 10th day of October, 1874, of the murder of Thomas Scott, on the 4th day of March, 1870, at Fort Garry.

Although His Excellency entirely agrees with the finding of the Jury, and considers that the crime, of which the prisoner, Lepine, has been convicted, was nothing less than a cruel and unjustifiable murder, he is of opinion that subsequent circumstances, and, notably, the relations into which the Provincial Authorities of Manitoba entered with the prisoner and his associates, are such as, in a great degree, to fetter the hands of Justice.

It further appears to His Excellency that the case has passed beyond the province of Departmental Administration, and that it will be best dealt with under the Royal Instructions, which authorize the Governor General, in certain Capital cases, to dispense with the advice of his Ministers, and to exercise the Prerogative of the Crown according to his independent judgment, and on his own personal responsibility.

I have it, therefore, in command to inform you that it is His Excellency's pleasure that the Capital sentence passed upon the prisoner Lepine be commuted into two years imprisonment in gaol from the date of conviction, and the permanent forfeiture of his political rights.

His Excellency desires that the necessary instrument for giving effect to this commutation be forthwith prepared.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your most obedient humble servant,

H. C. FLETCHER,
Governor General's Secretary.

To the Honorable
The Minister of Justice,
Ottawa.

CANADA.

No. 9.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, OTTAWA,
January 18th, 1875.

MY LORD,

In further reference to previous correspondence, I have the honour to enclose for your Lordship's information, a copy of a communication I have addressed to the Honourable Telesphore Fournier, my Minister of Justice, instructing him to commute the capital sentence recently passed on Ambrose

Lepine, into imprisonment for two years in gaol, and the permanent forfeiture of his political rights.

2. In thus dispensing with the advice of my responsible Ministers, and exercising the Queen's Prerogative according to my own judgment, I am aware I have undertaken a very grave responsibility, more especially as the facts and considerations by which the issue has to be determined are of a very complex and embarrassing character. Upon these, however, I will not enlarge as they have already been fully set forth in former despatches.

3. I am quite convinced that the matter is one which, in the general interests of this country, will have been best dealt with by my direct action.

4. Although the commuted sentence may appear very inadequate to the enormity of the crime, of which it is the punishment, I believe it to be such as will best satisfy the conflicting exigencies of the case.

I have the honour to be, My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient Humble Servant,

DUFFERIN.

To the Right Honorable
The Secretary of State for the Colonies.

DESPATCH—APPEALS TO PRIVY COUNCIL.

CIRCULAR.

DOWNING STREET,
28th November, 1874.

Sir,

1. The Administrator of a Colonial Government has recently forwarded to me a Petition to the Queen in Council from one of the parties in a private suit, for leave to appeal to Her Majesty in Council from a Judgment of the Supreme Court of the Colony.

2. I take this opportunity to inform you that it is no part of the duty of the Governor of a Colony to forward such Petitions, but that they should be brought before the Lords of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council by a professional Agent of the Petitioner in the usual manner.

3. I have further to inform you that it is not the practice of the Judicial Committee to return any answer to such Petitions until an appearance has been entered on behalf of the Petitioner.

4. If, therefore, application should be made to you by a party in a private suit to transmit a Petition of this nature to the Secretary of State, you will decline to do so; and you will inform the Petitioner what are the proper steps to be taken in the matter.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient humble Servant,
CARNARVON.

The Officer Administering
the Government of Canada.

ORDERS IN COUNCIL:

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, OTTAWA.

Friday, 15th day of January, 1875.

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL
IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS it has been represented that large importations of Coal Oils are continually taking place at various ports in the Dominion, samples of many of which will not stand the fire test required by the Inland Revenue Act, 1868, and amendments thereto; also that large importations of certain products of Petroleum, such as Gasoline, Benzine and Benzole are being made, such articles being very explosive and dangerous at a very low temperature.

His Excellency, on the recommendation of the Honorable the Minister of Customs, and under the provisions of the 17th section of the Act passed in the session of the Parliament of Canada, held in the 31st year of Her Majesty's Reign, chaptered 50 and intituled: "An Act to increase the "Excise duty on spirits, to impose an excise duty on "refined Petroleum, and to provide for the Inspection thereof," has been pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that with a view to the better regulation of the foreign Petroleum trade, and the security of the lives and property of Her Majesty's subjects, the following regulations be and they are hereby adopted and established, that is to say:

1. From and after the date hereof, the officers appointed to gauge and test spirituous liquors, wines, &c., at the respective ports of Toronto and Hamilton in Ontario; the Port of Quebec, in Quebec; the Port of St. John, in New Brunswick; and the Port of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, shall be and they are hereby appointed Inspectors of Imported Refined Petroleum at those Ports respectively; and that the respective Collectors of Customs and Sub-collectors of Customs at all other ports and out-ports in Canada, shall be and they are hereby appointed Inspectors of imported Refined Petroleum at their respective ports and out-ports, with power to employ in the actual process of testing such oils any officer or officers under their respective surveys whom they shall consider competent for that purpose.

2. That the instrument to be used for testing all imported refined petroleum shall be the "Coal Oil Pyrometer," made by Charles Potter, Toronto, Ontario, and all such petroleum as will not stand the fire test of 105 degrees, as required by said Pyrometer, as required by section 2 of chapter 15 of 24 Victoria, when used according to the instructions accompanying the same, shall be dealt with as may be ordered by the Minister of Customs in each case.

3. That every package of imported Refined Petroleum, inspected as before provided, shall be legibly marked or stamped in such manner as the Minister of Customs may direct.

4. That no imported refined Petroleum, which will not stand the said Test, whether designated as "Coal Oil," "Naphtha," "Benzine," "Benzole," "Paraffine" or other oil or fluid, distilled, manufactured or produced by any process or treatment whatever, shall be admitted to entry for consumption or Warehouse in Canada, unless the Importer shall have produced a license from a Collector or other proper Officer of Inland Revenue, authorizing him to import and keep the same on hand.

W. A. HIMSWORTH,
Clerk Privy Council.

HOTEL DU GOUVERNEMENT,
Le 15 Janvier, 1875.

MONSIEUR,

J'ai reçu ordre du Gouverneur-Général de vous informer que Son Excellence a examiné, avec un soin particulier et une pénible sollicitude, les dépositions et le dossier de l'affaire d'Ambroise Lépine qui a été condamné à la peine capitale, par la Cour d'Assises tenue à Winnipeg le 10ème jour d'Octobre, 1874, pour le meurtre de Thomas Scott, meurtre accompli le 4ème jour de Mars, 1870, au Fort-Garry.

Bien que Son Excellence approuve entièrement le verdict du Jury et considère que le crime dont le prisonnier Lépine a été trouvé coupable, n'est rien moins qu'un meurtre cruel et injustifiable, Son Excellence est d'opinion que des circonstances ultérieures et, notamment, les relations que les autorités de Manitoba ont eues avec le prisonnier et ses complices, sont de nature à entraver l'action de la Justice.

Son Excellence croit en outre que la cause est maintenant sortie du Domaine de l'Administration de la Justice et qu'il vaut mieux y appliquer les instructions royales qui autorisent le Gouverneur-Général, dans certains cas entraînant la peine capitale, à se dispenser de l'avis de ses ministres et à exercer la prérogative de la Couronne, d'après son libre jugement et sous sa responsabilité personnelle.

J'ai donc reçu ordre de vous informer que c'est le bon plaisir de Son Excellence que la peine capitale prononcée contre le prisonnier Lépine, soit commuée en deux années d'emprisonnement à partir de la date du jugement, et la privation, pour la vie, de ses droits politiques.

Son Excellence désire que l'acte donnant effet à cette commutation soit dressé sans délai.

J'ai l'honneur d'être, Monsieur,

Votre très-humble et très-obéissant serviteur,

H. C. FLETCHER,
Secrétaire du Gouverneur-Général.

A l'Honorable
Ministre de la Justice,
Ottawa.

HOTEL DU GOUVERNEMENT,
Le 18 janvier 1875.

MILORD,

Faisant suite à une correspondance antérieure, j'ai l'honneur d'expédier ci-incluse à Votre Seigneurie, copie d'une communication que j'ai adressée à l'Honorable Téphosphore Fournier, mon ministre de la justice et par laquelle je lui donne instruction de de commuer la peine capitale prononcée contre Ambroise Lépine, en l'emprisonnement pour deux années, et la privation, pour la vie, de ses droits politiques.

2. En me dispensant ainsi de l'avis de mes ministres responsables et exerçant la prérogative royale au meilleur de mon jugement, je sais que j'assume une très-grave responsabilité, d'autant plus que les faits et considérations qui amènent cette décision sont d'une nature aussi complexe qu'embarrassante. Toutefois, je ne m'étendrai pas ici sur les détails que j'ai longuement expliqués dans des dépêches antérieures.

3. Je crois fermement que, dans l'intérêt général du pays, il est mieux que j'intervienne directement dans cette affaire.

4. Bien que la peine, telle que commuée, puisse ne pas sembler proportionnée à l'énormité du crime qu'elle doit punir, je crois avoir pris le meilleur moyen de concilier les exigences rivales issues de cette cause.

J'ai l'honneur d'être, Milord
De Votre Seigneurie,
Le très-humble et très-obéissant serviteur,

DUFFERIN.

Au Très-Honorable
Secrétaire d'Etat au
Département des Colonies.

CIRCULAIRE.

DOWNING STREET,
Le 28 novembre, 1874.

MONSIEUR,

1. L'administrateur d'un gouvernement colonial m'a dernièrement expédié une pétition à la Reine en conseil envoyée par l'une des parties dans une cause privée et demandant permission d'en appeler à Sa Majesté en Conseil d'un jugement de la cour suprême de la colonie.

2. Je saisis cette occasion de vous informer qu'il n'appartient pas au Gouverneur d'une colonie d'expédier pareilles pétitions, mais qu'elles devraient être soumises, en la manière ordinaire, aux Lords du comité judiciaire du Conseil Privé par un agent légalement autorisé du pétitionnaire.

3. Je dois aussi vous informer que le comité judiciaire ne répond pas à ces pétitions tant que le pétitionnaire ne s'est pas fait représenter devant le comité.

4. Si donc l'on venait vous demander d'expédier au secrétaire d'état pareille pétition, relativement à une cause privée, vous refuserez d'obtempérer à pareille demande, et vous informerez le pétitionnaire de la marche qu'il doit suivre dans l'affaire.

J'ai l'honneur d'être,
Monsieur,
Votre très-humble et très-obéissant serviteur,

CARNARVON.

L'Administrateur du gouvernement du Canada.

ORDRES EN CONSEIL.

HOTEL DU GOUVERNEMENT, OTTAWA.

Vendredi, le 15e jour de Janvier 1875.

PRÉSENT :

EN CONSEIL.

ATTENDU qu'il a été représenté qu'on importe continuellement, à plusieurs ports du Canada, de grandes quantités de pétroles, dont plusieurs échantillons ne peuvent supporter l'épreuve du feu exigée par "l'Acte du revenu de l'intérieur, 1868," et les amendements au dit acte; aussi que l'on fait de grandes importations de divers produits du pétrole, tels que la gazoline, la benzine et la benzole, — ces articles étant très-explosifs et dangereux à une très basse température;

Son Excellence, sur la recommandation de l'hon. ministre des douanes, et en vertu des dispositions de la 17ème section de l'acte passé en la session du parlement du Canada, tenue en la 31ème année du règne de Sa Majesté, et intitulé : "Acte pour augmenter le droit d'Excise sur les spiritueux, pour imposer un droit d'Excise sur le pétrole raffiné, et pourvoir à son inspection," a bien voulu ordonner et il est, par le présent ordonné qu'en vue de mieux régler le commerce du pétrole avec l'étranger et pour la sûreté de la vie et des propriétés des sujets de Sa Majesté, les règlements suivants soient et sont, par le présent, adoptés et établis, savoir :—

1. De et après cette date, les officiers nommés pour jaugeur et éprouver les liqueurs spiritueuses, vins, etc., aux ports respectifs de Torouto et Hamilton, dans la province d'Ontario, de Québec, dans la province de Québec, de St. Jean, du Nouveau-Brunswick, et d'Halifax, à la Nouvelle-Ecosse, sont, par le présent, nommés inspecteurs du pétrole raffiné importé à ces ports respectivement et les divers percepteurs et percepteurs-adjoints des douanes, à tous les autres ports et ports extérieurs, en Canada, sont, par le présent, nommés inspecteurs du pétrole raffiné importés à leurs ports et ports extérieurs respectifs, avec pouvoir d'employer, dans l'épreuve de ces huiles, tout officier ou officiers sous leur contrôle respectif qu'ils pourront juger compétents à cet égard.

2. L'assortiment que l'on devra employer pour éprouver le pétrole raffiné sera "Pyromètre à pétrole," fabriqué par Charles Potter, Toronto, Ontario, et tout pétrole qui ne supportera pas l'épreuve du feu exigée par la section 8, chap. 15, 34 Victoria, en employant le dit pyromètre, lorsqu'il sera employé d'après les instructions qui accompagnent l'instrument, sera traité suivant ce que le ministre des douanes décidera dans chaque cas.

3. Tout colis de pétrole raffiné importé, après inspection comme susdit, devra être lisiblement marqué ou étampé suivant les instructions du ministre des douanes.

4. Aucun pétrole raffiné qui ne surportera pas la dite épreuve, que ce soit du "pétrole" proprement dit, du "Napthe," de la "Benzine," de la "Benzole," de la "paraffine" ou autre huile ou fluide distillé, fabriqué ou produit par un procédé ou traitement quelconque, ne sera admis, en entrée, pour consommation ou entrepôt, en Canada, à moins que l'importateur ne produise un permis du percepteur ou autre officier du revenu de l'intérieur, dûment autorisé, lui donnant autorisation d'importer et de garder ce produit.

CHAMBER OF THE SENATE.

Ottawa, Thursday, 4th February, 1875.

This day, at THREE o'clock P. M., HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL proceeded in state to the Chamber of the Senate, in the Parliament Buildings, and took His Seat upon the Throne. The Members of the Senate being assembled, His Excellency was pleased to command the attendance of the House of Commons, and that House being present, HIS EXCELLENCY was pleased to open the SECOND SESSION of the THIRD PARLIAMENT of the DOMINION OF CANADA, with the following Speech from the Throne:—

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate;

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I have much satisfaction in meeting you at this early and convenient season.

I have to congratulate you upon the organization of the North West Police Force, and the success of its operations. It has materially aided in the creation of confidence and good-will among the Indian tribes; in the suppression of the liquor traffic; the establishment of legitimate trade; the collection of Customs duties; and, above all, in maintaining security for life and property within the Territory. Another effect of the presence of the Police in the North West has been to enable the Government to largely reduce the strength of the Military establishment in that country.

The negotiation of a friendly Treaty with the Crees and Sautaux of the North-West for the cession of territory may be regarded as a further guarantee for the continuation of amicable relations with the Indian tribes of that vast region.

During the past summer I had the pleasure and advantage of visiting a very large portion of the Province of Ontario, including the whole coast of Georgian Bay and Lake Superior. This official tour enabled me to form a better idea of the great extent of the comparatively well-settled country and of that which is still almost wholly undeveloped. I was everywhere received with the kindest welcome, and was much gratified in witnessing the enterprise, contentment, and loyalty manifested in every quarter.

Your attention will be invited to a measure for the creation of a Supreme Court. The necessity for such a measure has yearly become more and more apparent, since the organization of the Dominion; it is essential to our system of jurisprudence and to the settlement of constitutional questions.

You will also be invited to consider a Bill relating to the important subject of Insolvency.

Measures will be submitted to you providing for the reorganization of the government of the North-West and the consolidation of the laws relating to that country; for a general Insurance law; and on the subject of Copyright.

Gratifying progress has been made in the survey of the Canada Pacific Railway route. Measures have been taken to secure the early construction of the Georgian Bay branch, and to provide a connection with the eastern railway system. The report of the surveys of the road from Lake Superior to Fort Garry, which will be ready in a few days, will afford information upon which tenders may be invited for the construction of the eastern and western portions of that section, so as to reach the navigable waters of the interior.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

The accounts of the past year will be laid before you. The estimates for the present financial year will also be submitted; they will, I believe, be found to have been framed with every regard to economy, consistent with efficiency in the public service.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate;

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I am happy to believe that notwithstanding the general and wide-spread commercial depression which has prevailed over the continent, the trade of Canada is sound, and that the contraction we have experienced in some branches of industry for the past year has not been greater than might naturally have been anticipated.

Papers will be submitted to you on the North-West troubles, and in reference to the negotiations between the Dominion Government and the Government of British Columbia on the subject of the Pacific Railway.

Steps have been taken during the recess for a combination of effort on the part of the several Provinces and the Dominion, to promote immigration from Europe under the general direction of the Dominion officials. It is hoped that the effect will be increased efficiency and economy in this branch of the public service.

I rely with confidence on your prudence and ability, and on your patriotic devotion to the great public interests entrusted to you; and I pray that the Divine blessing may rest upon your labors.

DESPATCH.

DOWNING STREET,

MY LORD,

I transmit, for your information, Copies of a letter (Dec. 21st, 1874) and of its enclosures from the Foreign Office, respecting a Chinese Impostor named Wagg-Tsing-fuh otherwise called Wang-zin-p'ing, who has been passing himself off in the United States as an Official charged with a Mission from the Chinese Government, and who it is stated was about to proceed to this Country via Canada.

I have, &c.,

MR. WADE TO THE EARL OF DERBY.

No. 205.

PEKING,

October 15th, 1874.

MY LORD,—I have the honor to forward, herewith, Copy of a Note I have received from the Prince of Kung and of the answer I returned thereto, relative to a certain native of Shantung in China, named Wang-Tsing-fuh, otherwise called Wang-zin-p'ing, who His Imperial Highness reports is about to proceed via Canada to England.

This individual it would appear passes himself off as an officer travelling on a Mission from the Chinese Government. This is not the case and the Prince in informing the Foreign Minister at Peking of this imposition requests that Wang-zin-p'ing be arrested if possible, and sent back to China.

I have not thought it advisable to enter into an explanation of our difficulties in cases of Extradition except where we have special provision in our Treaties upon the subject.

In our Treaty of 1858, with China, Art. 21 obliges us only to give up such fugitives as may have fled to Hong Kong, or on board British Vessels in the Port of the Colony.

I have, &c.

(Signed,)

THOMAS FRANCIS WADE.

The Earl of Derby.

&c., &c., &c.

PEKING, SEPT. 28th, 1874.

The Prince of Kung to H. B. M. Minister,

A despatch was received on the 24th inst., from the Minister Superintendent of Trade for the Southern Ports to the following effect.

"It has been reported at different periods by the Taotais at Shanghai and Chinkiong that a linguist named Wang-zin-p'ing had leagued himself with certain individuals among the floating population of Shanghai, and had gone from Shanghai to Chinkiong carrying with him arms without a licence, his object being to commit depredations. Hearing that his apprehension was sought for he took to flight. A translation from a newspaper under date of the 10th August has lately been sent in by the Taotai at Shanghai, being an extract from a newspaper published at Hartford (?) in the United States, which contains the following statement: A native of Shanghai in China, named Wang-Tsing-fuh, otherwise called Wang-zin-p'ing is perpetrating frauds on hotel-keepers to a large extent, and it is reported that he is about to proceed via Canada to England. He passes himself off on all sides as an officer travelling on a mission from the Chinese Government.

From the particulars respecting this individual's personal appearance and origin, taken in connection with the fact of the escape from justice already effected, there can be no doubt that the man is no other than Wang-zin-p'ing. The offender in question is familiarly versed in the English language which he can read as well as speak, and he is thus emboldened to visit foreign countries and embark in a career of swindling. There is good reason to apprehend that he may work further mischief if not promptly taken into custody. The Minister Superintendent of Trade consequently begs that the foreign ministers be requested to write to their governments to have Wang-zin-p'ing forthwith arrested wherever he may be found and sent back in custody to China to be stringently dealt with."

On receipt of the foregoing it has to be observed that inasmuch as Wang-zin-p'ing has clandestinely carried arms (from place to place) in China with a view to committing depredations, and further more passing himself off abroad in the guise of an official person has embarked in a career of swindling. Conduct such as this it is impossible for the law to ignore. It is urgently requisite that measures be taken to affect his arrest and to bring him to justice in order to guard against further mischief. It is incumbent therefore upon the Prince to address this communication to the British Minister with the request that his government may be called upon to join in the measures instituted toward securing without fail the apprehension of this person, and to send him back to China in custody for trial and punishment. The Prince trusts that he may be prevented from making foreign countries his refuge and the scene of his mischievous acts.

Kung Chin, 13th year, 8th moon, 18th day.

CHAMBRE DU SÉNAT.

Ottawa, jeudi le 4 février 1875.

Aujourd'hui, à Trois heures P. M., SON EXCELLENCE
LE GOUVERNEUR GÉNÉRAL s'est rendue, avec le cérémonial ordinaire, à la Chambre du Sénat, dans l'édifice du parlement, et a pris son siège sur le Trône. Les Membres du Sénat étant assemblés, il a plu à Son Excellence d'y faire requérir la présence de la Chambre des Communes, et cette Chambre s'y étant rendue Son Excellence a ouvert la SECONDE SESSION du TROISIÈME PARLEMENT de la PUISSANCE DU CANADA, par le Discours suivant du Trône :

Honorables Messieurs du Sénat,

Messieurs de la Chambre des Communes,

J'éprouve la plus grande satisfaction à vous ren-contrer au commencement de l'année, qui me paraît être l'époque la plus convenable pour votre réunion.

Je dois vous féliciter sur l'organisation du Corps de Police du Nord Ouest, et sur le succès de ses opérations. Il a puissamment contribué à faire naître la confiance et le bon vouloir parmi les tribus sauvages,—à faire disparaître le trafic des liqueurs enivrantes,—à établir un commerce légitime,—à la perception des droits de douane,—et, par-dessus tout, à maintenir la sécurité des personnes et de la propriété dans le territoire. Un autre résultat de la présence de la police dans le Nord-Ouest a été de permettre au gouvernement de réduire considéra-blement les cadres de l'établissement militaire dans cette partie du pays.

La négociation d'un traité amical avec les Cris et les Sauteux du Nord-Ouest, pour la cession du ter-ritoire, peut être regardée comme une nouvelle garantie de la continuation des bonnes relations qui ont existé jusqu'ici avec les tribus sauvages de cette vaste région.

Dans le cours de l'été dernier, j'ai eu le plaisir et l'avantage de visiter une très grande partie de la province d'Ontario, y compris tout le littoral de la Baie Georgienne et du lac Supérieur. Ce voyage offi-ciel m'a permis de me former une meilleure idée de la grande étendue de pays comparativement bien peuplée, et de celle qui est encore pre que complète-ment à l'état primitif. J'ai partout été reçu de la manière la plus empressée, et j'ai été heureux de voir l'esprit d'entreprise, le contentement et la loyauté qui se manifestaient partout.

Vous aurez à vous occuper d'une mesure pour la création d'une Cour Suprême. La nécessité d'une pareille mesure est devenue, chaque année, de plus en plus évidente, depuis l'organisation de la Confédération ; elle est essentielle à notre système de jurisprudence et au règlement des questions consti-tutionnelles.

Vous serez aussi appelés à étudier un bill concer-nant l'importante question de la faillite.

Des mesures vous seront soumises pour la réorganisation du gouvernement du Nord-Ouest, et la refonte des lois concernant cette partie du pays,—pour l'établissement d'une loi générale d'assurance,—et au sujet des droits de propriété littéraire.

Des progrès satisfaisants ont été faits dans l'exploration de la route du chemin de fer Canadien du Pacifique. Des mesures ont été prises pour assurer la prompte construction de l'embranchement de la baie Georgienne et pour établir une correspondance avec le réseau des chemins de fer de l'est. Le rapport des études du chemin entre le lac Supérieur et Fort Garry, qui seront prêtes dans quelques jours, fourniront des renseignements d'après lesquels des soumissions pourront être demandées pour la construction des parties est et ouest de cette section, de manière à atteindre les eaux navigables de l'intérieur.

Messieurs de la Chambre des Communes :

Les comptes de l'année dernière vous seront soumis. Le budget de l'année financière courante vous sera aussi présenté ; et vous verrez, je pense, qu'il a été préparé avec toute l'économie compatible avec l'efficacité du service public.

Honorables Messieurs du Sénat,

Messieurs de la Chambre des Communes :

Je suis heureux de croire que, nonobstant la dépression commerciale générale qui s'est fait sentir sur tout le continent, le commerce du Canada est sain et solide, et que la réduction que nous avons eue à subir dans quelques branches d'industrie, l'année dernière, n'a pas été plus considérable qu'on ne devait naturellement s'y attendre.

Il vous sera soumis des documents relatifs aux troubles du Nord-Ouest, et touchant les négociations qui ont eu lieu entre le gouvernement fédéral et celui de la Colombie Britannique au sujet du chemin de fer du Pacifique.

Des mesures ont été prises, durant la vacance, pour amener un effort commun de la part des différentes provinces et de la Puissance, dans le but d'attirer l'immigration d'Europe, sous la direction générale d'employés fédéraux. On espère qu'il en résultera une plus grande efficacité et une économie notable dans cette branche du service civil.

Je me repose en toute confiance sur votre prudence, votre habileté et votre patriotique dévouement aux grands intérêts publics qui vous sont confiés, et je prie la divine Providence de bénir vos travaux.

DÉPÊCHE.

Le Com'e Carnarvon au Comte Dufferin.

CANADA.

DOWNING STREET,
Le 31 décembre 1874.

MILORD, — J'ai l'honneur de vous transmettre copie (1 décembre 1874.) d'une lettre et de ses incluses émanant du ministère des affaires étrangères et relatives (à un imposteur chinois nommé Wang-Tsing-Fuh, alias Wang-zin-p'ing, qui s'est fait passer aux Etats-Unis pour chargé d'une mission du gouvernement Chinois et doit bientôt se rendre en Angleterre en passant par le Canada.

J'ai, etc.,

CARNARVON.

Le Très Honorable
Lord Dufferin, C.S.P., C.C.B., etc., etc

M. WADE AU COMTE DE DERBY.

No. 205.

PEKIN, le 15 octobre 1874.

MILORD, — J'ai l'honneur de vous expédier, sous ce pli, copies d'une lettre que j'ai reçue du Prince de Kung et de la réponse que j'y ai faite relativement à un individu natif de Shantung, en Chine, nommé Wang-Tsing-Fuh alias Wang-zin-p'ing qui, d'après Son Altesse Impériale, doit bientôt se rendre en Angleterre en passant par le Canada.

Il paraît que cet individu se fait passer pour chargé d'une mission du gouvernement chinois, ce qui est faux, et le Prince, en avisant, l'ambassadeur à Pékin, demande que l'imposteur Wang zin-p'ing soit arrêté et renvoyé en Chine.

Je n'ai pas cru devoir entrer dans des explications au sujet des difficultés que présentent les cas d'exceptions non prévus par nos traités.

Dans notre traité de 1858 avec la Chine, l'article 21 nous oblige à livrer seulement les fugitifs qui se sont trouvés à Hong-Kong ou sur des navires anglais dans le port de cette colonie.

J'ai, etc.,

THOMAS FRANCIS WADE,

Au comte de Derby,
etc., etc., etc.

PEKIN, le 28 septembre 1874.

LE PRINCE DE KUNG AU MINISTRE DE S. M. B.

Le 24 courant, la dépêche suivante a été reçue du ministre surintendant du commerce pour les ports du sud : —

« A différentes époques, il a été fait rapport par les Taotais de Shanghai et Chinking qu'un linguiste nommé Wang-zin p'ing s'était ligué avec certains individus appartenant à la population flottante de Shanghai, et s'était rendu de Shanghai à Chinkiang, emportant des armes, sans permis, cela dans le but de commettre des déprédations. Ayant appris qu'on voulait l'arrêter, il s'est enfui. Dernièrement, le Taotai de Shanghai a envoyé la traduction d'un extrait d'un journal, en date du 10 août, publié à Hartford, (?) Etats-Unis, et qui mentionne les faits suivants : — « Un individu, natif de Shanghai, en Chine, nommé Wang-Tsin-Fuh, alias Wang-zin-p'ing, commet des escroqueries considérables dans les hôtels, et l'on dit qu'il doit bientôt se rendre en Angleterre en passant par le Canada. Il se fait passer pour fonctionnaire chargé d'une mission pour le gouvernement chinois. D'après le signalement et les antécédents de cet individu, renseignements obtenus à la suite de l'évasion par laquelle il s'est soustrait à la justice, ce n'est autre que Wang-zin-p'ing. L'individu en question parle et lit très bien l'anglais, et, fort de cette connaissance, il se propose de visiter les pays étrangers pour y pratiquer la fraude. Il est fort à craindre qu'il commette de nouveaux méfaits, s'il n'est pas promptement arrêté. Le ministre surintendant du commerce demande, en conséquence, que les ministres étrangers soient invités à écrire à leurs gouvernements de faire immédiatement arrêter Wang-zin-p'ing, partout où on le trouvera, et renvoyer, sous bonne garde, en Chine afin qu'il soit puni comme il le mérite. »

Au reçu des renseignements qui précèdent, on a dû observer que Wang-zin p'ing, ayant clandestinement porté des armes, (d'un lieu à un autre,) en Chine en vue de commettre des déprédations, — de plus, s'étant fait passer à l'étranger pour fonctionnaire du gouvernement chinois, ce n'est qu'un escroc dont la loi doit se préoccuper, et qu'il est urgent de l'arrêter pour le traduire devant la justice afin de prévenir de nouveaux méfaits. Il est donc du devoir du Prince d'adresser cette communication au ministre britannique, en le priant de demander à son gouvernement qu'il veuille bien seconder les mesures prises pour amener l'arrestation de cet individu et le renvoyer, sous bonne garde, en Chine. Le Prince espère que le dit individu ne pourra trouver refuge dans les pays étrangers ni en faire le théâtre de ses actes coupables.

Kung, Chine, — 13ème année, — 8ème lune, — 18ème jour.

DESPATCH.

Earl Carnarvon to Earl Dufferin.

CANADA

No. 280.

MY LORD,

DOWNING STREET,
31st Dec. 1874.

I transmit, for your information, Copies of a letter
(Dec. 21st, 1874) and of its enclosures from the Foreign Office, respecting a Chinese Impostor named Wag-Tsing-tuh otherwise called Wang-zin-p'ing, who has been passing himself off in the United States as an Official charged with a Mission from the Chinese Government, and who it is stated was about to proceed to this Country via Canada.

I have, &c.,

Governor General

The Right Honourable

Lord Dufferin, K. P., K. C. B.

&c., &c., &c.

MR. WADE TO THE EARL OF DERBY.

No. 203.

PEKING,

October 15th, 1874.

MY LORD,—I have the honor to forward, herewith, Copy of a Note I have received from the Prince of Kung and of the answer I returned thereto, relative to a certain native of Shantung in China, named Wang-Tsing-fuh, otherwise called Wang-zin-p'ing, who His Imperial Highness reports is about to proceed via Canada to England.

This individual it would appear passes himself off as an officer travelling on a Mission from the Chinese Government. This is not the case and the Prince in informing the Foreign Minister at Peking of this imposition requests that Wang-zin-p'ing be arrested if possible, and sent back to China.

I have not thought it advisable to enter into an explanation of our difficulties in cases of Extradition except where we have special provision in our Treaties upon the subject.

In our Treaty of 1858, with China, Art. 21 obliges us only to give up such fugitives as may have fled to Hong Kong, or on board British Vessels in the Port of the Colony.

I have, &c.

(Signed,)

THOMAS FRANCIS WADE.

The Earl of Derby,

&c., &c., &c.

PEKING, SEPT. 28th, 1874.

The Prince of Kung to H. B. M. Minister,

A despatch was received on the 24th inst., from the Minister Superintendent of Trade for the Southern Ports to the following effect.

"It has been reported at different periods by the Taotais at Shanghai and Chinkiong that a linguist named Wang-zin-p'ing had leagued himself with certain individuals among the floating population of Shanghai, and had gone from Shanghai to Chinkiong carrying with him arms without a licence, his object being to commit depredations. Hearing that his apprehension was sought for he took to flight. A translation from a newspaper under date of the 10th August has lately been sent in by the Taotai at Shanghai, being an extract from a newspaper published at Hartford (?) in the United States, which contains the following statement: A native of Shanghai in China, named Wang-Tsing-fuh, otherwise called Wang-zin-p'ing is perpetrating frauds on hotel-keepers to a large extent, and it is reported that he is about to proceed via Canada to England. He passes himself off on all sides as an officer travelling on a mission from the Chinese Government.

From the particulars respecting this individual's personal appearance and origin, taken in connection with the fact of the escape from justice already effected, there can be no doubt that the man is no other than Wang-zin-p'ing. The offender in question is familiarly versed in the English language which he can read as well as speak, and he is thus emboldened to visit foreign countries and embark in a career of swindling. There is good reason to apprehend that he may work further mischief if not promptly taken into custody. The Minister Superintendent of Trade consequently begs that the foreign ministers be requested to write to their governments to have Wang-zin-p'ing forthwith arrested wherever he may be found and sent back in custody to China to be stringently dealt with."

On receipt of the foregoing it has to be observed that inasmuch as Wang-zin-p'ing has clandestinely, carried arms (from place to place) in China with a view to committing depredations, and further more passing himself off abroad in the guise of an official person has embarked in a career of swindling. Conduct such as this it is impossible for the law to ignore. It is urgently requisite that measures be taken to effect his arrest and to bring him to justice in order to guard against further mischief. It is incumbent therefore upon the Prince to address this communication to the British Minister with the request that his government may be called upon to join in the measures instituted toward securing without fail the apprehension of this person, and to send him back to China in custody for trial and punishment. The Prince trusts that he may be prevented from making foreign countries his refuge and the scene of his mischievous acts.

Kung Chin, 13th year, 8th moon, 18th day.

M. WADE AU COMTE DE DERBY.

No. 205.

PEKIN, le 15 octobre 1874.

MILORD, — J'ai l'honneur de vous expédier, sous ce pli, copies d'une lettre que j'ai reçue du Prince de Kung et de la réponse que j'y ai faite relativement à un individu natif de Shantung, en Chine, nommé Wang-Tsing-Fuh alias Wang-zin-p'ing qui, d'après Son Altesse Impériale, doit bientôt se rendre en Angleterre en passant par le Canada.

Il paraît que cet individu se fait passer pour chargé d'une mission du gouvernement chinois, ce qui est faux, et le Prince, en avisant, l'ambassadeur à Peking, demande que l'imposteur Wang-zin-p'ing soit arrêté et renvoyé en Chine.

Je n'ai pas cru devoir entrer dans des explications au sujet des difficultés que présentent les cas d'exceptions non prévus par nos traités.

Dans notre traité de 1858 avec la Chine, l'article 21 nous oblige à livrer seulement les fugitifs qui se sont trouvés à Hong-Kong ou sur des navires anglais dans le port de cette colonie.

J'ai, etc.,

THOMAS FRANCIS WADE,
Au comte de Derby,
etc., etc., etc.

PEKIN, le 23 septembre 1874.

LE PRINCE DE KUNG AU MINISTRE DE S. M. B.

Le 24 courant, la dépêche suivante a été reçue du ministre surintendant du commerce pour les ports du sud :—

“A différentes époques, il a été fait rapport par les Taotais de Shanghai et Chinkiang qu'un linguiste nommé Wang-zin-ping s'était ligué avec certains individus appartenant à la population flottante de Shanghai, et s'était rendu de Shanghai à Chinkiang, emportant des armes, sans permis, cela dans le but de commettre des déprédations. Ayant appris qu'on voulait l'arrêter, il s'est enfui. Dernièrement, le Taotai de Shanghai a envoyé la traduction d'un extrait d'un journal, en date du 10 août, publié à Hartford, (?) Etats-Unis, et qui mentionne les faits suivants :—Un individu, natif de Shanghai, en Chine, nommé Wang-Tsin-Fuh, alias Wang-zin-ping, commet des escroqueries considérables dans les hôtels, et l'on dit qu'il doit bientôt se rendre en Angleterre en passant par le Canada. Il se fait passer pour fonctionnaire chargé d'une mission pour le gouvernement chinois. D'après les renseignements obtenus à la suite de l'évasion par laquelle il s'est soustrait à la justice, ce n'est autre que Wang-zin-ping. L'individu en question parle et lit très bien l'anglais, et, fort de cette connaissance, il se propose de visiter les pays étrangers pour y pratiquer la fraude. Il est fort à craindre qu'il commette de nouveaux méfaits, s'il n'est pas promptement arrêté. Le ministre surintendant du commerce demande en conséquence, que les ministres étrangers soient invités à écrire à leurs gouvernements de faire immédiatement arrêter Wang-zin-ping, partout où on le trouvera, et renvoyer, sous bonne garde, en Chine afin qu'il soit puni comme il le mérite.

Au reçu des renseignements qui précèdent, on a dû observer que Wang-zin-ping, ayant clandestinement porté des armes, (d'un lieu à un autre,) en Chine en vue de commettre des déprédations,—de plus, s'étant fait passer à l'étranger pour fonctionnaire du gouvernement chinois, ce n'est qu'un escroc dont la loi doit se préoccuper, et qu'il est urgent de l'arrêter pour le traduire devant la justice afin de prévenir de nouveaux méfaits. Il est donc du devoir du Prince d'adresser cette communication au ministre britannique, en le priant de demander à son gouvernement qu'il veuille bien secourir les mesures prises pour amener l'arrestation de cet individu et le renvoyer, sous bonne garde, en Chine. Le Prince espère que le dit individu ne pourra trouver refuge dans les pays étrangers ni en faire le théâtre de ses actes coupables.

Kung, Chine,—13ème année,—8ème lune,—13ème jour.

MY LORD,

I transmit, for your information, Copies of a letter
(Dec. 21st, 1874) and of its enclosures from the Foreign Office, respecting a Chinese Impostor named Wang-Tsing-fuh otherwise called Wang-zin-p'ing, who has been passing himself off in the United States as a Officer charged with a Mission from the Chinese Government, and who it is stated was about to proceed to this Country via Canada.

MR. WADE TO THE EARL OF DERBY.

No. 205.

PEKING,

October 15th, 1874.

MY LORD,—I have the honor to forward, herewith,
Copy of a Note I have received from the Prince of Kung and of the answer I returned thereto, relative to a certain native of Shantung in China, named Wang-Tsing-fuh, otherwise called Wang-zin-p'ing, who His Imperial Highness reports is about to proceed via Canada to England.

This individual it would appear passes himself off as an officer travelling on a Mission from the Chinese Government. This is not the case and the Prince in informing the Foreign Minister at Peking of this imposition requests that Wang-zin-p'ing be arrested if possible, and sent back to China.

I have not thought it advisable to enter into an explanation of our difficulties in cases of Extradition except where we have special provision in our Treaties upon the subject.

In our Treaty of 1858, with China, Art. 21 obliges us only to give up such fugitives as may have fled to Hong Kong, or on board British Vessels in the Port of the Colony.

I have, &c.

(Signed,)

THOMAS FRANCIS WADE.

The Earl of Derby,

&c., &c., &c.

PEKING, SEPT. 28th, 1874.

The Prince of Kung to H. B. M. Minister,

A despatch was received on the 24th inst., from the Minister Superintendent of Trade for the Southern Ports to the following effect.

"It has been reported at different periods by the Taotais at Shanghai and Chinkiong that a linguist named Wang-zin-p'ing had leagued himself with certain individuals among the floating population of Shanghai, and had gone from Shanghai to Chinkiong carrying with him arms without a licence, his object being to commit depredations. Hearing that his apprehension was sought for he took to flight. A translation from a newspaper under date of the 10th August has lately been sent in by the Taotai at Shanghai, being an extract from a newspaper published at Hartford (?) in the United States, which contains the following statement: A native of Shanghai in China, named Wang-Tsing-fuh, otherwise called Wang-zin-p'ing is perpetrating frauds on hotel-keepers to a large extent, and it is reported that he is about to proceed via Canada to England. He passes himself off on all sides as an officer travelling on a mission from the Chinese Government.

From the particulars respecting this individual's personal appearance and origin, taken in connection with the fact of the escape from justice already effected, there can be no doubt that the man is no other than Wang-zin-p'ing. The offender in question is familiarly versed in the English language which he can read as well as speak, and he is thus emboldened to visit foreign countries and embark in a career of swindling. There is good reason to apprehend that he may work further mischief if not promptly taken into custody. The Minister Superintendent of Trade consequently begs that the foreign ministers be requested to write to their governments to have Wang-zin-p'ing forthwith arrested wherever he may be found and sent back in custody to China to be stringently dealt with."

On receipt of the foregoing it has to be observed that inasmuch as Wang-zin-p'ing has clandestinely, carried arms (from place to place) in China with a view to committing depredations, and further more passing himself off abroad in the guise of an official person has embarked in a career of swindling. Conduct such as this it is impossible for the law to ignore. It is urgently requisite that measures be taken to affect his arrest and to bring him to justice in order to guard against further mischief. It is incumbent therefore upon the Prince to address this communication to the British Minister with the request that his government may be called upon to join in the measures instituted toward securing without fail the apprehension of this person, and to send him back to China in custody for trial and punishment. The Prince trusts that he may be prevented from making foreign countries his refuge and the scene of his mischievous acts.

Kung Chin, 13th year, 8th moon, 18th day.

PEKIN, le 15 octobre 1874.

MILORD,—J'ai l'honneur de vous expédier, sous ce pli, copies d'une lettre que j'ai reçue du Prince de Kung et de la réponse que j'y ai faite relativement à un individu natif de Shantung, en Chine, nommé Wang-Tsing-Fuh alias Wang-zin-p'ing qui, d'après Son Altesse Impériale, doit bientôt se rendre en Angleterre en passant par le Canada.

Il paraît que cet individu se fait passer pour chargé d'une mission du gouvernement chinois, ce qui est faux, et le Prince, en avisant, l'ambassadeur à Pékin, demande que l'imposteur Wang zin-p'ing soit arrêté et renvoyé en Chine.

Je n'ai pas cru devoir entrer dans des explications au sujet des difficultés que présentent les cas d'exceptions non prévus par nos traités.

Dans notre traité de 1858 avec la Chine, l'article 21 nous oblige à livrer seulement les fugitifs qui se sont trouvés à Hong-Kong ou sur des navires anglais dans le port de cette colonie.

PEKIN, le 28 septembre 1874.

LE PRINCE DE KUNG AU MINISTRE DE S. M. B.

Le 24 courant, la dépêche suivante a été reçue du ministre surintendant du commerce pour les ports du sud :—

"A différentes époques, il a été fait rapport par les Taotais de Shanghai et Chinking qu'un linguiste nommé Wang-zin-p'ing s'était ligué avec certains individus appartenant à la population flottante de Shanghai, et s'était rendu de Shanghai à Chinkiang, emportant des armes, sans permis, cela dans le but de commettre des déprédations. Ayant appris qu'on voulait l'arrêter, il s'est enfui. Dernièrement, le Taotai de Shanghai a envoyé la traduction d'un extrait d'un journal, en date du 10 août, publié à Hartford, (?) Etats-Unis, et qui mentionne les faits suivants :—Un individu, natif de Shanghai, en Chine, nommé Wang-Tsin-Fuh, alias Wang zin-p'ing, commet de nombreuses escroqueries considérables dans les hôtels, et l'on dit qu'il doit bientôt se rendre en Angleterre en passant par le Canada. Il se fait passer pour fonctionnaire chargé d'une mission pour le gouvernement chinois. D'après le signalement et les antécédents de cet individu, renseignements obtenus à la suite de l'évasion par laquelle il s'est soustrait à la justice, ce n'est autre que Wang-zin-p'ing. L'individu en question parle et lit très bien l'anglais, et, fort de cette connaissance, il se propose de visiter les pays étrangers pour y pratiquer la fraude. Il est fort à craindre qu'il commette de nouveaux méfaits, s'il n'est pas promptement arrêté. Le ministre surintendant du commerce demande, en conséquence, que les ministres étrangers soient invités à écrire à leurs gouvernements de faire immédiatement arrêter Wang-zin-p'ing, partout où on le trouvera, et renvoyer, sous bonne garde, en Chine afin qu'il soit puni comme il le mérite.

Au reçu des renseignements qui précèdent, on a dû observer que Wang-zin-p'ing, ayant clandestinement porté des armes, (d'un lieu à un autre,) en Chine en vue de commettre des déprédations,—de plus, s'étant fait passer à l'étranger pour fonctionnaire du gouvernement chinois, ce n'est qu'un escroc dont la loi doit se préoccuper, et qu'il est urgent de l'arrêter pour le traduire devant la justice afin de prévenir de nouveaux méfaits. Il est donc du devoir du Prince d'adresser cette communication au ministre britannique, en le priant de demander à son gouvernement qu'il veuille bien secorder les mesures prises pour amener l'arrestation de cet individu et le renvoyer, sous bonne garde, en Chine. Le Prince espère que le dit individu ne pourra trouver refuge dans les pays étrangers ni en faire le théâtre de ses actes coupables.

Kung, Chine,—13ème année,—8ème lune,—18ème jour.

MILITIA GENERAL ORDERS.

HEAD QUARTERS,

Ottawa, 12th March, 1875.

GENERAL ORDERS (2).

ACTIVE MILITIA.

1.

Precautions at Target Practice,

A case having occurred where a Sergeant was killed by a target falling upon him whilst engaged in painting it, Staff Officers in command of Military Districts will take immediate steps to place each Rifle Range in their respective Districts under the charge of a responsible Officer, and to direct that hereafter no one will be allowed to practice on any range until it is ascertained that the targets have been examined and proper arrangements made for conducting the practice.

In order to prevent similar or other accidents or injuries the greatest care is to be taken when lowering or raising the targets, they are on no account to be allowed to fall by removing the props, but are in every instance, to be carefully laid on the ground face upwards.

Defects in the foundations of butts, caused by the action of frost, are to be remedied before Spring practice commences. The targets when in use are to be placed as perpendicular as possible on the platforms, and properly supported by the bolts and iron staves provided for that purpose.

No. 2.

Transfer of Stores by Officers Commanding Corps.

Several cases having occurred where officers commanding Corps have resigned without accounting satisfactorily for the public stores in their possession, hereafter whenever any officer responsible for public stores has tendered his resignation or has been relieved from command, the Brigade Major of the Division will proceed without delay to the Head Quarters of the Corps, and either take over all such stores or witness their transfer to the next senior or other proper officer.

Immediately on the transfer being completed the Brigade Major will make a special report of deficiencies in order that steps may be taken to recover their value.

No. 1.

MILICE ACTIVE.

Précautions à prendre pour le tir à la cible.

Vu la mort accidentelle d'un sergent tué par la chute sur lui d'une cible pendant qu'il était à la pointer, les officiers d'Etat Major qui commandent des Districts verront immédiatement à ce que chaque endoit désigner pour le tir, soit placé sous la responsabilité d'un officier, et donneront ordre qu'à l'avenir personne ne pourra pratiquer avant que l'on se soit assuré que les cibles ont été examinées et que les arrangements exigés pour la conduite du tir ont été faits.

Afin de prévenir tout accident de cette nature ou autre, on devra prendre le plus grand soin possible lorsqu'il s'agira de baisser ou d'élever les cibles; on ne devra jamais les faire tomber en enlevant les supports, mais on devra toujours les baisser par terre avec précaution la face en haut.

Les dérangements causés par l'action du froid aux fondations des cibles et de leurs accessoires devront être réparés avant que commence la pratique du tir.

Les cibles dont on se servira devront être placées aussi à plomb qu'il est possible sur la plate-forme, et convenablement supportées par des barres de fer destinées à cet effet.

No. 2.

Transfert des effets par les Officiers commandant des Corps de Milice.

Comme il est souvent arrivé que des officiers qui commandent des corps de milice, ont donné leur démission sans avoir rendu un compte satisfaisant des effets publics qui étaient en leur possession, à l'avenir toutes les fois qu'un officier offrira sa démission, ou qu'il sera déchargé de son commandement et qu'il sera en possession d'effets publics pour lesquels il est responsable, le Major de Brigade de la Division se rendra immédiatement aux Quartiers Généraux du Corps de milice, et reprendra tous les effets publics en la possession de cet officier ou s'assurera de leur transfert à l'officier le plus ancien ou autre officier en lieu d'en répondre.

Aussitôt que le transfert aura été complété, le Major de Brigade fera un rapport spécial des effets manquants afin que l'on puisse prendre les moyens de recouvrer leur valeur.

CIRCULAR.

DOWNING STREET,
19th February, 1875.

SIR,—The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have again placed at the disposal of the Secretary of State for the Colonies the seven nominations to Naval Cadetships, which previously to 1872, when they were suspended by their Lordships, had formerly been assigned to him for distribution in certain Colonies.

2. These nominations, which are available only for Colonists in the strict sense of the term, were originally assigned to the North American and Australian Colonies, but as all were not invariably claimed by those Colonies, and the nominations lapsed if not claimed within the year, it often happened that several were annually lost to the Colonial Service, whilst the privilege of nominating would have been much prized in some of the un-nominating Colonies.

3. In these circumstances it has been decided to increase the number of Colonies to which these nominations will in the first instance be assigned, (1) and should all of them not have been applied for by these Colonies by the end of the first quarter in each year, the nominations then at my disposal will be made available to meet any applications which may have been received from other Colonies.

4. Should you have occasion to submit an application in favour of a candidate, you will take care that he is within the limits of age prescribed by the enclosed regulations, that he is free from any physical defect, and that he is likely, as far as can be ascertained, to be able to pass the necessary examination, as the nominations in all cases of rejected candidates, from whatever cause, are considered by the Admiralty to be forfeited.

5. I enclose a copy of a form which is required by the Admiralty to be filled up by the parent or guardian of the candidate, and which must be transmitted with any recommendation in favour of a nomination which you may make. I also enclose copies of Regulations for Candidates, Regulations while under Training and a Memorandum as to physical disqualifications for the Service.

6. As the number of nominations at my disposal is very limited, you will point out to the friends of any Candidate whose name you may submit, in order that there may be no misapprehension and consequent disappointment, that the recommendation is made by you without any assurance of my having a vacant nomination at my disposal.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your most obedient, humble servant,

CARNARVON.

The Officer Administering
The Government of Canada.

With a view to prevent Parents and Guardians from incurring the inconvenience and expense of preparing Candidates for Naval Cadetships who may be physically unfit for Her Majesty's Service, it is suggested that they submit the young gentlemen to examination by the medical adviser of the family, or any other qualified medical practitioner, to whom the following points may be submitted as those upon which they will, previous to their educational examination, be physically examined at the Admiralty,

It is to be understood that this private examination is merely suggested as a guide to Parents and Guardians, and to lessen the chances of disappointment, and that it is by no means intended to take the place of, or to influence in any way, the regular Official Physical Examination.

1. A weak constitution arising from imperfect development, or weakness of the physical powers of the body, either hereditary or from chronic disease, wounds or injuries.

2. Chronic eruptions on the skin or scalp.

3. Malformation of the head, with a dry, harsh, divergent state of the hair of the scalp, fracture or depression of the bones of the skull, disordered intellect, imbecility, epilepsy, paralysis or impediment of speech."

4. Blindness or defective vision, as tested by Snellen's test types, in one or both eyes, fistula lachrymalis and ptosis.

5. Impaired hearing, or discharge from one or both ears, disease or thickening of the lining membrane of the external ear.

6. Disease of the bones of the nose or of its cartilages, and polypus.

7. Disease of the throat, palate, or tonsils; unsound teeth, offensive breath from constitutional causes, unhealthy gums, scrofulous disease of the glands of the throat or neck, external cicatrices from scrofulous sores.

8. Functional or organic disease of the heart or blood-vessels, deformity or contraction of the chest, flattening of the sub-clavicular regions, phthisis, hæmoptysis, bronchitis, dyspnoea, aphonia, chronic cough, or other symptoms of tubercular exudation into the pulmonary tissues.

9. Swelling or distension of the abdomen, undue obesity, disease or enlargement of the liver, spleen, or kidneys. Rupture, weakness or distension of the abdominal rings; vesical weakness or incontinence.

10. The existence of any congenital defect or of varicocele.

11. Any disease of or pertaining to the alimentary canal.

12. Paralysis, weakness, impaired motion, or contraction of the upper or lower extremities, from whatever cause; aneurism, a varicose state of the veins especially of the leg. Bunions, distortion, malformation of the feet, or malposition of the fingers or toes.

13. Distortion of the spine, of the bones of the chest, or pelvis, from injury or constitutional defect.

No person is to be admitted into Her Majesty's Service unless he has had small-pox, or has been vaccinated, and should the vaccine cicatrix not be considered satisfactory, he is to be reported fit only on condition that he immediately submits to the operation.

In the event of the preliminary private examination making it apparent that a candidate is not likely to pass the subsequent official physical examination, the parent or guardian is requested to inform the Admiralty of the fact without delay, in order that another candidate may be nominated.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING NAVAL CADETS.

Candidates whose age exceeds thirteen on the 15th July or 15th January following the examination, will not be allowed a second trial.

8. Any candidate who fails to appear at the examination after he has obtained a nomination will not be allowed to present himself at any future examination without a fresh nomination, except in the case of illness, certified by a physician or surgeon, and approved by their Lordships, in which case the candidate will be allowed to present himself at the following examination, provided he is still within the limits of age; but under no circumstances will such a Candidate be allowed to appear at more than one examination.

9. For all Cadets entered under these regulations, the annual rate of payment will be at the rate of 70*l.* per annum for the period in the “Britannia,” to be paid half yearly in advance to the Accountant-General of the Navy.
